HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois House of 3 Representatives wish to commend individuals whose service, 4 leadership, and professional excellence have strengthened the 5 social fabric of the State of Illinois and advanced the 6 health, dignity, and well-being of its residents; and

7 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera, Director of Community
8 Engagement & Impact at Rincon Family Services, has 9 demonstrated an exceptional commitment to public service,
10 community-centered leadership, and cross-sector
11 collaboration, delivering meaningful and lasting impact to 12 communities throughout the State; and

13 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera has a longstanding and 14 distinguished record of community service, beginning with her 15 tenure at the office of the Consulate General of Mexico in 16 Chicago, followed by her continued leadership at Rincon Family 17 Services over the past two years, where her work has 18 strengthened community response systems, expanded access to 19 education and resources, and supported coordinated service
20 delivery for immigrant and historically underserved 21 communities across Illinois; and

22 WHEREAS, From the outset of her professional career,

1 Ximena Siguenza Cabrera's contributions have delivered
2 tangible value to the people of Illinois through 3 responsiveness, cultural fluency, operational excellence, and 4 an unwavering commitment to dignity-centered service; and

5 WHEREAS, In her current role as Director of Community
6 Engagement & Impact, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera has provided 7 direct strategic support and counsel to organizational 8 leadership, serving as a top-tier advisor to the president and 9 chief executive officer of Rincon Family Services, advising on 10 program design, development, and implementation to ensure 11 initiatives are community-centered, operationally sound, and 12 aligned with both organizational mission and public-sector 13 priorities; and

14 WHEREAS, Through her position, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera has 15 effectively bridged executive vision with on-the-ground
16 execution, translating strategy into measurable, sustainable,
17 and equitable outcomes that strengthen Illinois' human 18 services ecosystem; and

19 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera has applied her expertise 20 in community education and empowerment to support the 21 coordination, implementation, and integration of resources 22 that advance comprehensive care, including her key role in 23 facilitating the integration of a health center within Rincon

1 Family Services' organizational systems, supporting the 2 co-location of Community Health services to expand access to 3 integrated and culturally responsive care; and

4 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera's leadership has extended 5 beyond organizational boundaries through her assistance in the 6 co-location of integrated case management services within the 7 offices of the Consulate General of Mexico and the Consulate 8 General of Guatemala in Chicago, ensuring that individuals and 9 families could access health, behavioral health, and social 10 services in trusted and familiar environments while reflecting 11 a deep understanding of how systems alignment, trust, and 12 accessibility intersect in effective service delivery; and

13 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera has facilitated and led 14 all major educational campaigns for Rincon Family Services, 15 ensuring that critical information reaches communities in a 16 clear, culturally responsive, and actionable manner, thereby 17 reducing barriers to access and empowering individuals and 18 families to engage proactively with available services; she 19 previously served in the planning and execution of the 20 International Behavioral Health Summit held in Mexico City in 21 2025, in collaboration with La Universidad Iberoamericana of 22 Mexico City, where her contributions played a key factor in 23 shaping cross-border dialogue, educational programming, and 24 community-centered perspectives that elevated the summit's

1 relevance and impact; and

2 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera's collaboration with La 3 Universidad Iberoamericana has further included the 4 facilitation of behavioral health student internships in 5 Chicago, strengthening workforce development pipelines and 6 fostering the next generation of culturally competent 7 behavioral health professionals serving Illinois communities; 8 and

9 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera has played a central role
10 in shaping the clinical milieu of Rincon Family Services' 11 physical spaces, working collaboratively with clinical, 12 operational, and facilities teams to ensure environments are 13 trauma-informed, culturally responsive, and supportive of both 14 client healing and staff well-being, thereby transforming 15 facilities into intentional environments of care; and

16 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera is leading the 17 implementation of the Mustard Seeds Initiatives, a portfolio 18 of high-impact, purpose-driven micro-investments designed to 19 generate measurable and transformational outcomes at both 20 local and international levels, advancing education on 21 selective mutism and autism in Mexico City, facilitating 22 scholarships at La Universidad Iberoamericana, strengthening 23 ecological stewardship efforts in Cook and Kankakee counties,

1 and supporting apiculturists in Chicago to promote pollinator
2 conservation and environmental sustainability, with these 3 initiatives exemplifying her ability to translate vision into 4 action, ensuring that targeted investments empower 5 communities, create lasting change, and establish sustainable 6 pathways for future impact; and

7 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera also serves as the 8 logistical lead for community social service responses, 9 coordinating organizational action when requests are made by 10 state elected officials, including responses to fires, 11 behavioral health referrals, emergency needs, and 12 comprehensive case management, and is widely recognized for 13 her ability to mobilize teams, align resources, and execute 14 timely responses during moments of community urgency; and

15 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera is a co-author and 16 collaborator on a forthcoming peer-reviewed journal essay on 17 nonprofit leadership and transformational impact as part of 18 the 50th Anniversary Special Issue of Human Service
19 Organizations: Management, Leadership & Governance, scheduled 20 for publication in Autumn 2026; and

21 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera's leadership is grounded 22 in rigorous academic preparation, having earned a Bachelor of 23 Arts in Political Science and International Relations from the

1 Centro de Investigacion y Docencia Economicas (CIDE) and 2 pursued advanced studies at Hankuk University of Foreign 3 Studies in South Korea, within the School of Social Sciences, 4 equipping her with a global perspective and analytical 5 foundation that has informed her work across cultures and 6 systems; and

7 WHEREAS, Ximena Siguenza Cabrera continues to demonstrate 8 that effective human services are built not only on compassion 9 but on precision, coordination, education, and strategic 10 advisement at the highest levels of leadership, bridging 11 institutions and communities, policy and practice, and local 12 needs with global perspective; therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE 14 HUNDRED FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 15 we commend Ximena Siguenza Cabrera, Director of Community
16 Engagement & Impact at Rincon Family Services, for her 17 integrity, leadership, and statewide impact, and we thank her 18 for her continued contributions to the health, dignity, and 19 well-being of the people of Illinois; and be it further

20 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 21 presented to Ximena Siguenza Cabrera as an expression of our 22 esteem and respect.
