Testimony:

I support the Emergency Renter and Homeowner Protection Act, HB5574 because people are in need of real relief and it's time that we bail the people out instead of large corporations and banks. You must take care of those at the bottom to stay afloat and a single stimulus of $1,200 is not going to help people who have lost a job and income but still have all of their bills, rent, and mortgage to pay, whether they have to pay it today or months from now. They shouldn't have to pay at all and our government can help and so it should.
