WHEREAS, The Illinois Attorney General's Office has received approximately 3,000 inquiries since 2000, which include complaints about instances of charitable donation fraud; and

WHEREAS, An increase in fraud attempts occurs after major national or natural disasters, including the attacks of September 11, 2001, and Hurricane Katrina in August 2005, and around the Christmas season, when fraudulent and illegitimate persons and groups feel people are more willing to donate; and

WHEREAS, The Attorney General's Office provides tips for consumers on how to identify potential charitable donation fraud, including requesting written information detailing the organization's mission and never paying in cash; and

WHEREAS, The Attorney General's Office encourages consumers to ask questions of individuals and organizations soliciting for donations to determine if they are legitimate, including how much of the contribution will go to the charity and how the donation will be distributed; and

WHEREAS, Over 25,000 legitimate charitable organizations are currently registered with the Illinois Attorney General's Office; the Attorney General's Office can inform consumers if a charitable organization is registered and current in its reporting requirements; therefore, be it

WHEREAS, There are 3 main components of the NAIS that include premises identification, animal identification, and animal tracking; and
