SR-0692 HUNTER-GARRETT-CROTTY.

Resolves that the Board of Higher Education shall conduct a thorough and comprehensive study of the cost and feasibility of implementing textbook rental programs at public universities and community colleges.

SENATE COMMITTEE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Additionally resolves that the Board of Higher Education shall solicit and report the views of private entities that currently operate bookstores and of textbook authors and publishers. Changes the date that the Board must report its findings and recommendations from no later than August 1, 2006 to no later than January 15, 2007.

SENATE FLOOR AMENDMENT NO. 2

Additionally resolves that the Board of Higher Education, the Department of Revenue, and the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity shall thoroughly assess and report in the Board of Higher Education's findings the economic impact that current textbook purchasing arrangements and that a textbook rental program and other cost-saving alternatives would have on public universities and community colleges, State government, local governments, students, and private entities that currently operate bookstores either on behalf of or independent of one or more public universities or community colleges in this State.

HR-1151 REIS.

Requires the Governor and the Department of Public Health to provide full disclosure of how the current appropriations to the Illinois Regenerative Medicine Institute are being spent and upon awarding the grants, disclose all information regarding the grantees, the process by which these grantees were selected, as well as the information on those grant applications that were rejected and the reasons why those applications were rejected; disclose any and all other information pertinent to the status and operation of the Institute; and to require any future appropriation to the Institute to be approved by the General Assembly as a stand alone appropriation.

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Replaces everything. Reinserts the provisions of the Resolution with these changes: (1) urges (rather than requires) the Governor and the Department of Public Health to provide full disclosure of how the current appropriations for the Illinois Regenerative Medicine Institute (IRMI) are being spent; (2) urges (rather than requires) the Governor and the Department of Public Health, upon awarding the grants, to disclose all information regarding the grantees, the process by which these grantees were selected, as well as the information on those grant applications that were rejected and the reasons why those applications were rejected; (3) urges (rather than requires) the Governor and the Department to disclose any and all other information pertinent to the status and operation of the Institute, including, but not limited to, the oversight and reporting processes in place; (4) deletes provision that any future appropriations to the Department of Public Health for the purposes of the Institute must be approved by the General Assembly in a stand alone appropriation; and (5) changes various whereas clauses to acknowledge that the Department of Public Health has awarded grants to eligible entities on April 24th.

Amends the House Rules of the 94th General Assembly. Makes changes concerning the following: the requirements for documents that may be accepted by the Clerk for filing; the number of copies required to be filed; motions to adopt conference committee reports and revival of the bill; when floor amendments may be filed; the Speaker's supervision over committee rooms and the chapel; no calendars on perfunctory days; Co-Chairpersons of standing and special committees; death resolutions; joint sessions; chamber telephone booths; sponsorship and first reading of Senate bills; filing of conveyance appraisals; legislative measures that are not debatable; motions to table floor and committee amendments; motions to concur in or recede from amendments; and other matters.

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 1

(House Rule 64)

Further amends the House Rules. Makes changes concerning the following: committee reports on legislative measures (instead of bills and resolutions); legislative measures (instead of bills and resolutions) being called for a vote in committee; bills and resolutions being presented in committee by the Minority Spokesperson; the definition of "Minority Spokesperson" when a committee has Co-Chairpersons; and division of the question if the question under consideration (instead of in debate) contains several points.
