Provider	Special Projects Grant Summary	Senator	Amount
A knock at Midnight	Proposed to provide through Afterschool Challenge " Youth Development Project services to serve the targeted population that includes at risk youth living in the high risk communities of Auburn Gresham, Engle wood and West Englewood of Chicago.	J. Collins	$250,000
Advocate Trinity Hospital	Pathways to Health Careers is a proposed afterschool program with a focus on positive youth development, work based learning experiences and career exploration in the health care field.	D. Trotter	$50,000
Aunt Martha's Youth Service Center	Aunt Martha's proposes to provide an after school program (Project High Hopes) for 45 high risk students grades 5th – 8th (ages 9-14) in Riverdale, IL Monday through Friday and some weekends for the purpose of strengthening young people and their communities. The program will help youth grow into mature and successful adults by promoting positive relationships with peers, emphasizing youths' strengths, providing opportunities to learn healthy behaviors, connecting with caring adults, and empowering youth to assume leadership roles.	T. Hutchinson	$500,000
Austin Chamber of Commerce	ACC After School Internship Program is an afterschool jobs program for youth residing in the city of Chicago communities of Austin and West Garfield Park. Youth will participate in a constructive program where they are exposed to the business world.	K. Lightford	$100,000
Austin People Action	Provider proposes to provide quality	K. Lightford	$1,700,000

Center	educational, recreational and cultural programs that promote the social, physical, intellectual and emotional development of predominately African American, high risk youth, ages 6 to 17 in a safe and supportive environment based on the Teen Reach model.
Bethel New Life	Provider proposes to use funds to support their Pathways to Princeton program. Program is an intensive year long personal development program designed to achieve impact by equipping engaged students for year-long success.	K. Lightford	$50,000
Black United Fund of Illinois	Provider proposes to provide capacity building services to individuals/families and community based organizations to strengthen families, build communities, and increase jobs.	D. Trotter	$650,000
Bridging the Tys to Jordan	Provider proposes to offer after school programming for children aged 6yrs to 17yrs aimed at improving academic performance, improving self esteem and formulating appropriates social skills.	D. Trotter	$75,000
Campaign for a Drug Free Westside	Summer fun program operating for six weeks at 7.5 hours per day, 5 days per week; the program will include academic support and enrichment, life skills education, leadership development, community service learning, cultural artistic activities, sports and recreational activities, parental involvement, and mentoring.	A. Collins	$965,000
Centers for New Horizons	Providing services to youth in grades 1-8th with a particular emphasis on students in 3-8 grades. Program	K. Raoul	$100,000 services will operate daily for 2.5 hours/day and will include health ambassadors Program, group mentoring, parent centered monthly events, homework assistance, and high yield learning projects, activities, and club. A civic education and community leadership program operating two days per week will be provided 7th and 8th grade students.

Chicago Heights Park District	Program will include academic support and enrichment, life skills education, leadership development, community service learning, cultural artistic activities, sports and recreational activities, parental involvement, and mentoring	T. Hutchinson	$200,000
Chicago Urban League	The Chicago urban League will provide mentoring and case management services to 55 young male adolescents through the Urban Youth Connections Mentoring Project Ready Program (UYC). UYC provides one-on-one intensive case management services for each youth. The Ultimate goal of the program is to reduce delinquent behaviors among African American male adolescents. Once the young men become aware of their responsibility to self, family and their community through participation in the program, they can begin preparing to become today's young scholars and tomorrow's community leaders.	K. Raoul	$300,000

Community Human Services	Prevention and diversion services through a case management format and intervention services through an after school programming format.	A. Collins K. Lightford	$1,550,000
Ebenezer Community Outreach	Program will include academic support and enrichment, life skills education, leadership development, community service learning, cultural artistic activities, sports and recreational activities, parental involvement, and mentoring. Target population will be 6-17 year olds in the Garfield Park community	K. Lightford	$400,000
F.O.R.U.M.	Serving youth 10-17 years old in the Greater Grand Crossing area. The program services life skills and parent training, computer lab, movie night/book clubs, service learning, and individual and family counseling services.	D. Trotter	$150,000
Family Guidance	Program is designed to give youth the knowledge, skills and attitudes they need to make good decisions and avoid drug use. The Family Guidance agency will utilize the Too Good For Drugs curriculum towards this end. Students will also engage in the Botvin's Skills program for self management skills, general social skills, and drug resistance skills.	A. Collins	$500,000
Gary Comer Youth Center	GCYC offers its members engaging programming as well as support services in a safe and welcoming environment. The out-of-school time programming provides the following	K. Raoul	$100,000 core services: improving academic performance; providing recreation, sports, cultural and artistic activities; providing positive adult mentors; offering life skills education; encouraging parental involvement; incorporating Service Learning; and offering youth employment.

Good Hope NFP	Good Hope NFP proposes expanding their current Teen Reach program to include an additional Good Hope Youth Services (GHYS) Program. The GHYS program will allow for additional children and additional hours of After School programming in the Englewood area	J. Collins	$75,000
Governor's State University Early Childhood Center	are establishing partnerships with GSU elementary education faculty to provide academic enrichment in math, literacy, science and social studies for fall 2012. Services will include recreational activities as well as possible tutoring or enhanced educational services. Students will receive instruction in financial literacy and art instruction including drama and theatre.	T. Hutchinson	$500,000
Hand N Hand Outreach	Agency will provide outreach (community intervention) food, case management, life skills development, job readiness and academic counseling and service learning opportunities for students/youth in Garfield Park community. Proposed to serve youth 6-17yrs age.	A. Collins	$100,000
Healthcare Consortium of Illinois	Agency will provide Tutoring, Computer Technology, Community Service Outreach, Junior Achievement and Teen Reach Mentoring.	D. Trotter	$150,000

Hegewisch Community Committee	Agency will provide in Multi Sites, Youth Summer Camp, Counseling referrals, community service hours and South East Side Safe Kids program.	D. Trotter	$25,000
Henry's Sober Living	Agency will provide substance abuse recovery services to young adults.	J. Meeks	$250,000
HRDI	Agency will provide in Multi Sites, Life Skills, Tutoring, Recreation, Parent involvement and snacks to youth aged 6 – 17yrs.	E. Jones	$500,000
Illinois One Family One Child	Agency will provide Educational Services and Tutoring; mentorship/advocacy; urban life skills development, family services; workplace readiness assistance; substance abuse and mental health referrals; recreational and sports activities and case management.	A. Collins	$420,000
Kankakee County Community Services:	Agency will provide in Multi Sites the following services, The Scholarship program, Proposed Tutoring, The College Corner program, I.A.M. Summit, Student Employment Development program, Financial Literacy Classes Cultural enrichment program, and recreational activities.	T. Hutchinson	$850,000
Kenwood Oakland Community Organization	Kenwood Oakland Community Organization: Agency will provide in Multi Sites, after school programming and School Community Parent Patrol for youth in Kenwood Oakland community.	K. Raoul	$75,000
Lee's Child Care Center,	Agency will provide to youth aged 6 –	K. Lightford	$50,000

Inc.:	12 yrs, tutoring, mentoring recreation, pick up and drop off services, summer camp, computer training, creative arts, field trips nutrition and safety training and parent volunteers.
Lutheran Social Services:	Agency will provide in Multi Sites, Social /Emotional skills instruction, Career exploration/ development, Academic skill development, Life skills development, Leisure skill development.	E. Jones	$100,000
Minerva Educational Foundation, Inc.:	Agency will provide four communities and their youth with the following services in two sites; Leadership Development, Community Action and Advocacy, Career Exploration, workshops on self esteem, Decision making skills, relationship building, body image, sexual Health, and Nutrition and Fitness and Prevention Strategies that focus on gang and drug prevention.	K. Lightford	$40,000
Me, Mine and Ours Daycare	Agency will provide a safe haven in community for youth aged 6 – 12yrs. Program will create an environment that's conducive for learning, sharing and engaging in strong leadership skills. Program will target reading comprehension to help youth obtain classroom proficiency.	K. Lightford	$25,000
Mt Vernon Church	Agency will provide to youth in East Garfield community, Homework/ Tutorial Clinic enrichment program with Sports and recreation activities.	A. Collins	$100,000
New Hope Community	Provider proposes to provide academic,	J. Collins	$75,000

Service Center	life skills, parental involvement, recreation, sports cultural/artistic activities, service learning and employment training for youth between the ages of 6 years through 18 years of age in Englewood, West Englewood, Ashburn, Auburn Gresham, Chicago Lawn, Marquette and New City. South and Southwest side of Chicago.
Progressive Ministries	Provider proposes to provide dance lessons, life skill classes, job readiness, computer training and academic assistance to youth ages 8 – 17 years.	K. Lightford	$160,000
Protosoma, Inc.	Provider proposes teaching and development of musical performance to youth of the Proviso Township area ages 14 – 19 years.	K. Lightford	$50,000
Provisio-Lyden Counsel for Community Action, Inc. (PLCCA)	Provider proposes to provide Empowering Youth Through Technology classes and workshops in computer hardware and software, graphic arts, webpage design, cinematography, photography, studio recording (sound engineer, sound technician, music software), and disc jockeying for youth residing in Maywood	K. Lightford	$110,000
Roseland Christian Ministries Center	Provider proposes to provide after school programming to Roseland youth ages 6 – 18.	E. Jones	$500,000
Safer Foundation	Provider proposes to enhance and expand its Youth Empowerment Program to include after school educational and career-oriented activities for youth 15-17 living on Chicago's Westside.	A. Collins	$500,000

South East Alcohol & Drug Abuse Center (SEADAC)	Provider proposes an after school program for youth to include homework assistance, tutoring, cooking and nutrition sessions, sports, dance classes and the Bush Journal for youth 6-13 years old. Provider proposes teen program for youth 14-18 to provide homework assistance, tutoring, sports, mentoring, girls and boys club, basketball league and volleyball league. They will service South Chicago, Hegewisch and East Side.	K.Raoul	$100,000
South Austin Community Coalition Center	Provider proposed to support participant's school success and promotion to the next grade, increase parental involvement in the success of their children, offer wrap-around services to families to help parents access programs, resources and benefits to help get through the current hard times. Gary Comer Youth Center: GCYC offers its members engaging programming as well as support services in a safe and welcoming environment. The out-of-school time programming provides the following core services: improving academic performance; providing recreation, sports, cultural and artistic activities; providing positive adult mentors; offering life skills education; encouraging parental involvement; incorporating Service Learning; and offering youth employment.	K. Lightford	$50,000
South Central Community Services	Provider proposes to provide tutoring, mentoring, parental support groups, life skills, homework assistance and social responsibility at two site locations for youth 6-17 years old living within the Chatham, Avalon and Greater Grand Crossing communities.	D. Trotter E. Jones	$100,000

Southside Help Center	Provider proposes to provide tutoring, STEM Programs, Creative Arts, College/Career Readiness, Parent Involvement, Music Program and Violence Prevention for youth 10 – 18 years old serving the Roseland, Washington Heights area.	E. Jones	$250,000
Southwest Organizing Project (SWOP)	Provider proposes to provide after school programming: academic, recreation, arts, life skills, mentoring and service learning etc. for youth 11-13 years old.	J. Collins	$250,000
The Beloved Community	Provider proposes to provide tutoring, test preparation courses, student and family workshops, college counseling, collage and scholarship application assistance and FAFSA Assistance for youth middle and high school aged residing within the 60620 zip code area.	J. Collins	$250,000
West Side Health Authority	Provider proposes after-school programs, tutoring, case management audio-visual education, youth leadership institute and computerland internet access for at risk youth, ages 14-17 years old within the Austin community area #25.	K. Lightford	$50,000