

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Article 1. General provisions.

5 Section 101. Short title. This Act may be cited as the 6 Uniform Powers of Appointment Act.

7 Section 102. Definitions. In this Act:

8 (1) "Appointee" means a person to which a powerholder makes 9 an appointment of appointive property.

10 (2) "Appointive property" means the property or property 11 interest subject to a power of appointment.

12 (3) "Blanket-exercise clause" means a clause in an 13 instrument which exercises a power of appointment and is not a 14 specific-exercise clause. The term includes a clause that:

15 (A) expressly uses the words "any power" in exercising 16 any power of appointment the powerholder has;

17 (B) expressly uses the words "any property" in 18 appointing any property over which the powerholder has a 19 power of appointment; or

20 (C) disposes of all property subject to disposition by 21 the powerholder.

22 (4) "Donor" means a person that creates a power of

1 appointment.

2 (5) "Exclusionary power of appointment" means a power of 3 appointment exercisable in favor of any one or more of the 4 permissible appointees to the exclusion of the other 5 permissible appointees.

6 (6) "General power of appointment" means a power of 7 appointment exercisable in favor of a powerholder, the 8 powerholder's estate, a creditor of the powerholder, or a
9 creditor of the powerholder's estate.

10 (7) "Gift-in-default clause" means a clause identifying a 11 taker in default of appointment.

12 (8) "Impermissible appointee" means a person that is not a 13 permissible appointee.

14 (9) "Instrument" means a writing.

15 (10) "Nongeneral power of appointment" means a power of 16 appointment that is not a general power of appointment.

17 (11) "Permissible appointee" means a person in whose favor 18 a powerholder may exercise a power of appointment.

19 (12) "Person" means an individual, estate, business or 20 nonprofit entity, public corporation, government or 21 governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or other 22 legal entity.

23 (13) "Power of appointment" means a power that enables a 24 powerholder acting in a nonfiduciary capacity to designate a 25 recipient of an ownership interest in or another power of 26 appointment over the appointive property. The term does not

1 include a power of attorney.

2 (14) "Powerholder" means a person in which a donor creates 3 a power of appointment.

4 (15) "Presently exercisable power of appointment" means a 5 power of appointment exercisable by the powerholder at the 6 relevant time. The term:

7 (A) includes a power of appointment exercisable only 8 after the occurrence of a specified event, the satisfaction
9 of an ascertainable standard, or the passage of a specified 10 time only after:

11 (i) the occurrence of the specified event;

12 (ii) the satisfaction of the ascertainable 13 standard; or

14 (iii) the passage of the specified time; and 15 (B) does not include a power exercisable only at the 16 powerholder's death.

17 (16) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a 18 tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other 19 medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

20 (17) "Specific-exercise clause" means a clause in an 21 instrument which specifically refers to and exercises a 22 particular power of appointment.

23 (18) "Taker in default of appointment" means a person that 24 takes part or all of the appointive property to the extent the 25 powerholder does not effectively exercise the power of 26 appointment.

1 (19) "Terms of the instrument" means the manifestation of 2 the intent of the maker of the instrument regarding the 3 instrument's provisions as expressed in the instrument or as 4 may be established by other evidence that would be admissible
5 in a legal proceeding.

6 Section 103. Governing law. Unless the terms of the 7 instrument creating a power of appointment manifest a contrary
8 intent:

9 (1) the creation, revocation, or amendment of the power is 10 governed by the law of the donor's domicile at the relevant 11 time; and

12 (2) the exercise, release, or disclaimer of the power, or 13 the revocation or amendment of the exercise, release, or 14 disclaimer of the power, is governed by the law of the 15 powerholder's domicile at the relevant time.

16 Section 104. Common law and principles of equity. The 17 common law and principles of equity supplement this Act, except 18 to the extent modified by this Act or law of this State other 19 than this Act.

20 Article 2. Creation, revocation, and amendment of power of 21 appointment.

22 Section 201. Creation of power of appointment.

1 (a) A power of appointment is created only if:

2 (1) the instrument creating the power:

3 (A) is valid under applicable law; and

4 (B) except as otherwise provided in subsection

5 (b), transfers the appointive property; and

6 (2) the terms of the instrument creating the power
7 manifest the donor's intent to create, in a powerholder, a 8 power of appointment over the appointive property 9 exercisable in favor of a permissible appointee.

10 (b) Subdivision (a) (1) (B) of this Section does not apply to 11 the creation of a power of appointment by the exercise of a 12 power of appointment.

13 (c) A power of appointment may not be created in a deceased 14 individual.

15 (d) Subject to an applicable rule against perpetuities, a 16 power of appointment may be created in an unborn or 17 unascertained powerholder.

18 Section 202. Nontransferability. A powerholder may not 19 transfer a power of appointment. If the powerholder dies 20 without exercising or releasing the power, the power lapses.

21 Section 203. Presumption of unlimited authority. Subject 22 to Section 205, and unless the terms of the instrument creating 23 a power of appointment manifest a contrary intent, the power 24 is:

- 1 (1) presently exercisable;
- 2 (2) exclusionary; and
- 3 (3) except as otherwise provided in Section 204,
- 4 general.

5 Section 204. Exception to presumption of unlimited
6 authority. Unless the terms of the instrument creating a power 7 of appointment manifest a contrary intent, the power is 8 nongeneral if:

- 9 (1) the power is exercisable only at the powerholder's 10 death; and
- 11 (2) the permissible appointees of the power are a 12 defined and limited class that does not include the 13 powerholder's estate, the powerholder's creditors, or the 14 creditors of the powerholder's estate.

15 Section 205. Rules of classification.

16 (a) In this Section, "adverse party" means a person with a 17 substantial beneficial interest in property which would be 18 affected adversely by a powerholder's exercise or nonexercise 19 of a power of appointment in favor of the powerholder, the 20 powerholder's estate, a creditor of the powerholder, or a
21 creditor of the powerholder's estate.

22 (b) If a powerholder may exercise a power of appointment
23 only with the consent or joinder of an adverse party, the power 24 is nongeneral.

1 (c) If the permissible appointees of a power of appointment
2 are not defined and limited, the power is exclusionary.

3 Section 206. Power to revoke or amend. A donor may revoke 4 or amend a power of appointment only to the extent that:

5 (1) the instrument creating the power is revocable by 6 the donor; or

7 (2) the donor reserves a power of revocation or 8 amendment in the instrument creating the power of 9 appointment.

10 Article 3. Exercise of power of appointment.

11 Section 301. Requisites for exercise of power of 12 appointment. A power of appointment is exercised only:

13 (1) if the instrument exercising the power is valid 14 under applicable law;

15 (2) if the terms of the instrument exercising the 16 power:

17 (A) manifest the powerholder's intent to exercise 18 the power; and

19 (B) subject to Section 304, satisfy the 20 requirements of exercise, if any, imposed by the donor; 21 and

22 (3) to the extent the appointment is a permissible
23 exercise of the power.

1 Section 302. Intent to exercise: determining intent from 2 residuary clause.

3 (a) In this Section:

4 (1) "Residuary clause" does not include a residuary 5 clause containing a blanket-exercise clause or a 6 specific-exercise clause.

7 (2) "Will" includes a codicil and a testamentary 8 instrument that revises another will.

9 (b) A residuary clause in a powerholder's will, or a 10 comparable clause in the powerholder's revocable trust, 11 manifests the powerholder's intent to exercise a power of 12 appointment only if:

13 (1) the terms of the instrument containing the 14 residuary clause do not manifest a contrary intent;

15 (2) the power is a general power exercisable in favor 16 of the powerholder's estate;

17 (3) there is no gift-in-default clause or it is 18 ineffective; and 19 (4) the powerholder did not release the power.

20 Section 303. Intent to exercise: after-acquired power.
21 Unless the terms of the instrument exercising a power of 22 appointment manifest a contrary intent:

23 (1) except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2), a 24 blanket-exercise clause extends to a power acquired by the

1 powerholder after executing the instrument containing the 2 clause; and

3 (2) if the powerholder is also the donor of the power, 4 the clause does not extend to the power unless there is no
5 gift-in-default clause or it is ineffective.

6 Section 304. Substantial compliance with donor-imposed
7 formal requirement. A powerholder's substantial compliance 8 with a formal requirement of an appointment imposed by the 9 donor, including a requirement that the instrument exercising 10 the power of appointment make reference or specific reference 11 to the power, is sufficient if:

12 (1) the powerholder knows of and intends to exercise 13 the power; and

14 (2) the powerholder's manner of attempted exercise of 15 the power does not impair a material purpose of the donor 16 in imposing the requirement.

17 Section 305. Permissible appointment.

18 (a) A powerholder of a general power of appointment that 19 permits appointment to the powerholder or the powerholder's 20 estate may make any appointment, including an appointment in 21 trust or creating a new power of appointment, that the 22 powerholder could make in disposing of the powerholder's own
23 property.

24 (b) A powerholder of a general power of appointment that

1 permits appointment only to the creditors of the powerholder or 2 of the powerholder's estate is restricted to appointing to 3 those creditors.

4 (c) Unless the terms of the instrument creating a power of 5 appointment manifest a contrary intent, the powerholder of a 6 nongeneral power may:

7 (1) make an appointment in any form, with any 8 conditions and limitations, including an appointment in 9 trust to any trustee, in favor of a permissible appointee;

10 (2) create a general or nongeneral power in a 11 permissible appointee that may be exercisable in favor of 12 persons other than permissible appointees of the original 13 nongeneral power; or

14 (3) create a nongeneral power in any person to appoint 15 to one or more of the permissible appointees of the 16 original nongeneral power.

17 Section 306. Appointment to deceased appointee. Subject to 18 Section 4-11 of the Probate Act of 1975, an appointment to a 19 deceased appointee is ineffective.

20 Section 307. Impermissible appointment.

21 (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 306, an 22 exercise of a power of appointment in favor of an impermissible 23 appointee is ineffective.

24 (b) An exercise of a power of appointment in favor of a

1 permissible appointee is ineffective to the extent the 2 appointment is a fraud on the power.

3 Section 308. Selective allocation doctrine. If a 4 powerholder exercises a power of appointment in a disposition 5 that also disposes of property the powerholder owns, the owned 6 property and the appointive property must be allocated in the 7 permissible manner that best carries out the powerholder's
8 intent.

9 Section 309. Capture doctrine: disposition of 10 ineffectively appointed property under general power. To the 11 extent a powerholder of a general power of appointment, other 12 than a power to revoke, amend, or withdraw property from a 13 trust, makes an ineffective appointment:

14 (1) the gift-in-default clause controls the 15 disposition of the ineffectively appointed property; or

16 (2) if there is no gift-in-default clause or to the 17 extent the clause is ineffective, the ineffectively
18 appointed property:

19 (A) passes to:

20 (i) the powerholder if the powerholder is a
21 permissible appointee and living; or

22 (ii) if the powerholder is an impermissible
23 appointee or not living, the powerholder's estate
24 if the estate is a permissible appointee; or

1 (B) if there is no taker under subparagraph (A), 2 passes under a reversionary interest to the donor or 3 the donor's transferee or successor in interest.

4 Section 310. Disposition of unappointed property under 5 released or unexercised general power. To the extent a 6 powerholder releases or fails to exercise a general power of 7 appointment other than a power to revoke, amend, or withdraw 8 property from a trust:

9 (1) the gift-in-default clause controls the 10 disposition of the unappointed property; or

11 (2) if there is no gift-in-default clause or to the 12 extent the clause is ineffective:

13 (A) except as otherwise provided in subparagraph 14 (B), the unappointed property passes to:

15 (i) the powerholder if the powerholder is a
16 permissible appointee and living; or

17 (ii) if the powerholder is an impermissible
18 appointee or not living, the powerholder's estate
19 if the estate is a permissible appointee; or

20 (B) to the extent the powerholder released the 21 power, or if there is no taker under subparagraph (A), 22 the unappointed property passes under a reversionary 23 interest to the donor or the donor's transferee or 24 successor in interest.

1 Section 311. Disposition of unappointed property under 2 released or unexercised nongeneral power. To the extent a 3 powerholder releases, ineffectively exercises, or fails to 4 exercise a nongeneral power of appointment:

5 (1) the gift-in-default clause controls the disposition of 6 the unappointed property; or

7 (2) if there is no gift-in-default clause or to the extent 8 the clause is ineffective, the unappointed property:

9 (A) passes to the permissible appointees if:

10 (i) the permissible appointees are defined and 11 limited; and

12 (ii) the terms of the instrument creating the power 13 do not manifest a contrary intent; or

14 (B) if there is no taker under subparagraph (A), passes
15 under a reversionary interest to the donor or the donor's 16 transferee or successor in interest.

17 Section 312. Disposition of unappointed property if 18 partial appointment to taker in default. Unless the terms of 19 the instrument creating or exercising a power of appointment
20 manifest a contrary intent, if the powerholder makes a valid 21 partial appointment to a taker in default of appointment, the 22 taker in default of appointment may share fully in unappointed
23 property.

24 Section 313. Appointment to taker in default. If a

1 powerholder of a general power makes an appointment to a taker
2 in default of appointment and the appointee would have taken
3 the property under a gift-in-default clause had the property 4 not been appointed, the power of appointment is deemed not to 5 have been exercised, and the appointee takes under the 6 gift-in-default clause.

7 Section 314. Powerholder's authority to revoke or amend
8 exercise. A powerholder may revoke or amend an exercise of a 9 power of appointment only to the extent that:

10 (1) the powerholder reserves a power of revocation or 11 amendment in the instrument exercising the power of 12 appointment and, if the power is nongeneral, the terms of 13 the instrument creating the power of appointment do not 14 prohibit the reservation; or 15 (2) the terms of the instrument creating the power of 16 appointment provide that the exercise is revocable or 17 amendable.

18 Section 315. Disposition of trust property subject to 19 power. In disposing of trust property subject to a power of 20 appointment exercisable by an instrument other than a will, a 21 trustee acting in good faith shall have no liability to any 22 appointee or taker in default of appointment for relying upon 23 an instrument believed to be genuine purporting to exercise a 24 power of appointment or for assuming that there is no

1 instrument exercising the power of appointment in the absence 2 of actual knowledge thereof within 3 months of the last date on 3 which the power of appointment may be exercised.

4 Article 4. Disclaimer or release; contract to appoint or not to 5 appoint.

6 Section 401. Disclaimer. As provided by Section 2-7 of the 7 Probate Act of 1975:

8 (1) A powerholder may disclaim all or part of a power 9 of appointment.

10 (2) A permissible appointee, appointee, or taker in 11 default of appointment may disclaim all or part of an 12 interest in appointive property.

13 Section 402. Authority to release. A powerholder may 14 release a power of appointment, in whole or in part, except to 15 the extent the terms of the instrument creating the power 16 prevent the release.

17 Section 403. Method of release. A powerholder of a 18 releasable power of appointment may release the power in whole 19 or in part:

20 (1) by substantial compliance with a method provided in 21 the terms of the instrument creating the power; or

22 (2) if the terms of the instrument creating the power

1 do not provide a method or the method provided in the terms 2 of the instrument is not expressly made exclusive, by an 3 instrument manifesting the powerholder's intent by clear 4 and convincing evidence.

5 Section 404. Revocation or amendment of release. A 6 powerholder may revoke or amend a release of a power of 7 appointment only to the extent that:

8 (1) the instrument of release is revocable by the 9 powerholder; or

10 (2) the powerholder reserves a power of revocation or 11 amendment in the instrument of release.

12 Section 405. Power to contract: presently exercisable
13 power of appointment. A powerholder of a presently exercisable 14 power of appointment may contract:

15 (1) not to exercise the power; or

16 (2) to exercise the power if the contract when made 17 does not confer a benefit on an impermissible appointee.

18 Section 406. Power to contract: power of appointment not 19 presently exercisable. A powerholder of a power of appointment 20 that is not presently exercisable may contract to exercise or 21 not to exercise the power only if the powerholder:

22 (1) is also the donor of the power; and 23 (2) has reserved the power in a revocable trust.

1 (d) Subject to subsections (b) and (c), and notwithstanding 2 the presence of a spendthrift provision or whether the claim 3 arose before or after the creation of the power of appointment,
4 appointive property subject to a general power of appointment
5 created by the powerholder is subject to a claim of a creditor 6 of:

7 (1) the powerholder, to the same extent as if the 8 powerholder owned the appointive property, if the power is 9 presently exercisable; and

10 (2) the powerholder's estate, to the extent the estate 11 is insufficient to satisfy the claim and subject to the 12 right of a decedent to direct the source from which 13 liabilities are paid, if the power is exercisable at the 14 powerholder's death.

15 Section 502. Creditor claim: general power not created by 16 powerholder.

17 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b),
18 appointive property subject to a general power of appointment
19 created by a person other than the powerholder is subject to a 20 claim of a creditor of:

21 (1) the powerholder, to the extent the powerholder's 22 property is insufficient, if the power is presently 23 exercisable; and

24 (2) the powerholder's estate if the power is exercised 25 at the powerholder's death, to the extent the estate is

1 insufficient, subject to the right of the deceased 2 powerholder to direct the source from which liabilities are 3 paid.

4 (b) Subject to subsection (c) of Section 504, a power of 5 appointment created by a person other than the powerholder 6 which is subject to an ascertainable standard relating to an 7 individual's health, education, support, or maintenance within 8 the meaning of 26 U.S.C. 2041(b)(1)(A) or 26 U.S.C. 2514(c)(1), 9 as amended, is treated for purposes of this Article as a 10 nongeneral power.

11 Section 503. Power to withdraw.

12 (a) For purposes of this Article, and except as otherwise 13 provided in subsection (b), a power to withdraw property from a 14 trust is treated, during the time the power may be exercised, 15 as a presently exercisable general power of appointment to the 16 extent of the property subject to the power to withdraw.

17 (b) A power to withdraw property from a trust ceases to be 18 treated as a presently exercisable general power of appointment 19 upon its lapse, release, or waiver.

20 Section 504. Creditor claim: nongeneral power.

21 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and 22 (c), appointive property subject to a nongeneral power of 23 appointment is exempt from a claim of a creditor of the 24 powerholder or the powerholder's estate.

1 (b) Appointive property subject to a nongeneral power of 2 appointment is subject to a claim of a creditor of the 3 powerholder or the powerholder's estate to the extent that the 4 powerholder owned the property and, reserving the nongeneral
5 power, transferred the property in violation of the Uniform
6 Fraudulent Transfer Act.

7 (c) If the initial gift in default of appointment is to the 8 powerholder or the powerholder's estate, a nongeneral power of 9 appointment is treated for purposes of this Section as a 10 general power.

11 Article 6. Miscellaneous provisions.

12 Section 601. Uniformity of application and construction.
13 In applying and construing this uniform Act, consideration must 14 be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with 15 respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

16 Section 602. (Blank).

17 Section 603. Application to existing relationships.

18 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, on and after 19 the effective date of this Act:

20 (1) this Act applies to a power of appointment created 21 before, on, or after its effective date;

22 (2) this Act applies to a judicial proceeding

1 concerning a power of appointment commenced on or after its 2 effective date;

3 (3) this Act applies to a judicial proceeding
4 concerning a power of appointment commenced before its 5 effective date unless the court finds that application of a 6 particular provision of this Act would substantially 7 interfere with the effective conduct of the judicial 8 proceeding or prejudice a right of a party, in which case 9 the particular provision of this Act does not apply and the 10 superseded law applies;

11 (4) a rule of construction or presumption provided in 12 this Act applies to an instrument executed before the 13 effective date of the Act unless there is a clear 14 indication of a contrary intent in the terms of the 15 instrument; and

16 (5) an act done before the effective date of this Act
17 is not affected by this Act.

18 (b) If a right is acquired, extinguished, or barred on the 19 expiration of a prescribed period that commenced under law of 20 this State other than this Act before the effective date of 21 this Act, the law continues to apply to the right.

22 (c) No trustee is liable to any person in whose favor a 23 power of appointment may have been exercised for any 24 distribution of property made to persons entitled to take in 25 default of the effective exercise of the power of appointment
26 to the extent that the distribution shall have been completed

1 prior to the effective date of this Act.

2 Section 604. The Probate Act of 1975 is amended by changing
3 Section 2-7 as follows:

4 (755 ILCS 5/2-7) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 2-7)

5 Sec. 2-7. Disclaimer. (a) Right to Disclaim Interest in 6 Property. A person to whom any property or interest therein 7 passes, by whatever means, may disclaim the property or 8 interest in whole or in part by delivering or filing a written 9 disclaimer as hereinafter provided. A disclaimer may be of a 10 fractional share or undivided interest, a specifically 11 identifiable asset, portion or amount, any limited interest or 12 estate or any property or interest derived through right of 13 survivorship. A powerholder, as that term is defined in Section 14 102 of the Uniform Powers of Appointment Act, ~~power (as defined~~ 15 in "~~An Act Concerning Termination of Powers~~", approved May 25, 16 1943, as amended) with respect to property shall be deemed to 17 be a holder of an interest in such property.

18 The representative of a decedent or ward may disclaim on 19 behalf of the decedent or ward with leave of court. The court 20 may approve the disclaimer by a representative of a decedent if 21 it finds that the disclaimer benefits the estate as a whole and 22 those interested in the estate generally even if the disclaimer
23 alters the distribution of the property, part or interest
24 disclaimed. The court may approve the disclaimer by a

1 representative of a ward if it finds that it benefits those 2 interested in the estate generally and is not materially 3 detrimental to the interests of the ward. A disclaimer by a 4 representative of a decedent or ward may be made without leave
5 of court if a will or other instrument signed by the decedent 6 or ward designating the representative specifically authorizes 7 the representative to disclaim without court approval.

8 The right to disclaim granted by this Section exists 9 irrespective of any limitation on the interest of the 10 disclaimant in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar 11 restriction.

12 (b) Form of Disclaimer. The disclaimer shall (1) describe 13 the property or part or interest disclaimed, (2) be signed by 14 the disclaimant or his representative and (3) declare the 15 disclaimer and the extent thereof.

16 (c) Delivery of Disclaimer. The disclaimer shall be 17 delivered to the transferor or donor or his representative, or 18 to the trustee or other person who has legal title to the 19 property, part or interest disclaimed, or, if none of the 20 foregoing is readily determinable, shall be either delivered to 21 a person having possession of the property, part or interest or 22 who is entitled thereto by reason of the disclaimer, or filed
23 or recorded as hereinafter provided. In the case of an interest 24 passing by reason of the death of any person, an executed 25 counterpart of the disclaimer may be filed with the clerk of 26 the circuit court in the county in which the estate of the

1 decedent is administered, or, if administration has not been 2 commenced, in which it could be commenced. If an interest in 3 real property is disclaimed, an executed counterpart of the 4 disclaimer may be recorded in the office of the recorder in the 5 county in which the real estate lies, or, if the title to the 6 real estate is registered under "An Act concerning land 7 titles", approved May 1, 1897, as amended, may be filed in the 8 office of the registrar of titles of such county.

9 (d) Effect of Disclaimer. Unless expressly provided 10 otherwise in an instrument transferring the property or 11 creating the interest disclaimed, the property, part or 12 interest disclaimed shall descend or be distributed (1) if a 13 present interest (a) in the case of a transfer by reason of the 14 death of any person, as if the disclaimant had predeceased the 15 decedent; (b) in the case of a transfer by revocable instrument 16 or contract, as if the disclaimant had predeceased the date the 17 maker no longer has the power to transfer to himself or another 18 the entire legal and equitable ownership of the property or 19 interest; or (c) in the case of any other inter vivos transfer, 20 as if the disclaimant had predeceased the date of the transfer; 21 and (2) if a future interest, as if the disclaimant had 22 predeceased the event that ~~which~~ determines that the taker of 23 the property or interest has become finally ascertained and his 24 interest has become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and 25 quantity; and in each case the disclaimer shall relate back to 26 such date for all purposes.

1 A disclaimer of property or an interest in property shall 2 not preclude any disclaimant from receiving the same property 3 in another capacity or from receiving other interests in the 4 property to which the disclaimer relates.

5 Unless expressly provided otherwise in an instrument
6 transferring the property or creating the interest disclaimed, 7 a future interest limited to take effect at or after the 8 termination of the estate or interest disclaimed shall 9 accelerate and take effect in possession and enjoyment to the 10 same extent as if the disclaimant had died before the date to 11 which the disclaimer relates back.

12 A disclaimer made pursuant to this Section shall be 13 irrevocable and shall be binding upon the disclaimant and all 14 persons claiming by, through or under the disclaimant.

15 (e) Waiver and Bar. The right to disclaim property or a 16 part thereof or an interest therein shall be barred by (1) a 17 judicial sale of the property, part or interest before the 18 disclaimer is effected; (2) an assignment, conveyance, 19 encumbrance, pledge, sale or other transfer of the property, 20 part or interest, or a contract therefor, by the disclaimant or 21 his representative; (3) a written waiver of the right to 22 disclaim; or (4) an acceptance of the property, part or 23 interest by the disclaimant or his representative. Any person 24 may presume, in the absence of actual knowledge to the 25 contrary, that a disclaimer delivered or filed as provided in 26 this Section is a valid disclaimer that ~~which~~ is not barred by

1 the preceding provisions of this paragraph.

2 A written waiver of the right to disclaim may be made by 3 any person or his representative and an executed counterpart of 4 a waiver of the right to disclaim may be recorded or filed, all 5 in the same manner as provided in this Section with respect to 6 a disclaimer.

7 In every case, acceptance must be affirmatively proved in 8 order to constitute a bar to a disclaimer. An acceptance of 9 property or an interest in property shall include the taking of 10 possession, the acceptance of delivery or the receipt of 11 benefits of the property or interest; except that (1) in the 12 case of an interest in joint tenancy with right of survivorship 13 such acceptance shall extend only to the fractional share of 14 such property or interest determined by dividing the number one 15 by the number of joint tenants, and (2) in the case of a ward, 16 such acceptance shall extend only to property actually received 17 by or on behalf of the ward or his representative during his 18 minority or incapacity. The mere lapse of time or creation of 19 an interest, in joint tenancy with right of survivorship or 20 otherwise, with or without knowledge of the interest on the 21 part of the disclaimant, shall not constitute acceptance for 22 purposes of this Section.

23 This Section does not abridge the right of any person to 24 assign, convey, release, renounce or disclaim any property or 25 interest therein arising under any other statute or that ~~which~~ 26 arose under prior law.

1 Any interest in real or personal property that ~~which~~ exists 2 on or after the effective date of this Section may be 3 disclaimed after that date in the manner provided herein, but 4 no interest that ~~which~~ has arisen prior to that date in any 5 person other than the disclaimant shall be destroyed or 6 diminished by any action of the disclaimant taken pursuant to 7 this Section.
