1 HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, The ability to read is fundamental to an 3 individual's success and their ability to take part in our 4 democracy as a responsible citizen; and

5 WHEREAS, According to 2022 data from the National 6 Assessment of Education Progress (NAEP), one third of Illinois
7 children are reading below their basic grade level; and

8 WHEREAS, A study by the Annie E. Casey Foundation found 9 that third graders that do not read proficiently are four 10 times more likely to drop out of high school, and low-income
11 students that do not read proficiently are six times more 12 likely to drop out of high school; and

13 WHEREAS, Students that cannot read proficiently experience
14 difficulty in every school subject and find it hard to succeed 15 academically; and

16 WHEREAS, Students who cannot read proficiently are not 17 well prepared for life after school; and

18 WHEREAS, Parents are indispensable in the education of 19 their children, and the habits that parents model and the 20 passions they instill are vital to a child's development;

1 therefore, be it
