

Rep. Patricia R. Bellock

Filed: 3/25/2014

09800HB5852ham001

LRB098 17070 KTG 57422 a

1 AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL 5852

2 AMENDMENT NO. _____. Amend House Bill 5852 by replacing 3 everything after the enacting clause with the following:

4 "Section 5. The Disabled Persons Rehabilitation Act is 5 amended by adding Section 17.1 as follows:

6 (20 ILCS 2405/17.1 new)

7 Sec. 17.1. Home Care Consumer Bill of Rights.

8 (a) Definitions. As used in this Section:

9 "Home care consumer" or "consumer" means a person aged 60
10 or older or a person with disabilities aged 18 through 59 who 11 receives services in his or her home or community to promote 12 independence and reduce the necessity for residence in a
13 long-term care facility. These services may include the 14 following:

15 (1) Home care services provided under this Act, the 16 Medicare program under Title XVIII of the Social Security

1 Act, the Medicaid program under Title XIX of the Social 2 Security Act, or any other program funded by public or 3 private moneys.

4 (2) Home care services determined to be appropriate by 5 the Department.

6 "Home Care Consumer Bill of Rights" means, at a minimum,
7 the rights set forth in subsections (b) through (g) and, in 8 addition, any other rights established under subsection (h).

9 "Home care services" or "services" means home and 10 community-based services to promote independence and reduce 11 the necessity for residence in a long-term care facility, 12 including personal care services designed to assist an 13 individual in the activities of daily living such as bathing,
14 exercising, personal grooming, and getting in and out of bed.

15 (b) Home care consumer's right to basic safety.

16 (1) A home care consumer has the right to be protected
17 from physical, sexual, mental, and verbal abuse, neglect,
18 and exploitation, including financial exploitation.

19 (2) A home care consumer has the right to be served by 20 providers who are properly trained and are providing home
21 care services within their scope of practice and the scope
22 of their certification or licensure by the State.

23 (3) A provider of home care services shall maintain the 24 confidentiality of all personal, financial, and medical 25 information of the home care consumers to whom it provides 26 services.

1 (4) A provider of home care services shall respect the
2 personal property of the home care consumers to whom it
3 provides services. If a consumer reports a theft or loss of 4 personal property, the provider shall investigate and 5 shall report back to the consumer the results of the 6 investigation.

7 (c) Home care consumer's right to information.

8 (1) A home care consumer has the right to be informed
9 of the following by a provider of home care services within 10 2 weeks after starting to receive home care services:

11 (A) His or her rights under this Section.

12 (B) The entities the home care consumer may contact
13 if his or her rights are violated, including the name
14 and contact information for the Department of Human 15 Services and the Department on Aging and other State
16 and local agencies responsible for enforcing the Home 17 Care Consumer Bill of Rights.

18 (2) A home care consumer has the right to:

19 (A) be informed of (i) the cost of home care
20 services prior to receiving those services, (ii)
21 whether the cost of those services is covered under 22 health insurance, long-term care insurance, or other
23 private or public programs, and (iii) any charges the 24 consumer will be expected to pay; and

25 (B) be given advance notice of any changes to those 26 costs or services.

1 (3) A home care consumer has the right to access
2 information about the availability of the home care
3 services provided in his or her community and has the right
4 to choose among home care services and providers of home
5 care services available in that community.

6 (d) Home care consumer's right to choice, participation,
7 and self-determination.

8 (1) A home care consumer has the right to participate
9 in the planning of his or her home care services, including 10 making choices about aspects of his or her care and 11 services that are important to him or her, choosing
12 providers and schedules to the extent practicable,
13 receiving reasonable accommodation of his or her needs and 14 preferences, and involving anyone he or she chooses to 15 participate with him or her in that planning.

16 (2) A home care consumer has the right to be provided 17 with sufficient information to make informed decisions, to 18 be fully informed in advance about any proposed changes in 19 care and services, and to be involved in the 20 decision-making process regarding those changes.

21 (3) A home care consumer may refuse services and has 22 the right to receive an explanation of the consequences of 23 doing so.

24 (e) Home care consumer's right to dignity and 25 individuality. A home care consumer has the right to receive
26 care and services provided in a way that promotes his or her

1 dignity and individuality.

2 (f) Home care consumer's right to redress grievances.

3 (1) A home care consumer has the right to express
4 grievances about the quality of his or her home care
5 services, the number of hours of service, and any 6 violations of his or her rights under this Section. A home
7 care consumer has the right to receive prompt responses to 8 those concerns and to be informed about the entities the 9 consumer may contact to state those grievances in order to 10 have the grievances addressed in an appropriate and timely
11 manner and without retaliation.

12 (2) A home care consumer has the right to assert his or 13 her rights under this Section without retaliation.

14 (g) Home care consumer's right to fiduciary assistance. A
15 home care consumer has the right to a fiduciary's assistance in 16 securing the consumer's rights under this Section.

17 (h) Other rights. The Home Care Consumer Bill of Rights may 18 include any other rights determined to be appropriate by the 19 Department.

20 (i) The Department of Human Services and the Department on 21 Aging shall develop a plan for enforcing the Home Care Consumer 22 Bill of Rights. In developing the plan, the Departments shall 23 establish and take into account best practices for enforcement 24 of those rights. The Departments shall make those best 25 practices available to the public through their official web
26 sites. The plan shall include a description of how entities

1 with a role in protecting older adults aged 60 or older and 2 persons with disabilities aged 18 through 59, such as home care 3 services licensing agencies, adult protective services 4 agencies, the Office of State Long Term Care Ombudsman, local 5 law enforcement agencies, and other entities determined to be 6 appropriate by the Departments, will coordinate activities to 7 enforce the Home Care Consumer Bill of Rights.

8 Section 10. The Older Adult Services Act is amended by 9 adding Section 40 as follows:

10 (320 ILCS 42/40 new)

11 Sec. 40. Home Care Consumer Bill of Rights.

12 (a) Definitions. As used in this Section:

13 "Home care consumer" or "consumer" means a person aged 60
14 or older or a person with disabilities aged 18 through 59 who 15 receives services in his or her home or community to promote 16 independence and reduce the necessity for residence in a
17 long-term care facility. These services may include the 18 following:

19 (1) Home care services provided under this Act, the
20 Medicare program under Title XVIII of the Social Security
21 Act, the Medicaid program under Title XIX of the Social 22 Security Act, or any other program funded by public or 23 private moneys.

24 (2) Home care services determined to be appropriate by

1 the Department.

2 "Home Care Consumer Bill of Rights" means, at a minimum,
3 the rights set forth in subsections (b) through (g) and, in
4 addition, any other rights established under subsection (h).

5 "Home care services" or "services" means home and
6 community-based services to promote independence and reduce 7 the necessity for residence in a long-term care facility,
8 including personal care services designed to assist an
9 individual in the activities of daily living such as bathing,
10 exercising, personal grooming, and getting in and out of bed.

11 (b) Home care consumer's right to basic safety.

12 (1) A home care consumer has the right to be protected
13 from physical, sexual, mental, and verbal abuse, neglect,
14 and exploitation, including financial exploitation.

15 (2) A home care consumer has the right to be served by 16 providers who are properly trained and are providing home
17 care services within their scope of practice and the scope
18 of their certification or licensure by the State.

19 (3) A provider of home care services shall maintain the 20 confidentiality of all personal, financial, and medical 21 information of the home care consumers to whom it provides 22 services.

23 (4) A provider of home care services shall respect the 24 personal property of the home care consumers to whom it
25 provides services. If a consumer reports a theft or loss of 26 personal property, the provider shall investigate and

1 shall report back to the consumer the results of the 2 investigation.

3 (c) Home care consumer's right to information.

4 (1) A home care consumer has the right to be informed
5 of the following by a provider of home care services within 6 2 weeks after starting to receive home care services:

7 (A) His or her rights under this Section.

8 (B) The entities the home care consumer may contact
9 if his or her rights are violated, including the name
10 and contact information for the Department on Aging and 11 the Department of Human Services and other State and 12 local agencies responsible for enforcing the Home Care 13 Consumer Bill of Rights.

14 (2) A home care consumer has the right to:

15 (A) be informed of (i) the cost of home care
16 services prior to receiving those services, (ii)
17 whether the cost of those services is covered under 18 health insurance, long-term care insurance, or other
19 private or public programs, and (iii) any charges the 20 consumer will be expected to pay; and

21 (B) be given advance notice of any changes to those 22 costs or services.

23 (3) A home care consumer has the right to access
24 information about the availability of the home care
25 services provided in his or her community and has the right
26 to choose among home care services and providers of home

1 care services available in that community.

2 (d) Home care consumer's right to choice, participation,
3 and self-determination.

4 (1) A home care consumer has the right to participate
5 in the planning of his or her home care services, including
6 making choices about aspects of his or her care and
7 services that are important to him or her, choosing
8 providers and schedules to the extent practicable,
9 receiving reasonable accommodation of his or her needs and 10 preferences, and involving anyone he or she chooses to 11 participate with him or her in that planning.

12 (2) A home care consumer has the right to be provided
13 with sufficient information to make informed decisions, to 14 be fully informed in advance about any proposed changes in 15 care and services, and to be involved in the 16 decision-making process regarding those changes.

17 (3) A home care consumer may refuse services and has 18 the right to receive an explanation of the consequences of 19 doing so.

20 (e) Home care consumer's right to dignity and
21 individuality. A home care consumer has the right to receive
22 care and services provided in a way that promotes his or her
23 dignity and individuality.

24 (f) Home care consumer's right to redress grievances.

25 (1) A home care consumer has the right to express
26 grievances about the quality of his or her home care

1 services, the number of hours of service, and any
2 violations of his or her rights under this Section. A home
3 care consumer has the right to receive prompt responses to 4 those concerns and to be informed about the entities the 5 consumer may contact to state those grievances in order to
6 have the grievances addressed in an appropriate and timely
7 manner and without retaliation.

8 (2) A home care consumer has the right to assert his or 9 her rights under this Section without retaliation.

10 (g) Home care consumer's right to fiduciary assistance. A
11 home care consumer has the right to a fiduciary's assistance in 12 securing the consumer's rights under this Section.

13 (h) Other rights. The Home Care Consumer Bill of Rights may 14 include any other rights determined to be appropriate by the 15 Department.

16 (i) The Department on Aging and the Department of Human 17 Services shall develop a plan for enforcing the Home Care 18 Consumer Bill of Rights. In developing the plan, the 19 Departments shall establish and take into account best 20 practices for enforcement of those rights. The Departments 21 shall make those best practices available to the public through 22 their official web sites. The plan shall include a description 23 of how entities with a role in protecting older adults aged 60 24 or older and persons with disabilities aged 18 through 59, such 25 as home care services licensing agencies, adult protective 26 services agencies, the Office of State Long Term Care

1 Ombudsman, local law enforcement agencies, and other entities 2 determined to be appropriate by the Departments, will 3 coordinate activities to enforce the Home Care Consumer Bill of 4 Rights.

5 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon 6 becoming law.".