WHEREAS, The Constitution of Illinois Article 1 Section 2 does not contradict the U.S. Constitution protections afforded to all Americans by the Fifth and Fourteenth amendments; and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court has held that the Due Process Clause applies to all noncitizens in the United States Constitution; "Aliens, even Aliens whose presence in this country is unlawful, have long been recognized as 'persons' guaranteed due process of law by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments" Pyler v. Doe, U.S. 202, 210 (1982); and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court has recognized family unity as a necessary protected interest by the United States Constitution; "There is a fundamental liberty interest of natural parents in the care, custody and management of their child"; Santosky v. Kramer, 455 U.S. 745, 753 (1982); and

WHEREAS, Illinois serves as the third largest recipient of federal grants for detention centers in the United States; and

WHEREAS, "Illinois agencies received nearly $90 million in federal grants in the last two fiscal years to help resettle unaccompanied minors coming to the U.S." as reported by ABC 7 News Chicago; and

WHEREAS, "In 2017, the American Pediatric Association released a statement, "Immigrant children seeking safe haven in the United States should never be placed in detention facilities. Studies of detained immigrants have shown that children and parents may suffer negative physical and emotional symptoms from detention, including anxiety, depression and posttraumatic stress disorder. Conditions in U.S. detention facilities, which include forcing children to sleep on cement floors, open toilets, constant light exposure, insufficient food and water, no bathing facilities, and extremely cold temperatures, are traumatizing for children. No child should ever have to endure these conditions."; and
WHEREAS, Currently, Illinois participates in detaining children under the federal government's Zero Tolerance Policy by way of providing facilities for detention funded by federal grants; and

WHEREAS, ICE (U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement) is an agency created in 2003 by the Department of Homeland Security, through the Homeland Security Act of 2002; and

WHEREAS, In Manigault v. Springs, the Supreme Court said, It is the settled law of this court that the interdiction of statutes impairing the obligation of contracts does not prevent the State from exercising such powers as are vested in it for the promotion of the common weal, or are necessary for the general good of the public, though contracts previously entered into between individuals may thereby be affected. This power, which in its various ramifications is known as the police power, is an exercise of the sovereign right of the Government to protect the lives, health, morals, comfort and general welfare of the people, and is paramount to any rights under contracts between individuals. 480. 34. 290 U.S. at 438; and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court further cited Home Building & Loan Association v. Blaisdell 290 U.S. 398 (1934); in upholding the legislation, the Court established new standards by which to evaluate the validity of legislation impairing the obligations of contracts; the inquiry is not simply whether an obligation is impaired, but rather "whether the legislation is addressed to a legitimate end, and the measures taken are reasonable and appropriate to that end." This flexible standard allows the Court to construe the contract; The legitimacy of the ends and the reasonableness of the means were judged by the following five factors: (1) an emergency must exist that furnishes a "proper occasion for the exercise of the reserved power of the State to protect the vital interests of the community, (2) the legislation must be for the protection of a basic interest of society, not for the mere advantage of particular individuals, (3) the relief must be appropriate to the character of the emergency that existed, (4) the conditions of the legislation must be reasonable, and (5) the legislation must be temporary and limited to the exigency that called it forth; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois has a right to review contracts and operations of detention centers that are causing harm to Illinois youth on Illinois soil; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE SENATE CONCURRING HEREIN, that there is created the ICE Monitoring Task Force whose purpose is the following:
