Good afternoon,
Just a quick update regarding our discussion. Reshma is refusing to open the ED's door and allow access until all of Barbara Shaw's things are out of the space. She has indicated that this will be next week. She also indicated that there was some follow up discussion with the AG's office regarding this process. Please advise. In order for the directives to be met I believe that it will be necessary for someone outside of IVPA to issue instructions to all.

Thanks,
Lorri

Hi,
I just wanted to clarify that the Director's Office is generally locked and not available for scheduled meetings. If you need to schedule a meeting please work with Maria to schedule a room. Thanks!
