

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Probate Act of 1975 is amended by changing
5 Sections 11-1, 11-5, 11-5.3, 11-5.4, 11-8, 11-8.1, and 11-13.1 6 as follows:

7 (755 ILCS 5/11-1) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 11-1)

8 Sec. 11-1. Definitions. As used in this Article: ~~Minor~~ 9 ~~defined.~~

10 "Administrative separation" means a parent's, legal 11 guardian's, legal custodian's, or primary caretaker's: (1) 12 arrest, detention, incarceration, removal, or deportation in 13 connection with federal immigration enforcement; or (2)
14 receipt of official communication by federal, State, or local 15 authorities regarding immigration enforcement that gives 16 reasonable notice that care and supervision of the child by the 17 parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, or primary caretaker 18 will be interrupted or cannot be provided.

19 "Minor" means ~~A minor~~ is a person who has not attained the 20 age of 18 years. A person who has attained the age of 18 years
21 is of legal age for all purposes except as otherwise provided 22 in the Illinois Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

1 (755 ILCS 5/11-5) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 11-5)

2 Sec. 11-5. Appointment of guardian.

3 (a) Upon the filing of a petition for the appointment of a 4 guardian or on its own motion, the court may appoint a guardian 5 of the estate or of both the person and estate, of a minor, or 6 may appoint a guardian of the person only of a minor or minors, 7 as the court finds to be in the best interest of the minor or 8 minors.

9 (a-1) A parent, adoptive parent or adjudicated parent, 10 whose parental rights have not been terminated, may designate 11 in any writing, including a will, a person qualified to act 12 under Section 11-3 to be appointed as guardian of the person or 13 estate, or both, of an unmarried minor or of a child likely to 14 be born. A parent, adoptive parent or adjudicated parent, whose 15 parental rights have not been terminated, or a guardian or a 16 standby guardian of an unmarried minor or of a child likely to 17 be born may designate in any writing, including a will, a 18 person qualified to act under Section 11-3 to be appointed as 19 successor guardian of the minor's person or estate, or both.
20 The designation must be witnessed by 2 or more credible 21 witnesses at least 18 years of age, neither of whom is the 22 person designated as the guardian. The designation may be 23 proved by any competent evidence. If the designation is 24 executed and attested in the same manner as a will, it shall 25 have prima facie validity. The designation of a guardian or

1 successor guardian does not affect the rights of the other 2 parent in the minor.

3 (b) The court lacks jurisdiction to proceed on a petition 4 for the appointment of a guardian of a minor if it finds that 5 (i) the minor has a living parent, adoptive parent or 6 adjudicated parent, whose parental rights have not been 7 terminated, whose whereabouts are known, and who is willing and 8 able to make and carry out day-to-day child care decisions
9 concerning the minor, unless: (1) the parent or parents
10 voluntarily relinquished physical custody of the minor; (2)
11 after receiving notice of the hearing under Section 11-10.1, 12 the parent or parents fail to object to the appointment at the 13 hearing on the petition; ~~or~~ (3) the parent or parents consent 14 to the appointment as evidenced by a written document that has 15 been notarized and dated, or by a personal appearance and 16 consent in open court; or (4) the parent or parents, due to an 17 administrative separation, are unable to give consent to the 18 appointment in person or by a notarized, written document as 19 evidenced by a sworn affidavit submitted by the petitioner
20 describing the parent's or parents' inability to receive notice
21 or give consent; or (ii) there is a guardian for the minor 22 appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction. There shall be 23 a rebuttable presumption that a parent of a minor is willing 24 and able to make and carry out day-to-day child care decisions
25 concerning the minor, but the presumption may be rebutted by a 26 preponderance of the evidence. If a short-term guardian has

1 been appointed for the minor prior to the filing of the 2 petition and the petitioner for guardianship is not the 3 short-term guardian, there shall be a rebuttable presumption 4 that it is in the best interest of the minor to remain in the 5 care of the short-term guardian. The petitioner shall have the 6 burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that it is 7 not in the child's best interest to remain with the short-term 8 guardian.

9 (b-1) If the court finds the appointment of a guardian of 10 the minor to be in the best interest of the minor, and if a 11 standby guardian has previously been appointed for the minor
12 under Section 11-5.3, the court shall appoint the standby 13 guardian as the guardian of the person or estate, or both, of 14 the minor unless the court finds, upon good cause shown, that 15 the appointment would no longer be in the best interest of the 16 minor.

17 (c) If the minor is 14 years of age or more, the minor may 18 nominate the guardian of the minor's person and estate, subject 19 to approval of the court. If the minor's nominee is not 20 approved by the court or if, after notice to the minor, the 21 minor fails to nominate a guardian of the minor's person or 22 estate, the court may appoint the guardian without nomination.

23 (d) The court shall not appoint as guardian of the person 24 of the minor any person whom the court has determined had 25 caused or substantially contributed to the minor becoming a 26 neglected or abused minor as defined in the Juvenile Court Act

1 of 1987, unless 2 years have elapsed since the last proven 2 incident of abuse or neglect and the court determines that 3 appointment of such person as guardian is in the best interests 4 of the minor.

5 (e) Previous statements made by the minor relating to any 6 allegations that the minor is an abused or neglected child
7 within the meaning of the Abused and Neglected Child Reporting 8 Act, or an abused or neglected minor within the meaning of the 9 Juvenile Court Act of 1987, shall be admissible in evidence in 10 a hearing concerning appointment of a guardian of the person or 11 estate of the minor. No such statement, however, if 12 uncorroborated and not subject to cross-examination, shall be 13 sufficient in itself to support a finding of abuse or neglect.

15 (755 ILCS 5/11-5.3)

16 Sec. 11-5.3. Appointment of standby guardian.

17 (a) A parent, adoptive parent, or adjudicated parent whose 18 parental rights have not been terminated, or the guardian of 19 the person of a minor may designate in any writing, including a 20 will, a person qualified to act under Section 11-3 to be 21 appointed as standby guardian of the person or estate, or both, 22 of an unmarried minor or of a child likely to be born. A 23 parent, adoptive parent, or adjudicated parent whose parental 24 rights have not been terminated, or the guardian of the person 25 of a minor or a standby guardian of an unmarried minor or of a

1 child likely to be born may designate in any writing, including 2 a will, a person qualified to act under Section 11-3 to be 3 appointed as successor standby guardian of the minor's person 4 or estate, or both. The designation must be witnessed by 2 or 5 more credible witnesses at least 18 years of age, neither of 6 whom is the person designated as the standby guardian. The 7 designation may be proved by any competent evidence. If the 8 designation is executed and attested in the same manner as a 9 will, it shall have prima facie validity. The designation of a 10 standby guardian or successor standby guardian does not affect 11 the rights of the other parent in the minor.

12 (b) Upon the filing of a petition for the appointment of a 13 standby guardian, the court may appoint a standby guardian of 14 the person or estate, or both, of a minor as the court finds to 15 be in the best interest of the minor.

16 (c) The court lacks jurisdiction to proceed on a petition 17 for the appointment of a standby guardian of a minor if the 18 minor has a living parent, adoptive parent or adjudicated 19 parent, whose parental rights have not been terminated, whose 20 whereabouts are known, and who is willing and able to make and 21 carry out day-to-day child care decisions concerning the minor, 22 unless the parent or parents: (1) consent to the appointment;
23 (2) ~~or~~ after receiving notice of the hearing under Section 24 11-10.1, fail to object to the appointment at the hearing on 25 the petition; or (3) due to an administrative separation, are 26 unable to give consent to the appointment in person or by a

1 notarized, written document as evidenced by a sworn affidavit
2 submitted by the petitioner describing the parent's or parents'
3 inability to receive notice or give consent. There shall be a 4 rebuttable presumption that a parent of a minor is willing and
5 able to make and carry out day-to-day child care decisions
6 concerning the minor, but the presumption may be rebutted by a 7 preponderance of the evidence.

8 (d) The standby guardian shall take and file an oath or 9 affirmation that the standby guardian will faithfully
10 discharge the duties of the office of standby guardian 11 according to law, and shall file in and have approved by the 12 court a bond binding the standby guardian so to do, but shall 13 not be required to file a bond until the standby guardian
14 assumes all duties as guardian of the minor under Section 15 11-13.1.

16 (e) The designation of a standby guardian may, but need 17 not, be in the following form:

18 DESIGNATION OF STANDBY GUARDIAN

19 [IT IS IMPORTANT TO READ THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS:

20 A standby guardian is someone who has been appointed by the 21 court as the person who will act as guardian of the child when 22 the child's parents or the guardian of the person of the child 23 die or are no longer willing or able to make and carry out 24 day-to-day child care decisions concerning the child. By

1 properly completing this form, a parent or the guardian of the 2 person of the child is naming the person that the parent or the 3 guardian wants to be appointed as the standby guardian of the 4 child or children. Both parents of a child may join together 5 and co-sign this form. Signing the form does not appoint the 6 standby guardian; to be appointed, a petition must be filed in 7 and approved by the court.]

8 1. Parent (or guardian) and Children. I, (insert name 9 of designating parent or guardian), currently residing at 10 (insert address of designating parent or guardian), am a 11 parent (or the guardian of the person) of the following 12 child or children (or of a child likely to be born): 13 (insert name and date of birth of each child, or insert the 14 words "not yet born" to designate a standby guardian for a 15 child likely to be born and the child's expected date of 16 birth).

17 2. Standby Guardian. I hereby designate the following 18 person to be appointed as standby guardian for the child or 19 children listed above (insert name and address of person 20 designated).

21 3. Successor Standby Guardian. If the person named in 22 item 2 above cannot or will not act as standby guardian, I
23 designate the following person to be appointed as successor 24 standby guardian for the child or children: (insert name 25 and address of person designated).

26 4. Date and Signature. This designation is made this

1 (insert day) day of (insert month and year).

2 Signed: (designating parent or guardian)

3 5. Witnesses. I saw the parent (or the guardian of the 4 person of the child) sign this designation or the parent 5 (or the guardian of the person of the child) told me that 6 (he or she) signed this designation. Then I signed the 7 designation as a witness in the presence of the parent (or 8 the guardian). I am not designated in this instrument to 9 act as a standby guardian for the child or children.
10 (insert space for names, addresses, and signatures of 2 11 witnesses).

13 (755 ILCS 5/11-5.4)

14 Sec. 11-5.4. Short-term guardian.

15 (a) A parent, adoptive parent, or adjudicated parent whose 16 parental rights have not been terminated, or the guardian of 17 the person of a minor may appoint in writing, without court 18 approval, a short-term guardian of an unmarried minor or a 19 child likely to be born. The written instrument appointing a 20 short-term guardian shall be dated and shall identify the 21 appointing parent or guardian, the minor, and the person
22 appointed to be the short-term guardian. The written instrument 23 shall be signed by, or at the direction of, the appointing 24 parent in the presence of at least 2 credible witnesses at 25 least 18 years of age, neither of whom is the person appointed

1 as the short-term guardian. The person appointed as the 2 short-term guardian shall also sign the written instrument, but 3 need not sign at the same time as the appointing parent.

4 (b) A parent or guardian shall not appoint a short-term
5 guardian of a minor if the minor has another living parent, 6 adoptive parent or adjudicated parent, whose parental rights 7 have not been terminated, whose whereabouts are known, and who 8 is willing and able to make and carry out day-to-day child care
9 decisions concerning the minor, unless the nonappointing 10 parent consents to the appointment by signing the written 11 instrument of appointment.

12 (c) The appointment of the short-term guardian is effective 13 immediately upon the date the written instrument is executed, 14 unless the written instrument provides for the appointment to 15 become effective upon a later specified date or event. Except 16 as provided in subsection (e-5) or (e-10) of this Section, the 17 short-term guardian shall have authority to act as guardian of 18 the minor as provided in Section 11-13.2 for a period of 365 19 days from the date the appointment is effective, unless the 20 written instrument provides for the appointment to terminate 21 upon a different specified date or event as permitted by this 22 Section. Only one written instrument appointing a short-term 23 guardian may be in force at any given time.

24 (d) Every appointment of a short-term guardian may be 25 amended or revoked by the appointing parent or by the 26 appointing guardian of the person of the minor at any time and

1 in any manner communicated to the short-term guardian or to any 2 other person. Any person other than the short-term guardian to 3 whom a revocation or amendment is communicated or delivered 4 shall make all reasonable efforts to inform the short-term 5 guardian of that fact as promptly as possible.

6 (d-5) Except as provided in subsection (e-5) or (e-10), a 7 short-term guardian appointed as the result of an 8 administrative separation may renew a short-term guardianship 9 for an additional 365 days from the date the initial 10 appointment expires if the administrative separation is still 11 in effect, unless the written instrument provides for the 12 appointment to terminate upon a different date or event as 13 permitted by this Section.

14 (e) The appointment of a short-term guardian or successor 15 short-term guardian does not affect the rights of the other 16 parent in the minor. The short-term guardian appointment does 17 not constitute consent for court appointment of a guardian.

18 (e-5) Any time after the appointment of a temporary 19 custodian under Section 2-10, 3-12, 4-9, 5-410, or 5-501 of the 20 Juvenile Court Act of 1987, and after notice to all parties, 21 including the short-term guardian, as required by the Juvenile 22 Court Act of 1987, a court may vacate any short-term
23 guardianship for the minor appointed under this Section, 24 provided the vacation is consistent with the minor's best 25 interests as determined using the factors listed in paragraph 26 (4.05) of Section 1-3 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987.

1 (e-10) A parent or guardian who is a member of the Armed 2 Forces of the United States, including any reserve component 3 thereof, or the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and 4 Atmospheric Administration or the Public Health Service of the 5 United States Department of Health and Human Services detailed 6 by proper authority for duty with the Armed Forces of the 7 United States, or who is required to enter or serve in the 8 active military service of the United States under a call or 9 order of the President of the United States or to serve on 10 State active duty, may appoint a short-term guardian for a 11 period of longer than 365 days if on active duty service. The 12 writing appointing the short-term guardian under this 13 subsection shall include the dates of the parent's or 14 guardian's active duty service, and the appointment may not 15 exceed the term of active duty plus 30 days.

16 (f) The written instrument appointing a short-term 17 guardian may, but need not, be in the following form:

18 APPOINTMENT OF SHORT-TERM GUARDIAN

19 [IT IS IMPORTANT TO READ THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS:

20 By properly completing this form, a parent or the guardian
21 of the person of the child is appointing a guardian of a child 22 of the parent (or a minor ward of the guardian, as the case may 23 be) for a period of up to 365 days. A separate form should be 24 completed for each child. The person appointed as the guardian

1 must sign the form, but need not do so at the same time as the 2 parent or parents or guardian.

3 If you are a parent or guardian who is a member of the 4 Armed Forces of the United States, including any reserve 5 component thereof, or the commissioned corps of the National 6 Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration or the Public Health 7 Service of the United States Department of Health and Human 8 Services detailed by proper authority for duty with the Armed 9 Forces of the United States, or who is required to enter or 10 serve in the active military service of the United States under 11 a call or order of the President of the United States or to 12 serve on State active duty, you may appoint a short-term

14 service plus 30 days. When executing this form, include the 15 date your active duty service is scheduled to begin in part 3 16 and the date your active duty service is scheduled to end in 17 part 4.

18 This form may not be used to appoint a guardian if there is 19 a guardian already appointed for the child, except that if a 20 guardian of the person of the child has been appointed, that 21 guardian may use this form to appoint a short-term guardian.
22 Both living parents of a child may together appoint a guardian 23 of the child, or the guardian of the person of the child may 24 appoint a guardian of the child, for a period of up to 365 days 25 through the use of this form. If the short-term guardian is 26 appointed by both living parents of the child, the parents need
