Hi John,

I've attached the email [REDACTED] received from ComEd today, regarding the Customer Service Representative position. He was wondering if this was denied because he was considering the dispatch position. He would really like to pursue the CSR position because the dispatch position wasn't available until January 2017. Any Help in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks,
Tom

Hi [REDACTED]

Thank you so much for your patience. We truly appreciate the time you have taken to interview with us for the Customer Service Representative position. We have carefully considered your qualifications, and while they are impressive, we have decided to pursue a candidate whose skills and qualifications more closely match those required in the position.

Thank you again for your interest in ComEd.
