Billy Ocasio is covering this and will be best equipped to respond. He's actually at a Violence Prevention hearing right now.

Hey Toni,
Can I help field this one? Or is it easier for you to give VS a call? She is a friend.

Subject: Anti-violence commission

Ryan,
Hope you are doing well.
My Public Policy Committee would like some information about this commission. It appears that those appointed are all survivors of murder victims. Who will be chairing? Will their recommendations be assigned to a state agency? It doesn't look like there is anyone on the commission that can inform this group about what already exists: for example all the violence prevention activities offered by domestic violence and sexual assault programs in schools or the work being done by the Prevent Child Abuse IL. Could you please provide me with some understanding of what Governor Quinn hopes will come out of the hearings?
Thanks so much.
