Jen sent this to me but really it makes more sense for BJ since he's coordinating violence prevention. Since he's just getting started I'm thinking BJ and I could meet with them together.

Agenda:	The agenda for this meeting is to introduce to the Governor,"The Youth Council of IL". This was the appointment of my position from the website, www.pjyouthcouncil.com Chicago, IL) Ronald Ewing a young man from Illinois announced yesterday that he shall create a Youth Council for the state of Illinois. The Youth Council of Illinois under the hands of the new President Pro Tempore Ronald Ewing hopes to work alongside the Coalition of Independent Youth Council's which now consist of New York, Vermont and Illinois. The three Youth Council's now working cooperatively together under the leadership of Michael Tessler, Finnian Kane and Ronald Ewing all bring promise to the hope of a one day "National Youth Council". President Michael Tessler is quoted with saying "In Illinois, crime and poverty plague the streets and the youth fall victim to gang violence and drugs. With the creation of this new Youth Council – I believe we can open gateways that will give young people the opportunities they deserve and under the leadership of Ronald Ewing I believe again Illinois will give us another great national leader." The new Pro Tempore President is set to have a live web conference with the Youth Council of New York to discuss the next steps.
Goal:	To get this youth council more connected with this government and begin to take the youth of illinois and make them more productive...
History:	There is no history, but here's a beginning. We want to start something new, that will produce positive change in Illinois. Change starts with a Chance!
