7 (20 ILCS 1405/1405-16 new)

8 Sec. 1405-16. Medicare consumer checklist.

9 (a) The Department of Insurance shall develop and
10 administer a one-page consumer checklist comparing Medicare
11 Advantage plans and Medicare Supplement plans. The checklist
12 shall compare:

13 (1) plan networks, including differences in providers,
14 specialists, hospitals, urgent care centers, and
15 pharmacies;

16 (2) portability rules, including rules for travel,

1                   out-of-state coverage, and temporary out-of-area coverage;

2                   (3) prescription drug coverage, including drug
3                   formularies, cost-sharing, mail-order pharmacy coverage,
4                   prior authorization requirements, and step therapy;

5                   (4) maximum out-of-pocket exposure, including annual 6                   limits, in-network and out-of-network expenses, and 7                   cost-sharing for services; and

8                   (5) additional benefits and services.

9                   (b) The Department shall update the checklist under this 10                   Section on January 1 of each year, beginning on January 1 of 11                   the year after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 12                   104th General Assembly.".
