Hi Toni,
One of my organizations, Sunshine Ministries just notified my office (see attached) that they are unable to participate in our summer youth employment program this year, thus denying ketone to approach another organization. I am request an additional day to identify another organizationI can work with to deliver the services. Please let me know if this is ok.

I am very grateful for your encouragement and support to apply for the summer youth plan and agree that this is a great plan for the community and much needed. We have spent the day working on schedules, staffing and logistics around it and have run into 3 items that together will prevent us from pursuing the grant.

1. space. We have at least 3 weeks of this grant period in which our building is simply too full to add additional staff and youth. We have maxed out the space that we have.

2. staff. We have a period of 2 weeks in which our youth staff will be traveling to Branson Missouri and Bozeman Montana (with Woodlawn youth), removing the needed leadership to oversee the program.

3. payroll. Our normal payroll is roughly 16 people (8 FT and 8 PT). Since we are the lead site for the PLAN portion of the NRI system, our payroll is now approximately 75 for summer. This has essentially maxed out our payroll capacity with our current provider.

I would LOVE to work with you to schedule ahead to host this program in 2013 and as I believe both of your offices know, we are planning a building and program expansion with a property across the street that will allow us to operate at a higher level of capacity in the coming year. I will come in to speak with each of you further about this once we have the title for the property in hand. I believe that will be at the end of July.

In the meantime, I want to say thank you again and that I regret having to say no to the summer jobs program. We are running at/near max capacity now, I look forward to working with you to increase our capacity soon.

I have spoken with 1 of 3 leadership team members, each of whom will need to be able to share the role in coordinating this with me. I'll have confirmation for you Monday, but as of now I intend to submit an application by then.
