RE: JCAR Annual Report

As Chairs of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, we hereby submit the 2015 Annual Report of that Committee. An overview of the Committee's rules review activities can be found in the following pages.

The Joint Committee on Administrative Rules gratefully acknowledges your continued support and assistance. We encourage all members of the General Assembly to take an active role in this vital oversight function guaranteeing that the public right to know is protected through an open rulemaking process. We welcome your suggestions and comments on agency rules and the role of the Committee. Only as each elected representative becomes concerned and involved in the oversight process can the Committee ensure that the intent of the legislation the General Assembly passes is maintained.

JCAR

Its Creation and Its Purpose

Creation

The Illinois General Assembly created the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules (JCAR) in 1977 and delegated to it the responsibility of the legislative branch to ensure that the laws it enacts are appropriately implemented through administrative law. The specific duties and authorities of JCAR are outlined in the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act (IAPA), as is the Illinois rulemaking process.

Responsibilities

The Committee's principal programs and activities include:

- Review of General Rulemaking. In the course of this review, JCAR seeks to facilitate involvement by the affected public and to make the review process a timely and efficient one that assists State agencies in their goal of enacting the best administrative law possible.
- Review of Emergency and Peremptory Rulemakings to ensure that they are justifiable within the IAPA's limitations on these types of rulemakings. Emergency and peremptory rulemakings are not subject to the IAPA's public comment requirements, and thus should be used conservatively.
- Review of Existing Agency Rules and Policies to determine if they have been properly promulgated, are unauthorized or unreasonable, or result in serious negative impact on the citizens of this State. These reviews can be undertaken upon JCAR's own initiative or in response to a complaint from the public.
- Public Act Review to determine the necessity for new or amendatory rulemaking in response to legislative changes. JCAR devises a list of laws it believes may generate rulemaking activity, shares that list with the agencies, and monitors agency activity to determine if appropriate action is taken.
- Legislative Activities. JCAR reviews any proposed legislation that amends the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act and brings to agencies' attention any resulting changes in rulemaking procedures. Legislation involving issues that have recently come before JCAR is also followed. Under its IAPA mandate to continually seek to improve the rulemaking process, JCAR occasionally initiates legislation revising the IAPA. It also may propose legislation when rules review brings attention to a statutory insufficiency or lack of clarity or to enforce its Objections or Recommendations when an agency has refused to adhere to those Objections or Recommendations.
- Public Information. JCAR provides information on rules and the rulemaking process to legislators and the public through several conduits. First, JCAR makes available (on-line at www.ilga.gov, under Legislative Support Services – Joint Committee on Administrative Rules – Flinn Report) The Flinn Report: Illinois Regulation, a weekly newsletter that summarizes State agency rulemaking activities. The newsletter is used by many as an alternative to monitoring the weekly Illinois Register. The newsletter highlights the major issues; the reader can then seek a copy of the specific rulemaking or further information from the proposing agency. Second, JCAR has created and maintains the Illinois Administrative Code database. The database is used in the publishing of the Illinois Register by the Secretary of State's Index Department. State agencies can request materials from the database for use in drafting amendatory rulemakings. The database is accessible on the General Assembly website (www.ilga.gov). Although emergency rules are not embedded into the database, the database shows where emergency rules have been adopted and contains automatic links to the Illinois Register database, where the emergency rules can be viewed. When an agency moves a rulemaking from the First Notice (public comment) period to the Second Notice (JCAR review) period, JCAR engrosses any First Notice changes into the text of the rulemaking. This is the version of the rulemaking that JCAR will be reviewing. This Second Notice version of the rulemaking can be viewed by the public through the JCAR portion of the ILGA website under Second Notices. Third, JCAR staff is always available to respond to inquiries from General Assembly members and the public. For more information, call 217/785-2254 or contact JCAR by e-mail at jcar@ilga.gov.

The Review Process ---

The JCAR membership meets at least once each month to consider an agenda that generally includes from 35 to 50 separate rulemakings by State agencies. In a year's time, JCAR will review approximately 20,000 pages of rule text. The IAPA dictates that the Committee's analysis of rulemakings be based on such concerns as statutory authority and legislative intent, necessity of the regulation, economic impact on State government and the affected public, completeness and appropriateness of standards to be relied upon in the exercise of agency discretion, effect on local government through the creation of a mandate, adherence to IAPA rulemaking requirements, and form.

JCAR's review of agency regulatory proposals is predominantly substantive. Its major concern is that statutory law is applied fairly and consistently, creating as little paperwork and economic burden for the affected public as possible. The Committee serves as the final avenue for input from the public before a rulemaking is formally adopted. Recommendations from the public are always welcome and are actively sought. The Committee recognizes that no one is as qualified to comment on the appropriateness and practicality of a proposed regulation as the individual whose activities or business practices will be affected by that regulation. Comment on any proposed or existing State regulation may be submitted to the Committee at 700 Stratton Building, Springfield IL 62706, or by calling 217/785-2254.

JCAR's perusal of agency rulemakings serves a technical purpose as well. The various rulemakings of the State agencies collectively comprise the Illinois Administrative Code. In giving a final technical review to each agency proposal, JCAR, along with the Secretary of State's Index Department, strives to achieve some degree of consistency among the individual agencies' portions of the Code and to make the Code as readable and understandable for the public as possible.

Annual Report ---

This Report includes narratives of JCAR activity during 2015, as well as statistical summaries of the rulemaking activities of State agencies. The summary of legislation affecting JCAR reflects activity of the 1st year of the 99th GA. This Report also includes an historical overview of rulemaking and pertinent historical statistics.

JCAR MEMBERSHIP

The Joint Committee on Administrative Rules consists of 12 legislators who are appointed by the General Assembly leadership. Membership is equally apportioned between the 2 houses and between the 2 political parties. The 2 Co-Chairs are not members of the same house or the same party.

Illinois Rulemaking Process

Illinois law exists in 4 basic forms: constitutional law, statutory law, administrative law and case law. Constitutional law creates broad guidelines. Legislation creates specific restrictions, authorities and programs. Administrative law adds the detail often necessary to implement statutory law. If these 3 categories of law do not sufficiently address all the variables, case law evolves.

In 1975, the Illinois General Assembly enacted the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act (IAPA) [5 ILCS 100] to create a procedure through which administrative agencies would exercise the authority delegated to them by the legislature to create administrative law through the adoption of agency regulations. In 1977, the IAPA was amended to add a process by which the General Assembly could oversee the exercise of this delegated authority through the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules (JCAR), a service agency of the General Assembly.

Rules of an administrative agency are valid and enforceable only after they have been through the rulemaking process prescribed in the IAPA. Rules are for the purpose of interpreting or implementing provisions of a statute and should not actually expand or limit the scope of the statute.

Types of Rulemakings

Proposed Rules. These can be new rules or amendatory rulemakings. Frequently this is referred to as "regular rulemaking" or "permanent rulemaking". A 2-step (First Notice and Second Notice) process is followed, requiring from 90-365 days. Aside from the two 45-day periods, First Notice and Second Notice, the agency controls the timing. Both the general public and the General Assembly, through JCAR, can have input prior to adoption.

Emergency Rules. Rules are effective immediately upon the agency filing them with the SOS or within 9 days after filing. These rules can be developed unilaterally by the agency; JCAR reviews after the rules are adopted. An emergency rule lasts 150 days unless an earlier date is specified or the emergency rule is replaced by a permanent rulemaking. Emergency rulemaking can be used only if the agency finds a threat to the public interest, safety or welfare exists that the rulemaking will address.

Peremptory Rules. The IAPA provides for the immediate adoption of a rule required as a result of a federal law, federal rule, collective bargaining agreement, or a court order under conditions that preclude discretion by the agency concerning the rule's content. Peremptory rules are effective upon filing with the SOS or on the date required by the federal law, federal rule or court order. JCAR reviews these rules after their adoption.

Exempt or Identical in Substance Rules. The IAPA, the Environmental Protection Act and the Illinois Emergency Management Act create a special process through which PCB and IEMA can adopt regulations that are identical in substance to federal regulations that the State is required to adopt and enforce. These rulemakings are reviewed by JCAR after adoption.

Required Rulemaking. These are rules that can be adopted unilaterally by the agency by filing with the SOS. Examples are organization charts, principal address, Freedom of Information Act information, hearing officer qualifications, etc. JCAR reviews required rules after their adoption.

The Process

Drafting of Rules. Administrative rules are drafted by State agencies; there is no central drafting bureau as for statutes. The involvement of the public in the initial drafting is at the discretion of the agency; however, the IAPA encourages early public involvement and requires agencies to semiannually publish a Regulatory Agenda indicating, to the best of the agency's knowledge, the scope of the next 6 months' rulemaking activity.

First Notice. The First Notice period commences upon publication of an agency's Notice of Rulemaking in the Illinois Register. First Notice lasts a minimum of 45 days and terminates when the agency files with JCAR, commencing the Second Notice period. The only limitation is that a rulemaking expires, if not adopted, within one year after commencement of First Notice. The IAPA requires that, during First Notice, the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity review each proposed rulemaking to determine possible impact on small business. The general public can submit comment on the rulemaking proposal to the agency and a public hearing may or may not be held during this period. The agency can volunteer to hold a hearing or must conduct one at the request of the Governor, JCAR, an association representing over 100 persons, 25 individuals, or a local government. Requests for hearing must be filed within 14 days after publication of the First Notice. The agency can modify the rulemaking during First Notice by submitting a First Notice Changes document to JCAR when it gives Second Notice.

Second Notice. The Second Notice period commences upon the agency's filing of the Second Notice with JCAR and lasts for a maximum of 45 days, unless extended for an additional 45 days by mutual agreement of JCAR and the agency. During the Second Notice Period, legislative review of the rules is conducted first by the JCAR staff and then at a meeting of the legislative members. JCAR reviews the proposed rules for statutory authority, propriety, standards for the exercise of discretion, economic effects, clarity, procedural requirements, technical aspects, etc.

During the JCAR review, JCAR and the agency can agree to modifications in the rulemaking that are adopted through written JCAR Agreements. The Agreements are appended to the Certificate of No Objection issued by JCAR at its regular meeting, or are still applicable if no Certificate is issued but the agency proceeds to adopt. If the agency does not choose to modify a rulemaking or if policy differences cannot be resolved during the review process, JCAR can take one of several actions.

JCAR Actions

Certificate of No Objection. With the Certificate, the agency can proceed to adopt the rules by filing them with the SOS for publication in the Illinois Register.

Recommendation. (Issued along with a Certificate of No Objection) The agency should respond to the Recommendation in writing within 90 days and can modify the rule in response to a JCAR Recommendation. (After going to Second Notice, the agency cannot unilaterally modify/ withdraw a rulemaking.) However, the agency can also adopt the rules with no changes at any time after receipt of the Certificate of No Objection.

Objection. An agency has to respond to an Objection in writing within 90 days, but after responding can proceed to adopt. The agency can modify or withdraw in response to a JCAR Objection or adopt the rules without changes. JCAR Agreements still apply.

Filing Prohibition/Suspension. If JCAR determines that a rulemaking constitutes a threat to the public interest, safety or welfare, the members can, by a 3/5 vote of the members appointed to the Committee (normally 8 of the 12 members), prohibit filing of a proposed rulemaking (or suspend an emergency or preemptory rule). As a result, the proposed rulemaking may not be accepted for filing by the Secretary of State or enforced by the agency unless JCAR withdraws the Prohibition or the General Assembly acts to end the Prohibition within 180 days. An emergency or preemptory rule that has already been adopted becomes null and void for a period of 180 days, after which it is automatically repealed unless JCAR withdraws the Suspension or the General Assembly acts to end the Suspension within the 180 days.

Public Notification

Illinois Register is the official State publication through which the public is informed of rulemaking activity. The Illinois Register is prepared by JCAR and published by the Secretary of State every Friday and can be accessed through the General Assembly website (www.ilga.gov) or the Secretary of State's website. The Register contains First Notice publication of rulemaking proposals, JCAR actions, a list of Second Notices received by JCAR, notices of final adoption of rulemakings, regulatory agendas (in January and July), executive orders and proclamations, miscellaneous agency notices as allowed by law, and quarterly indexes to the current and previous issues. Over the course of a year, the Register contains on average 20,000 pages. Paper subscriptions are available from the Secretary of State for $290/year; it can also be accessed for free on the Secretary of State website, and is available electronically through private publishers.

The Flinn Report: Illinois Regulation is a 4-6 page weekly online publication by JCAR that summarizes the rulemaking activity depicted in the matching issue of the Illinois Register. The Flinn Report is available weekly on the General Assembly's website at www.ilga.gov.

Illinois Administrative Code. The compilation of all agency rules is known as the Illinois Administrative Code. The Code, which is larger than the Illinois Compiled Statutes, is maintained electronically by JCAR and the Legislative Information System (LIS). That database is located on the General Assembly's website at ilga.gov. State agencies can request from JCAR downloads of specific Sections to use for drafting purposes.

Public Participation

One of the main reasons the IAPA was enacted was to give the public input into the rulemaking process. Any interested persons may contact an agency during the First Notice period to record a position on a rulemaking proposal. Additionally, many agencies consult with their identified interest groups during a pre-First Notice drafting process.

When the rulemaking goes to Second Notice, JCAR receives a copy or summary of all written comment submitted to the agency. In addition, the public may contact JCAR directly, and frequently does so if the agency refused to modify in response to public comment or if they discovered the existence of the proposal too late for the First Notice public comment period.

Public comment is vital to the JCAR review process. Frequently, it is only through this comment that the Committee fully recognizes the effect of a rule on individuals, businesses or local governments that have to adhere to it on a daily basis.

The public may also lodge complaints about existing rules. Agencies are required to allow the public to suggest rule revisions. Additionally, JCAR may open an investigation into an existing rule on its own volition or based on public complaint.

2015 Rulemaking

In 2015, JCAR reviewed 407 rulemakings, 343 of which were general rulemakings, 25 emergency rulemakings, 6 peremptory rulemakings, 15 exempt rulemakings, 16 required rulemakings and 2 expedited corrections. On the general rulemakings, JCAR voted 1 Objection/Filing Prohibition, 16 Objections and 5 Recommendations. On the emergency rulemakings, JCAR voted 6 Objections. On the required rulemakings, JCAR voted 1 Recommendation.

(NOTE: Differences between the number of rules proposed and rules considered occur because rules that agencies propose near the end of one calendar year are considered by JCAR in the next.)

Some of the more notable rulemakings on which JCAR took action follow.

GENERAL RULEMAKING

PUBLIC HEALTH – Grade A Pasteurized Milk and Milk Products (77 Ill. Adm. Code 775; 38 Ill. Reg. 18346)

DPH proposed a rulemaking adding procedures for DPH inspection and permitting of dairy farms that sell or distribute raw milk directly to consumers on their dairy farms, but broadly interpreting the "farm premises" to allow some sales off the farm. JCAR objected to and prohibited filing of this rulemaking because it did not achieve an adequate balance between the State's role in protecting the public health and its mission to avoid unduly burdensome restrictions on small businesses. JCAR found that adoption of this rulemaking in its current form would pose a threat to the public interest. DPH responded by modifying the rulemaking to reflect the statutory requirement that sales be conducted on the farm only. At the 1/16 meeting, JCAR withdrew the Filing Prohibition contingent upon and effective with DPH adoption of the rulemaking with the agreed upon modifications. On 1/29/16, DPH adopted the rulemaking (40 Ill. Reg. 2964).

LABOR – Job Opportunities for Qualified Applicants Act (56 Ill. Adm. Code 340; 39 Ill. Reg. 11206)

DOL proposed a rulemaking implementing a new statute "banning the box"; i.e., prohibiting an employer from asking a potential job applicant, at the beginning of the application process, to declare whether he or she had ever been convicted of a felony. The rulemaking set out procedures under which DOL would adjudicate complaints that an employer violated the Act by inquiring about an applicant's criminal history. JCAR objected to this rulemaking because of DOL's refusal to state in the rule how it would define the "reasonable period of time" within which a party to a complaint review can request a Department determination that good cause beyond the party's control caused an untimely submission, allowing the submission to be considered by the Department. Section 5-10 of the IAPA requires that any agency policy that affects an entity outside the agency be stated in rule. As of this date, DOL has not responded to the Objection.

EMERGENCY RULEMAKING

Section 5-45 of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act specifies that agencies may use this short form rulemaking procedure, in which a rule is adopted without prior opportunity for public and JCAR comment, only if the agency finds that an emergency exists that requires the adoption of a rule within fewer days than normally required. The agency must state the emergency situation in writing and make an effort to notify the affected public. An emergency rule becomes effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State or at a stated date less than 10 days after filing and is effective for up to 150 days, after which a general rulemaking must be adopted if the policy is to continue. No emergency rule may be adopted more than once in any 24-month period unless statute specifies otherwise.

STATE EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT SYSTEM – The Administration and Operation of the State Employees' Retirement System of Illinois (80 Ill. Adm. Code 1540; 39 Ill. Reg. 2792)

Effective 2/6/15, SERS adopted emergency rules authorizing SERS, Judges Retirement System and General Assembly Retirement System to make adjustments in benefit underpayment or overpayment. At its 3/15 meeting, JCAR objected to Sec. 1540.380(c) of the emergency rule because it subjects State agencies other than SERS to the rule, without any statutory authority to do so. SERS acknowledged that, despite its current working relationship with the other 2 Systems, adopting rules applying to them was overstepping its statutory authority. SERS removed the language affecting JRS and GARS. Companion proposed rules adopted 6/26/15 also omitted the JRS and GARS language.

HUMAN SERVICES – Child Care (89 Ill. Adm. Code 50; 39 Ill. Reg. 10072)

DHS adopted emergency rules effective 7/1/15 limiting eligibility for the Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) to specified priority groups (TANF recipients, families transitioning to/from TANF, special needs children, low income working families) when DHS lacks sufficient resources to serve all applicants. The emergency rule also set the eligibility threshold for low income working families at 50% FPL instead of the normal 185% FPL. JCAR objected based on DHS' failure to demonstrate the existence of a situation warranting the use of emergency rulemaking. Without an FY 16 appropriation for CCAP, DHS could not have known that its resources would be inadequate to serve all applicants, or the extent of this inadequacy. DHS disagreed with JCAR's finding that no emergency existed, but modified the emergency rule to raise the low income working family threshold from 50% to 162% FPL; removed the requirement that CCAP clients pursue HFS child support cases against absent parents; and removed a provision that conflicted with statute (i.e., a requirement that relative child care providers undergo fingerprint-based criminal background checks). The companion proposed rule, effective 11/23/15, included these same changes.

HEALTHCARE AND FAMILY SERVICES – Hospital Facilities (89 Ill. Adm. Code 140; 39 Ill. Reg. 10427)

HFS adopted emergency rules effective 7/10/15 reducing payments for ground and helicopter ambulance services rendered after 7/1/15 to the rates that were in effect on 7/1/12. JCAR objected to this use of emergency rulemaking. Because HFS had not yet received in its FY16 appropriation for medical transportation services, it could not have known that those appropriations would be insufficient to fund ambulance services at the FY 15 levels, or the extent of that insufficiency. In response, HFS continued to argue that emergency rulemaking was warranted, but withdrew the companion permanent rulemaking on 9/11/15, thereby allowing FY 15 payment rates to resume after the emergency rule expired on 12/6/15.

HEALTHCARE AND FAMILY SERVICES – Hospital Services (89 Ill. Adm. Code 148; 39 Ill. Reg. 10453)

Effective 7/10/15, HFS adopted emergency rules discontinuing Medicaid Facilitation and Utilization Payments (MFUP) to qualifying hospitals. Under existing rule, those payments were to have continued to 7/1/18. At its 8/15 meeting, JCAR objected to HFS' use of emergency rulemaking because, without an FY 16 appropriation for hospital payments, HFS could not have known that its resources would be inadequate to fund MFUP payments. HFS responded by asserting that its lack of an FY 16 budget met the statutory definition of emergency situation.

ILLINOIS RACING BOARD – Entries, Subscriptions, and Declarations (11 Ill. Adm. Code 1413; 39 Ill. Reg. 10465)

IRB adopted emergency rules effective 7/2/15 that, for the period of 7/2/15 through 9/30/15, repealed 2 Sections of the IRB rules. One Section required nonclaiming races (except for maiden races) and claiming races with a total purpose of $20,000+ with 6 or more entries to be carded and run. The other Section established the order in which substitute or extra races are to be run. This allowed a lower purse race to be substituted. IRB maintained this change was necessary to keep Arlington Park operating for the rest of its season. JCAR objected to IRB's emergency rule because it could have a negative economic impact on Illinois businesses that own, breed and train thoroughbred horses, some of which are small businesses. Further, JCAR stated that IRB should have made every effort to avoid unnecessary use of emergency rulemaking. IRB responded that emergency rulemaking was used because a permanent rule would not have been in place before the end of Arlington's season, but agreed to be more judicious when using emergency rulemaking.

ILLINOIS LABOR RELATIONS BOARD – General Procedures (80 Ill. Adm. Code 1200; 39 Ill. Reg. 10641)

Effective 7/15/16, ILRB adopted emergency rules requiring parties to an administrative hearing to equally share the cost of court reporting. Self-represented parties may request that ILRB bear their portion of those costs. ILRB, at its sole discretion, may do so. JCAR objected because ILRB had failed to show the existence of any situation warranting the use of emergency rulemaking. As ILRB had not yet received its FY 16 appropriation for court reporting services, it could not know that those appropriations would be inadequate. ILRB responded that the Governor's proposed budget would have appropriated only $18,000 for these services and that amount was known to be insufficient. However, it agreed to be judicious in its use of emergency rulemaking in the future.

PEREMPTORY & EXEMPT RULEMAKING

Section 5-50 of the Administrative Procedure Act specifies that agencies may use this form of rulemaking procedure, in which the rule is adopted without prior opportunity for public and JCAR comment, only if the rulemaking is required by federal law, federal regulations, court orders or collective bargaining agreements; if the agency cannot exercise any discretion with respect to the rule content; and under conditions that preclude compliance with general rulemaking requirements. Agencies must file the peremptory rule with the Secretary of State within 30 days after the change in rules is required.

Exempt rulemaking is a specialized form of rulemaking, similar to the peremptory rulemaking process, reserved for use by the Pollution Control Board (PCB) under the Environmental Protection Act [415 ILCS 5] and by the Illinois Emergency Management Agency (IEMA) under the Radiation Protection Act [420 ILCS 40]. PCB and IEMA can use this short form procedure only to adopt Illinois regulations that are "identical in substance" to mandated federal regulations.

There were no JCAR actions on peremptory or exempt rulemakings in 2015.

REQUIRED RULEMAKING

Section 5-15 of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act requires that each agency maintain as rules certain types of basic information about the agency and its rulemaking process. For example, the agency must include a description of its organizational structure; procedures by which the public can obtain information concerning the agency's programs, including Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) procedures; and a current description of the agency's rulemaking procedures and research tools for its body of rules. An agency may also adopt rules that incorporate material by reference and adopt rules that specify the qualifications of administrative law judges by using the required rulemaking process. Section 5-15 authorizes agencies to bypass the proposed rulemaking process and file a certified copy of a required rule with the Secretary of State for publication in the Illinois Register as an adopted rulemaking. JCAR reviews required rules after, rather than before, they are adopted.

There were no JCAR actions on required rulemaking in 2015.

— Legislation Related to Rulemaking Issues —

Rulemakings considered by JCAR occasionally result in Objections or Recommendations based on lack of clear statutory authority, or written agreements with agencies to pursue legislation to clarify statute, resolve ambiguities, or seek specific statutory authority. The following are instances in which legislation considered during 2015 was prompted by a rulemaking issue, or in which suggestions to address statutory issues (if the agency is to pursue the proposed policy) were made by JCAR during 2015.

SB 788 would have extended FY15 Medicaid reductions into FY16 and implemented other measures related to medical assistance and Medicaid managed care. House Amendment 2 included a provision amending the Public Aid Code to require that Medicaid Facilitation and Utilization Payments (MFUP) instituted in rule under 89 IAC 148.299 remain in effect as long as the hospital assessment program remained in effect. HFS had adopted MFUP (a program that provided an additional $8 million to 5 hospitals) in rule on 7/2/14 as part of a rulemaking that implemented hospital rate reform legislation, even though that legislation did not specifically mention the program. HFS terminated these payments by emergency rule on 7/10/15, citing its lack of an FY16 budget and the lack of specific statutory authority for MFUP, and adopted permanent rules terminating MFUP payments on 12/14/15. SB 788 passed both houses but was placed on postponed consideration and remained on that status at year's end.

SB 570 would have removed Public Aid Code provisions that allow the Department of Human Services to use emergency rulemaking to lower income eligibility limits, increase parent co-payments, or create waiting lists for the Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) when necessary to insure that CCAP benefits do not exceed appropriated funds during a fiscal year. The measure was prompted by DHS' issuance of emergency rules effective 7/1/15 lowering the income eligibility limit for working parents from 185% to 50% of the Federal Poverty Level, increasing copays, and imposing other limitations on parents and care providers. The bill passed the Senate but did not pass the House. DHS later modified the emergency rule and adopted permanent rules raising the income eligibility limit when CCAP lacks sufficient funds to 162% FPL (the normal 185% FPL limit applies when CCAP is fully funded).

SB 51, an FY16 budget implementation bill, included provisions extending by one year the deadline for the Governor's Office of Management and Budget (GOMB) and State agencies that award grants to adopt rules under the Grant Accountability and Transparency Act (GATA). The GOMB rules deadline was extended from 7/1/15 to 7/1/16 and the deadline for grantmaking agencies to adopt their rules was extended from 7/1/16 to 7/1/17. The Governor vetoed the bill in its entirety. The Senate voted to override the veto but the House took no action, allowing the veto to stand. GOMB adopted GATA rules affecting federal grants only at 44 Ill. Adm. Code 7000, effective 7/24/15. It continues to work on rules governing State funded grants.

— Legislation Related to the IAPA —

The following are issues related to the IAPA, or issues that directly affected rulemaking procedures, that engendered or were associated with legislation proposed or considered during the 2015 session.

PA 99-143/HB 4049 adds Section 5-148 to the IAPA and amends Sections 5-146 and 5-147 to require State agencies to replace terms such as "physically handicapped" or "handicapped individual", wherever they occur in rule, with "person (or persons) with disabilities", and to replace "handicapping condition" or "crippling condition" with "disabling condition". This measure was signed into law on 7/27/15 and took effect 1/1/16.

HB 1731 and HB 2539 would have added a new Section to the IAPA requiring JCAR to determine, upon request of any interested party, whether any rule proposed by the State Board of Education affecting local school districts constituted an unfunded mandate upon the affected school districts. If JCAR determined a rule to be an unfunded mandate, all review periods established by the IAPA (First Notice, Second Notice) would be halted and JCAR could not issue a Certificate of No Objection until the GA passed a joint resolution allowing the rule to proceed. The bills would have placed upon JCAR a responsibility for determining unfunded mandates that, under current statute, belongs to regional superintendents on a case-by-case basis. Neither bill was acted upon during the 2015 session.

HB 1329 would have amended the Legislative Commission Reorganization Act to create a Board of Legislative Repealers as a not-for-profit corporation that would review State laws and regulations to determine which laws and rules were unnecessary, redundant, obsolete, in conflict with other laws, etc. The Board would receive public comment and recommend changes to these laws and rules. The advisory body apparently would duplicate the rules review functions of JCAR. No action was taken on this bill.

Public Act Review

Section 5-105 of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act [5 ILCS 100/5-105] requires JCAR to maintain a review program to monitor the implementation of new laws and changes in law through State agency rulemaking activities. JCAR fulfills this statutory obligation through its Public Act review program.

Under this program, JCAR staff reviews each new Public Act and makes a preliminary determination as to whether rulemaking might be necessary for proper implementation. After the list has been culled of those obviously not requiring rulemaking (appropriations, criminal and civil law, local government issues), the affected State agency is contacted for its opinion. If necessary, these written contacts are followed up with discussion between JCAR and the agency.

The final list of Public Acts for which JCAR and the agency agree that rulemaking is warranted is then monitored as long as necessary to insure that progress is made toward implementation. The primary goal of this program is to ensure that appropriate rules are put into effect in a timely manner, as required by Section 5-105 of the IAPA.

If suitable progress is not made, JCAR, by the vote of a majority of its members, can initiate an investigation into existing rules of the agency. If, after the agency's appearance before the Committee to explain its failure to adopt anticipated rules, the JCAR members are not satisfied with the agency response, the Committee can object to the agency's conduct and may initiate further legislation to clarify the issue.

Frequently an agency is prompted to complete necessary rulemaking by conversation with JCAR.

Special Review of ADA Procedures

In 2004, JCAR audited the rules of all agencies to determine whether the agency had adopted the Americans With Disabilities Act grievance procedures required by federal law. Federal regulations at 28 CFR 35.107 require all agencies of State government employing at least 50 persons to adopt rules governing the grievance procedure. Twenty-two agencies appeared to have no ADA rules and were contacted to determine whether the agency had a valid reason for considering itself exempt from the federal mandate. Of those, 19 responded by adopting ADA rules or explaining that they have fewer than the 50 employees that trigger the federal requirement. At least the following agencies have not yet filed ADA rules:

Department of Healthcare and Family Services
Historic Preservation Agency
Juvenile Justice

Freedom of Information Act Rules

Public Act 96-542, which took effect on 1/1/10, amended the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) [5 ILCS 140] to require greater disclosure of public documents, faster response to requests for information and documents, and stronger civil penalties for public bodies that fail to comply with the law. The Act also established within the Office of the Attorney General the position of Public Access Counselor, whose duties include hearing appeals from requesters denied information or from public bodies claiming requested information should be exempt from disclosure.

The changes to FOIA required State agencies to revise or replace their existing FOI rules. New provisions shorten the timeline for responding to an initial request from 7 to 5 business days; require each agency to provide contact information for a designated FOI officer; require annual training for FOI officers; revise the schedule of fees that may be charged for copying documents; and direct appeals, when requests are denied, to the Public Access Counselor.

Many State agencies have implemented the 2010 FOIA revisions by either amending their current rules or replacing them with a model rule drafted by the Governor's office. Most agencies have adopted their FOIA rules using the required rulemaking provisions in Section 5-15 of the IAPA, which apply to procedures by which the public can obtain information on subjects, programs, and activities of an agency. At least the following major State agencies have not yet adopted rules reflecting the FOIA revisions:

Aging	Insurance
Agriculture	Labor
Central Management Services	Lt. Governor
Children and Family Services	Lottery
Civil Service Commission	Military Affairs
Commerce and Economic Opportunity	Procurement Policy Board
Commerce Commission	Retirement Systems

Complaint Review Program

The Illinois Administrative Procedure Act authorizes JCAR to review and investigate the rulemaking activities of State agencies when it receives a written complaint.

JCAR operates its complaint review program under Part 260 of its operational rules. Complaints may address one or more of the following: an existing rule of an agency; failure of an agency to fully or properly enforce its rules; absence of rules required by statute or necessary for the proper conduct of an agency program or function; and an agency policy that is applied, but not embodied in the rules of the agency promulgated pursuant to the IAPA.

Upon receipt of a complaint, JCAR initiates a review to determine the need for a full investigation. Staff may raise questions and discuss problems with the agency and will attempt to inform the agency of the substance of the complaint and any proposals for JCAR action prior to the meeting. Staff will report the results of the review and a proposal for action at a JCAR monthly meeting. A complaint may be placed on the agenda for a JCAR meeting by any JCAR member or the Executive Director if evidence exists that there are possible problems with the rules. If the same issues have been previously considered by JCAR, a complaint will not be placed on the agenda, unless the complaint reveals information not available to JCAR at the time the issue was considered and, if the information were available, it would have altered the outcome. Based on the complaint, JCAR may issue an Objection or Recommendation to existing rule, or to agency failure to maintain adequate rule, and afford the agency an opportunity to respond.

Complaints should be forwarded to the Executive Director of the Joint Committee at:

Joint Committee on Administrative Rules
700 Stratton Building
Springfield, Illinois 62706

Judicial Activity Relating To

JCAR and IAPA

Since JCAR's function is closely related to the interpretation of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act (IAPA), it monitors court decisions and Attorney General opinions that affect the interpretation of the Act. One of the enumerated responsibilities of JCAR under the Act is "to study the impact of legislative changes, court rulings and administrative action on agency rules and rulemaking" [5 ILCS 100/5-105(c)]. This summary highlights significant judicial actions since enactment of the IAPA and discusses current activity.

KEY INTERPRETATIONS OF THE IAPA

- Two past decisions construing the IAPA in accordance with positions supported by JCAR are especially noteworthy. The cases involved an attempt by the Department of Public Aid (now, Healthcare and Family Services) to change the method by which it calculated Medicaid payments to nursing homes. In the first case, Senn Park I (Senn Park Nursing Center v. Miller, 118 Ill. App. 3d 504, 455 N.E.2d 153, 74 Ill. Dec. 123 (1983)), the First District Appellate Court held that DPA's failure to follow the IAPA rulemaking procedures invalidated a new method it utilized for calculating Medicaid payments. The court stated that the definition of a "rule" found in Sec. 1-70 of the IAPA should be broadly construed in order to safeguard the public's right to comment on proposed agency policies. DPA's change in calculating the Medicaid payments, the court ruled, fell within the Sec. 1-70 definition of rule since it was a statement of general agency policy. As that policy was not adopted in compliance with the IAPA, it was invalid.

DPA also argued that the amended procedure was exempt from the notice and publication requirements by Sec. 5-35(c) of the IAPA because the State Plan was a contractual arrangement with the federal government, and was exempt under the contracts exception of the IAPA. Sec. 5-35(c) states that: "The notice and publication requirements of this Section do not apply to a matter relating solely to agency management...or to public property, loans or contracts."

Senn Park II (Senn Park Nursing Center v. Miller, 118 Ill. App. 3d 733, 455 N.E.2d 162, 14 Ill. Reg. 132 (1983)) addressed use of emergency rulemaking. The Appellate Court ruled that an emergency rule in that instance in which the underlying "emergency" was created by the agency's failure to follow these (notice and comment) procedures (of the IAPA) in the first place, resulting from "an avoidable administrative failure to properly enact a rule in accordance with statutory requirements", was improper in that instance.

Both cases were consolidated for consideration by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court agreed with the Appellate Court's interpretation of the contract's exception in which the lower court stated:

We are persuaded that under the IAPA, a matter comes under the contract exception only when contracts are clearly and directly involved.... We believe that with regard to nursing homes, contracts, whether State-Federal or agency-provider, are not clearly and directly involved.... Accordingly, we conclude that the amended inflation update procedure is not a matter relating to contracts within the meaning of the IAPA. (118 Ill. App. 3d at 511)

The Supreme Court also stated that it is clear that the rulemaking procedure is intended to give interested persons an opportunity to submit their views and comments on rulemaking changes and that an agency must consider all submissions received. The court acknowledged that there are certain statutory exceptions to the notice and comment procedures, but that exceptions are of a limited nature and should be appropriately applied.

The court also agreed with the Appellate Court ruling that the amended inflation update procedure fell within the purview of the IAPA because the Public Aid Code incorporates the IAPA and the Code specifically requires rulemaking pursuant to the IAPA "during the process of establishing the payment rate for skilled nursing and intermediate care services, or when a substantial change in rates is proposed," in order to provide "an opportunity for public review and comment on the proposed rates prior to their becoming effective" (118 Ill. App. 3d at 512). The court found that the amended procedure fell within the definition of "rule" found in the IAPA and thus the failure of DPA to follow the notice and comment procedures required by the IAPA rendered the amended procedure invalid.

Following the decision of the Appellate Court in Senn Park I, DPA promulgated Emergency Rule 4.14221 implementing the amended inflation update procedure pursuant to the IAPA. Plaintiffs (Senn Park II) sought a declaratory judgment, asking the court to declare Emergency Rule 4.14221 void because there was no "emergency" as that term is defined in the IAPA. On 12/30/80, DPA withdrew the emergency rule. On appeal, the Appellate Court held that, although the rule was withdrawn, the validity of the rule was at issue in order to determine the amount of reimbursement the plaintiffs were entitled to in Senn Park I. The Appellate Court further held that the circuit court had erred in finding the emergency rule valid because there was no emergency as that term is defined under the IAPA. The Supreme Court ruled that no emergency situation existed warranting use of emergency rulemaking.

- In Sleeth v. Illinois Department of Public Aid (125 Ill. App. 3d 847, 466 N.E.2d 703, 81 Ill. Dec. 117 (1984)), the Third District Appellate Court considered an appeal from a DPA decision to terminate disability benefits in 5 cases. The court found that the procedure utilized by the Department (Manual Release No. 83.5), which required applicants who were denied disability benefits to submit proof of disability within 14 days after the filing of appeal, was a "rule" under the IAPA. The IAPA states:

"Rule" means each agency statement of general applicability that implements, applies, interprets, or prescribes law or policy, but does not include (i) statements concerning only the internal management of an Agency and not affecting private rights or procedures available to persons or entities outside the Agency, (iii) intra-agency memoranda or (iv) the prescription of standardized forms...

DPA contended the Manual Release was merely an intra-office memorandum, not subject to the IAPA. The court reasoned that the memorandum affected private rights and procedures available to persons outside DPA and that this type of statement by an agency is specifically included within the definition of "rule" under the Act. Since the memorandum was not properly promulgated pursuant to the IAPA, the court held the rule invalid and determined that the procedures followed by DPA violated State law.

- In Kaufman Grain Co., Inc. v. Director, Department of Agriculture (179 Ill. App. 3d 1040, 534 N.E.2d 1259, 128 Ill. Dec. 654 (1989)), the Fourth District Appellate Court held that DOA had no statute or rule that allowed it to settle disputes between a grain producer and a grain dealer or a grain warehouse. DOA improperly relied on policy that was not properly promulgated as rules in accordance with the IAPA and, therefore, was without authority to adjudicate such grain disputes. The Kaufman case is significant for the ruling of the court concerning attorney's fees. Sec. 10-55 of the IAPA provides that, in any case in which a party has any administrative rule invalidated by a court for any reason, the court shall award the party bringing the action the reasonable expenses of the litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees. The appellate court ruled that Kaufman was entitled to the award of attorney's fees it reasonably incurred in this litigation, including the fees incurred in the proceedings before the Department. The court stated that Sec. 10-55 of the IAPA gives those subject to regulation an incentive to oppose doubtful rules where compliance would otherwise be less costly than litigation. Therefore, the court awarded fees for the proceedings before DOA, as well as fees incurred in administrative review proceedings, noting that proceedings before an administrative agency are quite often more costly and time consuming than administrative review proceedings. The Kaufman case illustrated trends of the courts to rule unfavorably against agencies that have not promulgated their policies properly under the IAPA. The Kaufman decision specifically cites Senn Park and further strengthens the precedent it established. Award of attorney's fees was further strengthened in Citizens Org. Proj. v. Dept. of Nat. Res. (89 Ill. 2d 593, 725 N.E.2d 195, 244 Ill. Dec. 896 (2000)), in which the Supreme Court affirmed the award of attorney's fees and litigation expenses when a citizen group obtained invalidation of a DNR rule governing a DNR permit decision.
- In Coronet Insurance Company v. John E. Washburn, Director of Insurance of the State of Illinois (201 Ill. App. 3d 633, 558 N.E.2d 1307, 146 Ill. Dec. 973 (1990)), the First District Appellate Court of Illinois held that an administrative agency may enact rules and regulations as limited by the authorizing statutory language; that an administrative rule carries with it the same presumption of validity as the statute; and a rule that is consistent with the spirit of the statute and furthers its purpose will be sustained. The appellate court also ruled that DOI's failure to give an additional 45 days notice of a proposed rule that had been revised during the First Notice public comment period to the general public did not constitute violation of the IAPA, since the Act provides that changes in the text of a proposed rule may be made during the First Notice period. Such changes need not be published again prior to submission to JCAR.
- In CIPS v. Illinois Commerce Commission (268 Ill. App. 3d 471, 644 N.E.2d 817, 206 Ill. Dec. 49 (1994)), the Fourth District Appellate Court ruled that JCAR did not create an impermissible filing prohibition when it informed ICC it would lift its filing prohibition on a proposed rule formulating rental rates for cable TV attachments to utility poles if the ICC removed allocation of the portion of pole neutral space to cable television.

- In Weyland v. Manning (309 Ill. App. 3d 542, 723 N.E.2d 387, 243 Ill. Dec. 355 (2000)), plaintiffs filed an action contesting a rule adopted by the Department of Natural Resources establishing a restricted boating zone on Griswold Lake. One element at issue was the adequacy of the Second Notice filed by DNR with JCAR. The Second District Appellate Court held that DNR complied with JCAR rule requirements that it list and analyze all comments concerning the rule and that its failure to list in the Second Notice persons who had requested a public hearing did not invalidate the rule.
- Payday Lending Rules: The regulation of short term (payday or cash for car title) loans involved rules ultimately adopted by the then Department of Financial Institutions and/or Office of Banks and Real Estate. After JCAR Objection and after a Filing Prohibition expired, DFI adopted rules regulating the payday loan/cash for car title industries that were immediately challenged in South 51 Development Corp, et al., v. Vega (335 Ill.App. 3d 542, 269 N.E.2d 528 (2002)). The chief argument of plaintiffs was that there was an improper delegation of rulemaking authority to DFI. The court held that there was a valid delegation of legislative authority (the statute on which the rulemaking was based was somewhat sparse) and that the small business impact analysis performed at the time by DCCA (now, DCEO) was facially sufficient, albeit not submitted to JCAR by the end of the First Notice period.
- Corey H. v. Board of Education of City of Chicago (No. 92-C-3409, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division). In 1992, disabled students brought an action against the Chicago and State Boards of Education alleging systemic failures to educate children with disabilities in the least restrictive environment (LRE), as required by the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). SBE and CBE entered into a settlement agreement with the plaintiffs. Under the settlement agreement, Judge Gettleman ordered SBE to change its policy on certification structure and standards for special education teachers through peremptory rulemaking. SBE filed 2 peremptory rulemakings to change special education teacher certification endorsement and create common core standards for all teachers. The first peremptory rule (titled Certification; 23 Ill. Adm. Code 25; 24 Ill. Reg. 16109) was objected to by JCAR on 11/14/00. SBE refused to withdraw the peremptory rule, stating it was not in a position to do so because it was under a federal judge's order. The rule was then suspended by JCAR on 2/21/01. The second peremptory rule (Standards for Certification in Special Education; 23 Ill. Adm. Code 28; 24 Ill. Reg. 16738) was objected to and suspended by JCAR on 1/9/01. SBE did not respond. On 2/27/01, Judge Gettleman ordered SBE to implement both rulemakings, regardless of the JCAR suspensions.

Pursuant to IAPA requirements, SJR 26 was introduced in the General Assembly to continue the 2 suspensions. (At the time, Sec. 5-125 of the IAPA stated that if a joint resolution passed both houses of the General Assembly within the 180 days of the JCAR suspension, the rule would be considered repealed and the Secretary of State must immediately remove the rule from the collection of the effective rules.) SJR 26 passed the Senate on 5/21/01 with a vote of 56-0-0 and passed the House on 5/31/01 with a vote of 117-0-0. This was the first time a joint resolution of this nature passed both houses of the GA. As directed by Judge Gettleman, SBE implemented the settlement order as agency policy outside rule.

Ten years later, with the enactment of PA 97-461, SBE was authorized to use peremptory rulemaking procedures to adopt into its rules the court-ordered certification policies and standards. SBE adopted peremptory rules on 8/22/11, in accordance with the district judge's orders.

- In Champaign-Urbana Public Health District v. ILRB (354 Ill. App. 3d, 482, 821 N.E.2d, 691, 290 Ill. Dec. 379 (2004)), the Fourth District Appellate Court ruled that the Illinois Labor Relation Board's use of emergency rulemaking to implement its card recognition rules was not an emergency under the IAPA, despite the fact the agency was implementing a recently enacted PA with an immediate effective date. The court said no emergency existed because union recognition could still occur under the existing methods or the union could wait until the new permanent rules were promulgated:

"(N)o facts have been presented to show that without the emergency rules the public would be confronted with a threatening situation.... The reason for adopting an emergency rule should be truly emergent and persuasive to a reviewing court and considerations of administrative and fiscal convenience alone do not satisfy that standard. Agencies may not adopt emergency rules to eliminate an administrative need that does not threaten the public interest, safety, or welfare. Here, the Board's reasoning for implementing the emergency rules can best be characterized as one for administrative convenience and not because of any stated public threat. Thus, the rules adopted by the Board...were invalid...."

A similar finding was reached by the Second District Appellate Court concerning the Board's use of emergency rulemaking in County of Du Page v. ILRB (358 Ill. App. 3d 174, 830 N.E.2d 709, 294 Ill. Dec. 297 (2005)) concerning sheriff's deputies in DuPage County. In these 2 instances, courts took a narrower view of the appropriate use of emergency rulemaking than JCAR's historical position. JCAR has voted procedural Objections or Recommendations when agencies have employed emergency rulemaking to implement Public Acts when adequate time for regular rulemaking was present (the "agency created" emergency situation spoken of in Senn Park), but, up to that time, had seldom taken adverse action because an agency acted promptly to implement a recent Public Act through emergency rulemaking.

- Caro v. Blagojevich (Circuit Court, Cook County, 07-CH-45464) was filed 11/26/07 in Cook County challenging the Governor's expansion of medical assistance under Family Care. Plaintiffs sought to halt the HFS Director's continued enforcement and implementation of the HFS emergency rule expanding medical assistance eligibility under Family Care to families earning up to 400% FPL, a rule that had been suspended by JCAR on 11/13/07.

Plaintiffs argued the rule violated the Illinois Constitution and statutes, including the IAPA. They sought an injunction against HFS enforcing or implementing the rule. Among the defenses raised by HFS was an argument that the JCAR Suspension was unconstitutional, based on cases from other states supportive of that position.

On 4/15/08, Circuit Judge James Epstein issued a preliminary injunction ordering HFS to cease expending any public funds related to Family Care. Judge Epstein did not rule on the constitutional issues raised, instead citing HFS failure to include a work requirement as a condition of Family Care eligibility. (Federal and State statutes require medical assistance recipients to meet the same non-income criteria as TANF recipients, which include work requirements.) Defendants appealed this injunction to the First District Appellate Court, which upheld Judge Epstein's decision on 9/26/08.

HFS responded to the order by filing a peremptory rule imposing the work requirement upon Family Care recipients. JCAR suspended the peremptory rule on 5/20/08 because the injunction did not direct HFS to file a peremptory rule and the rule did not meet that or any of the other IAPA conditions for peremptory rulemaking.

In February 2008, HFS presented to JCAR a proposed permanent version of the rule expanding Family Care eligibility. JCAR issued a Filing Prohibition against the rule on 2/26/08. HFS then attempted on 3/10/08 to file the prohibited rule with the Secretary of State, and this attempt became the subject of a new lawsuit, HFS v. White (below).

On 10/15/08, Judge Epstein issued another preliminary injunction barring HFS from expending any public funds to implement Family Care under the permanent or peremptory rules. HFS then claimed that the order could be interpreted in a manner that would force the agency to stop payments on all its medical assistance programs (affecting more than 500,000 Illinois residents). Based on HFS' argument, the Illinois Supreme Court, on 11/12/08, issued a stay of enforcement of the preliminary injunction, allowing HFS to continue implementing the program until the merits of the case could be decided.

In December 2008, the Special Investigative Committee of the Illinois House considering articles of impeachment against Gov. Blagojevich included Caro among its exhibits. The articles of impeachment approved by the House on 1/9/09 and 1/14/09, and sustained by the Senate on 1/29/09, thereby removing Blagojevich from office, included the violation of the IAPA cited in Caro among various charges of abuse of power.

On 7/1/09, Judge Epstein approved a settlement agreement among Gov. Patrick Quinn (replacing Blagojevich as a defendant), all other defendants, and the plaintiffs. The agreement included approval of legislation (PA 96-20, signed 6/30/09) allowing persons who were enrolled in the expanded Family Care program as of the legislation's effective date to remain in the program, with no new enrollees accepted after that date. All pending appeals of the case were dismissed. HFS filed emergency rules to implement PA 96-20 on 7/1/09 and identical permanent rules took effect on 11/2/09 and 11/16/09.

- In Department of Healthcare and Family Services v. White (Circuit Court, Cook County, 08-CH-11822), HFS filed suit against Secretary of State White on 3/28/08. HFS, on 3/10/08, attempted to file the proposed Family Care expansion rule that JCAR had prohibited on 2/26/08. SOS refused to accept it, citing the Suspension that was still in effect on the earlier emergency rule, which, under the IAPA, prevents any other rule with the same effect from being filed. HFS argued that JCAR's Suspension of the emergency rule was invalid and that SOS had a duty to accept and publish the permanent rule in the Illinois Register. The case was dismissed at the defendants' request on 7/1/09 as part of the settlement agreement in Caro.

- The cases of Menges v. Blagojevich (U.S. District Court, Central District; 3:05-CV-O3307-JES-BGC) and Morr-Fitz, Inc. v. Blagojevich (Circuit Court, Sangamon County, 2005-CH-495) concern an emergency rule adopted by the Department of Financial and Professional Regulation on 4/1/05 (29 Ill. Reg. 5586) and an identical permanent rule adopted on 8/25/05 (29 Ill. Reg. 13639) requiring all Division I (retail) pharmacies to dispense contraceptives. Both cases generally involved pharmacists with religious objections to filling contraceptive prescriptions. Pharmacists John Menges and Peggy Pace filed the federal suit against the emergency rule, contending that it violated the Health Care Right of Conscience Act [745 ILCS 70], the Illinois Human Rights Act [775 ILCS 5] and Title VII of the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964 (PL 88-352, amended by PL 102-166) by forcing them to dispense emergency contraceptives against their religious convictions. An agreed joint motion to stay the case was entered on 10/9/07, under which DFPR agreed to amend its rules to allow pharmacists to refuse to fill prescriptions based on their religious beliefs, and to require pharmacies to either provide a non-objecting pharmacist to fill such prescriptions or provide remote prescription dispensation from another pharmacy. DFPR adopted a rulemaking with the agreed upon language (32 Ill. Reg. 7116) effective 4/16/08.

The Illinois Supreme Court, on 12/18/08, remanded Morr-Fitz, Inc. to the circuit court for hearing. The case had originally been dismissed from the circuit court and Appellate Court on grounds that the plaintiffs lacked standing to challenge the rule and the issues were not yet ripe for decision. The Supreme Court disagreed, adding that the rules DFPR filed in response to Menges, and other factors, made the case ripe for resolution. Circuit Judge John W. Belz issued a temporary restraining order on 4/3/09 and a preliminary injunction on 8/26/09 barring DFPR from enforcing its rules against the plaintiffs until the case was resolved. Morr-Fitz, Inc. v. Quinn, (364 Ill. Dec. 597, 976 N.E.2d 1160(2012)) appears to be the final decision on this matter. The Fourth Illinois Appellate Court ruled that the Healthcare Right of Conscience Act prohibits enforcement of the Department's rule against the plaintiff pharmacists.

8/14/12	HFS 89 IAC 140.491 36 IR 11329	Suspension	Unauthorized Use of Emergency Rulemaking	Removed exemption from prior approval for transportation of medical assistance patients from one hospital to another to obtain services not available at the discharging hospital. While the extraordinary SMART Act emergency rulemaking authority was used, this change was not required by the SMART Act. HFS modified; prohibition withdrawn.
8/14/12	HFS 89 IAC 148.70(g) 36 IR 10326	Suspension	Contravenes Federal Statute	Denies payment for entire hospital admission for medical assistance patients when a Medicare-defined hospital acquired condition occurs. HFS modified; prohibition withdrawn.

8/14/12	HFS 89 IAC 148.140(b)(1)(F) 36 IR 10326	Suspension	Inappropriate Use of Emergency Rulemaking	Eliminates enhanced medical assistance payment rates for hospital-based physical therapy. This change was not required or authorized by the SMART Act, but HFS used SMART Act's emergency rulemaking authority. HFS modified; prohibition withdrawn.
8/9/13	DOI 50 IAC 5421 36 IR 12957	Prohibition	Threat to the Public Interest	HMO deductibles/copayments must be waived when they exceed the annual maximum out-of-pocket expenses of a high deductible health plan set by the Affordable Care Act. Retaining the 50% cap on deductibles/copayments does not achieve the aim of permitting some HMO customers to obtain high deductible plans, as expressed by statute. DOI modified; prohibition withdrawn.
10/22/13	DNR 17 IAC 3000 37 IR 2843	Prohibition	Threat to the Public Interest/Economic Impact	Establishes a capital grant review system and sets a non-refundable application fee. The fees would create an untenable burden for the principal applicants – local governments and not-for-profits. DNR modified; prohibition withdrawn.
11/19/13	HFSRB 77 IAC 1110 37 IR 3982	Prohibition	Economic Impact	Requires an ASTC to submit to another HRSRB review to deliver services under a service approval already issued by HRSRB but under which the ASTC had not yet begun to implement services.
1/14/14	IGB 11 IAC 1800 37 IR 19882	Suspension	Statutory Authority	Created the Video Gaming Exclusion List and clarified that terminal operators must be licensed at the time they enter into use agreements. IGB repealed the emergency rule; suspension withdrawn.
1/14/14	HFS 89 IAC 147 38 IR 1205	Suspension	Threat to the Public Interest/Safety/ Welfare; Economic Impact	Effective 1/1/14, implemented PAs establishing enhanced rates for ventilator services and traumatic brain injury (TBI) care. Also implemented Resource Utilization Group (RUG) methodology for determining nursing care LTC reimbursement. HFS modified; suspension withdrawn.
6/17/14	DHS 89 IAC 501 37 IR 19437, 19457	Prohibition	Threat to the Public Interest	Updates the Part to clarify Partner Abuse Intervention Program (PAIP) requirements, application and approval procedures, DHS monitoring processes and evaluation procedures. DHS modified; prohibition withdrawn.
10/14/14	ICC 83 IAC 470 37 IR 20544	Prohibition	Threat to the Public Interest	Outlines procedures for local government electrical aggregation programs operated by retail electric suppliers. ICC modified; prohibition withdrawn.
8/11/15	DPH 77 IAC 775 38 IR 18346	Prohibition	Threat to Public Interest	Expands the Part to include procedures for DPH inspection and permitting of dairy farms that sell or distribute raw milk directly to consumers on their dairy farms. DPH modified; prohibition withdrawn.
