Gov, I think this is a good story to make use of:

6 young black men from summer jobs were given full time employment at A&D Property Services and there will be a celebration event tomorrow at 3pm at 7326 S. Exchange Ave. Chicago, IL.
They are also expecting:
-Kwame Raoul, 13th District
-Alderman Sandi Jackson, 7th Ward
-Bobbi Ball, Executive Director of Partners In Community Building
-Mark Buford, Vice President of Business Development and Strategic Alliances with A&D Property Services, Inc
-Henry L. English, founder, president and CEO of the Black United Fund of Illinois, Inc.
-Nedrick Miller, owner of Midwest Property Preservation Inc.
-Teyonda Wertz, Executive Director of South Shore Chamber, Inc.

In addition to work the participants received life coaching sessions, learned successful habits in the work place, personal finances, fatherhood and building self-esteem.

This communication comes as an invitation to celebrate the employment of six young men from the South Shore community. These employment situations came about as a result of your waving the age requirement for a targeted group of young men the South Shore Chamber, Inc. had recruited off the streets and were trying to put into employment situations. As a result of your cooperation six of these participants have realized permanent employment through a local business in the South Shore community. Please find attached an invitation for you and Ms. Irving to attend this celebration and tour the training center. Thank you.
