HOUSE RESOLUTION

The following resolution was offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 509

Offered by Representative Turner:

WHEREAS, Governor Rauner has called for a bold, pragmatic new approach to criminal justice, correctly noting that our prison system is significantly overcrowded and the corrections budget is far too large; and

WHEREAS, Governor Rauner has created the Illinois State Commission on Criminal Justice and Sentencing Reform to deliberate on the most fundamental questions of criminal justice policy, with a mandate to provide recommendations to the General Assembly by December of 2015; and

WHEREAS, Governor Rauner's Executive Order establishing the Commission reaffirmed that, under Article I, Section 11 of the Illinois Constitution, sentencing statutes must embrace the twin goals of prescribing penalties commensurate with the seriousness of the offense and restoring offenders to useful citizenship; and

WHEREAS, The Commission's task is to reduce the State's prison population by 25% over the next 10 years, from the current 49,000 prisoners to a more manageable 35,000 prisoners; and

WHEREAS, The growth of the prison population to such unsustainable figures stems from several factors, including 2 policy decisions by previous General Assemblies: the abolition of parole in 1979 and the elimination in 1998 of the ability to earn good conduct credit in prison for a large number of offenses, which triggered far lengthier sentences for inmates than had previously been the case; and

WHEREAS, The lack of any sentence review by a parole board or a judge for inmates sentenced after 1979 has left thousands of prisoners who no longer pose any threat to public safety and are truly remorseful for their crimes stuck in prison at tremendous taxpayer cost; and

WHEREAS, The elimination of the ability to earn good conduct in prison for a large number of offenses effectively doubled the sentences for those offenses, creating a major cost driver for taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, In order to bring our prison capacity and the Illinois Department of Corrections budget under control, we as a State must find a safe, reasonable, and intelligent method to release some prisoners earlier than their original sentence length that considers their changed circumstances and remorse, as well as the impact on victims and communities, while allowing for healing and reconciliation whenever possible; and

WHEREAS, Illinois' large prison population forces difficult budgetary decisions, including the reduction of programs that facilitate rehabilitation; and

WHEREAS, Rehabilitation is possible for offenders, particularly youthful offenders and offenders who receive educational programming; and

WHEREAS, Without some sort of sentence review process implemented, Illinois will not be able to meet the Governor's visionary and pragmatic goal of reducing our prison population by 25% over the next 10 years; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate Governor Rauner on his leadership and vision in criminal justice reform; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we call upon the members of the Illinois State Commission on Criminal Justice and Sentencing Reform to deliberate and develop a 21st century method of implementing a sentencing review regime that alleviates taxpayers of the burden of housing and feeding inmates that no longer pose any threat to public safety and are truly remorseful for their crimes; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be delivered to the Governor and the members of the Illinois State Commission on Criminal Justice and Sentencing Reform.

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE SENATE CONCURRING HEREIN, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the State for adoption or rejection at the general election next occurring at least 6 months after the adoption of this resolution a proposition to amend Section 6 of Article VII as follows:

ARTICLE VII

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

SECTION 6. POWERS OF HOME RULE UNITS

(a) A County which has a chief executive officer elected by the electors of the county and any municipality which has a population of more than ~~5,000~~ ~~25,000~~ are home rule units. Other municipalities may elect by referendum to become home rule units. Except as limited by this Section, a home rule unit may exercise any power and perform any function pertaining to its government and affairs including, but not limited to, the power to regulate for the protection of the public health, safety, morals and welfare; to license; to tax; and to incur debt.

(b) A home rule unit by referendum may elect not to be a home rule unit.

(c) If a home rule county ordinance conflicts with an ordinance of a municipality, the municipal ordinance shall prevail within its jurisdiction.

(d) A home rule unit does not have the power (1) to incur debt payable from ad valorem property tax receipts maturing more than 40 years from the time it is incurred or (2) to define and provide for the punishment of a felony.

(e) A home rule unit shall have only the power that the General Assembly may provide by law (1) to punish by imprisonment for more than six months or (2) to license for revenue or impose taxes upon or measured by income or earnings or upon occupations.

(f) A home rule unit shall have the power subject to approval by referendum to adopt, alter or repeal a form of government provided by law, except that the form of government of Cook County shall be subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Article. A home rule municipality shall have the power to provide for its officers, their manner of selection and terms of office only as approved by referendum or as otherwise authorized by law. A home rule county shall have the power to provide for its officers, their manner of selection and terms of office in the manner set forth in Section 4 of this Article.

(g) The General Assembly by a law approved by the vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house may deny or limit the power to tax and any other power or function of a home rule unit not exercised or performed by the State other than a power or function specified in subsection (l) of this section.

(h) The General Assembly may provide specifically by law for the exclusive exercise by the State of any power or function of a home rule unit other than a taxing power or a power or function specified in subsection (l) of this Section.

(i) Home rule units may exercise and perform concurrently with the State any power or function of a home rule unit to the extent that the General Assembly by law does not specifically limit the concurrent exercise or specifically declare the State's exercise to be exclusive.

(j) The General Assembly may limit by law the amount of debt which home rule counties may incur and may limit by law approved by three-fifths of the members elected to each house the amount of debt, other than debt payable from ad valorem property tax receipts, which home rule municipalities may incur.

(k) The General Assembly may limit by law the amount and require referendum approval of debt to be incurred by home rule municipalities, payable from ad valorem property tax receipts, only in excess of the following percentages of the assessed value of its taxable property: (1) if its population is 500,000 or more, an aggregate of three percent; (2) if its population is more than 5,000 ~~25,000~~ and less than 500,000, an aggregate of one percent; and (3) if its population is 5,000 ~~25,000~~ or less, an aggregate of one-half percent. Indebtedness which is outstanding on the effective date of this Constitution or which is thereafter approved by referendum or assumed from another unit of local government shall not be included in the foregoing percentage amounts.

(l) The General Assembly may not deny or limit the power of home rule units (1) to make local improvements by special assessment and to exercise this power jointly with other counties and municipalities, and other classes of units of local government having that power on the effective date of this Constitution unless that power is subsequently denied by law to any such other units of local government or (2) to levy or impose additional taxes upon areas within their boundaries in the manner provided by law for the provision of special services to those areas and for the payment of debt incurred in order to provide those special services.
