

AN ACT concerning government.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 1. State Police History. On June 24, 1921, the 52nd General Assembly of the State of Illinois authorized the Department of Public Works and Buildings to hire a sufficient number of State Highway Patrol Officers to enforce the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Laws. The Illinois State Police began service to the State with the appointment of its first director, John J. Stack, and the first 8 highway patrol officers on April 1, 1922. Since its inception, the Illinois State Police has fostered and served with a reputation for integrity, service, and pride, which continues today.

Section 5. The State Commemorative Dates Act is amended by adding Section 147 as follows:

(5 ILCS 490/147 new)

Sec. 147. Illinois State Trooper Day. April 1st of each year is designated as Illinois State Trooper Day, a day to honor the dedicated men and women of the Illinois State Police. Illinois State Trooper Day shall be observed throughout the State by the citizens of Illinois with civic remembrances of the sacrifices made on their behalf by Illinois' finest, the
