	A	B	C	D	E	F
1	Illinois Department of Commerce & Economic Opportunity
2	Grants FY09, FY10, FY11
3	Roseland Community (Zip Codes: 60619, 60620, 60628)
4
5	Grant Number		Amount	Grantee	Zip Code	Date
6	10	203014	$200,000.00	The Beloved Community	60620	23-Nov-09
7	09	333006	$100,000.00	Chicago Football Classic, Inc	60620	20-Jan-09
8	08	731016	$261,499.00	Roseland Community Hospital	60628	14-Jun-10
9	09	203077	$1,750,000.00	Chicago State University	60628	30-Jun-09
10	09	051116	$100,000.00	Chicago State University	60628	15-Dec-08
11	10	801176	$76,500.00	Chicago State University	60628	23-Nov-09
12	09	801176	$76,500.00	Chicago State University	60628	02-Dec-08

	G
1
2
3
4
5	Grant Description
6	The grantee will use grant funds for all costs associated with the "Excellence in Education Preparatory Program" and the "Youth Entrepreneurship Program."
7	To assist the Chicago Football Classic Inc., in hosting the Chicago Football Classic XI. The game will feature Mississippi Valley State and Southern University.
8	A collaborative clinical practice initiative between Roseland Community Hospital (RCH) and Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke (Rush) University to provide an integrated, two-year, Master-level nursing program for five RCH employees. Also, RCH and Olivet Nazarene University will collaborate to provide a two-year, bachelor-level nursing program for fifteen RCH Associate Degree Nurses (ADNs).
9	Funds from this grant will be applied to the cost of providing benefits to students who are enrolled in the CRCP program. These costs include but are not limited to student benefits of housing, transportation subsidies and CRCP costs including recruitment and indirect costs for each program partner. Participants have no further commitment to work at UPS after graduation. Participants are chosen on a first-come, first-served basis until available positions are filled.
10	Grants to provide funding for the operation of an Entrepreneurship Center & awards dollars for clients.
11	To provide financial assistance in the operation and management of a Small Business Development Center at Chicago State University.
12	To provide financial assistance in the operation and management of a Small Business Development Center.

	A	B	C	D	E	F
13	10	621039	$62,000.00	Chicago State University	60628	22-Jun-10
14	09	621071	$72,000.00	Chicago State University	60628	22-Jun-09
15	08	203774	$100,000.00	South Central Community Services, Inc.	60619	10-Oct-08
16	09	865014	$39,134.00	Black Contractors United	60620	10-Jul-09
17	10	781003	$250,000.00	Black Contractors United	60620	29-Jun-10
18	09	203088	$50,000.00	Brainerd Community Development Corporation	60620	02-Jul-09
19	10	203669	$50,000.00	Brainerd Community Development Corporation	60620	21-Jun-10
20	10	203917	$50,000.00	Chatham Business Assn Inc	60619	30-Jun-10

	G
13	Chicago State University an educational institution will serve low-income individuals in the far south side of Chicago. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs. It is anticipated that 1380 will be provided with computer access and 520 will be provided with technology training during the grant period.
14	Chicago State University is serving low-income residents in metropolitan Chicago. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs that support Workforce Development and Education outcomes.
15	Costs associated with construction improvements to the community center.
16	The multi-company training project(s) will enable participating companies to expand their business enterprise in Illinois, expand their business into new markets and introduce more efficient technologies/continuous improvement systems into their operations in order to remain competitive. In addition, training will enable participating employees to upgrade their skills and knowledge.
17	The focus of BCU's Green Horizons-Women's pre-apprenticeship program is to provide construction-trades training to 35 formerly incarcerated minority and female women; age 18 and older in the areas of plumbing and weatherization with a focus on green methods and techniques.
18	All costs associated with providing computer training for populations residing in under-served communities in the Chicago metropolitan area.
19	Grant funds will be used to increase access to computers and telecommunications technology and related training for populations residing in under-served communities in the Chicago metropolitan area.
20	The grantee will use grant funds to expand its training services to provide technology training and workshops for small business owners.

	A	B	C	D	E	F
21	09	621055	$135,000.00	Community Assistance Program	60628	29-Jun-09
22	09	772007	$47,500.00	Community Assistance Program	60628	23-Jun-09
23	10	621033	$115,000.00	Community Assistance Program	60628	22-Jun-10
24	10	772007	$50,000.00	Community Assistance Program	60628	25-Jun-10
25	09	621090	$40,000.00	A Knock At Midnight, NFP	60620	23-Jun-09
26	10	621049	$34,000.00	A Knock At Midnight, NFP	60620	21-Jun-10
27	09	428006	$9,200.00	Shelton Solutions, Inc.	60619	08-Dec-08
28	10	428006	$13,100.00	Shelton Solutions, Inc.	60619	08-Feb-10

	G
21	Community Assistance Programs is a nonprofit organization serving low-income residents in metropolitan Chicago. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs that support Workforce Development and Education outcomes.
22	Forge partnerships with local employers to train, employ, and retain unemployed, disadvantaged workers after identifying local workforce needs.
23	Community Assistance Programs,a not-for-profit community-based agency will serve low-income individuals in Douglas, Oakland, Grand Boulevard, Kenwood and surrounding communities. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs. It is anticipated that 600 will be provided with computer access and 480 will be provided with technology training during the grant period.
24	Forge partnerships with local employers to train, employ, and retain unemployed, disadvantaged workers after identifying local workforce needs.
25	A Knock at Midnight is a nonprofit organization serving low-income residents in metropolitan Chicago. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs that support Workforce Development and Education outcomes.
26	A Knock At Midnight, a non-for-profit, 501(c)(3) community based organization, will serve low-income individuals in Englewood, Auburn Gresham, West Englewood and surrounding communities. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs. It is anticipated that 500 will be provided with computer access and 350 will be provided with technology training during the grant period.
27	To train building operators on energy efficiency concepts specific to Chicago area churches and congregations.
28	Funding to continue recruitment and training of congregations from various denominations through the Great Stewarts of Energy Project in the ComEd electric territory.

	A	B	C	D	E	F
29	09	325002	$10,000.00	Shelton Solutions, Inc.	60619	08-Dec-08
30	09	621045	$50,000.00	Comer Science & Education Foundation	60619	30-Jun-09
31	10	621067	$43,000.00	Comer Science & Education Foundation	60619	22-Jun-10
32	09	861005	$17,500.00	American Science and Technology	60628	09-Jul-09
33	09	861030	$3,000.00	Intercity Supply Co Inc	60619	09-Jul-09
34	09	861053	$12,033.00	Star Detective and Security Agency, Inc.	60619	10-Jul-09

	G
29	One-2-Five energy management evaluation process. Applicant will become accredited on the One-2-Five process. Applicant will assist in identifying Illinois energy consumers to participate in the LEAP program. Applicant will receive an initial allotment of five One-2-Five licenses and conduct a minimum of five One-2-Five diagnostic sessions. Applicant will explain the entire LEAP program to Illinois energy consumers and develop downstream activities to include energy efficiency action plans and technical services.
30	Comer Science & Education Foundation is a nonprofit organization serving low-income residents in metropolitan Chicago. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs that support Workforce Development and Education outcomes.
31	The Gary Comer Youth Center, a 501(c)(3) organization will serve low-income individuals in Revere Community of the Greater Grand Crossing neighborhood and surrounding communities. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs. It is anticipated that 1000 will be provided with computer access and 600 will be provided with technology training during the grant period.
32	The company has 3 employees that are part of their fuel cell integration team. This team has limited experience with the integration of fuel cell systems and related subsystems involving hybrid electric vehicles. Training of this type will allow the company to advance/meet their business objectives/mission of commercializing fuel cell systems.
33	As the company moves forward with the development of their green office products division, they have begun delivery and implementation of various technology, workplace skills and electronic media training designed to assist them with streamlining their processes to reduce redundancy and operate more efficiently.
34	The company has begun implementation and deliver of their internal training plan designed to provide their employees with the required skills necessary to accelerate and grow their business.

	A	B	C	D	E	F
35	10	192003	$65,831.00	Holiness Homes of Vision	60620	25-Jun-10
36	10	424007	$120,865.00	Holiness Homes of Vision	60620	16-Jun-10
37	10	621090	$17,000.00	H.O.P.E. Organization	60619	21-Jun-10
38	10	781004	$250,000.00	New Pisgah Missionary Baptist Church	60620	29-Jun-10

	G
35	Funding for the incremental cost of the energy efficient measures for the construction of 54 multi-family unites located at 8216 S. Racine in Chicago.
36	Funding for the incremental cost of the energy efficient measures for the construction of 54 multi-family unites located at 8216 S. Racine in Chicago.
37	HOPE Organization a 501(c)(3) community-based organization will serve low-income individuals in Chicago's Southside and surrounding communities. Grant funds will support computer access and technology training programs. It is anticipated that 125 will be provided with computer access and 115 will be provided with technology training during the grant period.
38	To provide pre-apprenticeship training to African-American, female, minority and hard to serve populations in and around the Auburn Gresham community.