HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, The 20th Century has witnessed unspeakable acts of 3 murder and chaos, from the Holocaust, to the massacres in 4 Rwanda and Bosnia, the genocidal campaign against the Armenian
5 people symbolizes one of the first in our modern age; and

6 WHEREAS, Between the years 1915-1923, nearly one and a half
7 million Armenian men, women, and children were massacred by the 8 Ottoman Turkish government; and

9 WHEREAS, The United Nations defines the term genocide as 10 any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in 11 whole or in part, a national, ethnic, racial, or religious 12 group, including killing members of the group; causing serious
13 bodily or mental harm to members of the group; deliberately
14 inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring 15 about its physical destruction in whole or in part; imposing 16 measures intended to prevent births within the group; or 17 forcibly transferring children of the group to another; and

18 WHEREAS, The segregation and degradation of the minority
19 Christian Armenian population by the Turkish government began
20 with Ottoman rule in the mid-1800s; the brutality escalated
21 during the reign of the Young Turks, immediately following the 22 First World War; and

1 WHEREAS, In 1939, the monster, Adolf Hitler, cited the 2 Armenian genocide as justification for the genocide he himself
3 was about to lead, asking, "Who after all, speaks today of the 4 annihilation of the Armenians."; and

5 WHEREAS, The attempted extermination and forced 6 displacement of the Armenian people not only extinguished
7 precious lives, but also uprooted a centuries-old culture from 8 their ancient homeland; and

9 WHEREAS, The people of Armenia have witnessed the eastern
10 conquests of Alexander the Great, fought the legions of Rome
11 and Sassanid Persians, halted Arabian expansion, supplied 12 emperors to the throne of Byzantium, became the first nation to 13 adopt Christianity in 301 CE, and established their language's 14 alphabet barely a century later in 406 CE; and

15 WHEREAS, A century ago this year, Armenian heritage came 16 under threat once more, as thousands of their monasteries and 17 churches were desecrated or destroyed, national institutions
18 and schools, razed to the ground, and the surviving Armenian 19 people, scattered across the world; and

20 WHEREAS, Despite the wreckage, the Armenian people
21 endured, building a new and sovereign nation in the eastern

1 half of their homeland; and

2 WHEREAS, The 21st Century world continues to face
3 terrifying crimes against humanity even at this very hour, as 4 forces of repression and barbarism seek to roll back the 5 progress of our age; and

6 WHEREAS, These forces of terror include the Islamic State,
7 Boko Haram, the regional tentacles of al-Qa'ida, al-Nusrah
8 Front, al-Shabaab, Hizballah, and Hamas, along with far too 9 many more; and

10 WHEREAS, The great champion and prophet of liberty, Dr.
11 Martin Luther King Jr. powerfully noted that, "He who passively 12 accepts evil is as much involved in it as he who helps to 13 perpetrate it. He who accepts evil without protesting against 14 it is really cooperating with it."; and

15 WHEREAS, We must learn and boldly speak of, the often 16 heartbreaking but invaluable lessons of our common human past, 17 as well as teach them to our children and our grandchildren in 18 order for this world to finally be free of hostility and 19 violence; therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 21 NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that

1 we, and all other people of human decency, who speak today of 2 the near annihilation of the Armenian people, and indeed of all
3 those who continue suffering under the heel of tyranny across
4 the world; and be it further

5 RESOLVED, That on this 100th anniversary year of the 6 Armenian genocide, we commemorate the nearly one and a half 7 million precious lives lost and honor the rich, ancient 8 heritage of the Armenian people by dedicating April 24th, 2015
9 as the Day of Remembrance for the Holy Martyrs of the Armenian
10 Genocide of 1915.
