Chima, do you have electronic copies of details that can be sent to Annie on the press team?

Hi, Toni.

I left you a voice mail and wanted to follow-up with an e-mail regarding next week's announcement. I am working on the press release and was wondering whether you have additional information you could provide. Specifically, I am looking for details about funding and implementation. Also, will there be a Web site the public can visit for more information?

If it is easier to discuss over the phone, my direct line is 217/557-4185; of course e-mail works also – whatever is easiest for you.

Thank you.
