Amends the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act. Modifies the definition of "representation case" to include matters before units of local government. Provides that no legislator or employee of a governmental entity may accept or participate in any way in any representation case if the State or unit of local government is an adverse party or if the result is an adverse effect on State or local revenue, State or local finances, or the health, safety, welfare, or relative tax burden of any State resident. Prohibits (rather than allows) participation in a representation case by a person with whom the legislator maintains a close economic association. Provides that no legislator or employee of a governmental entity may derive any income, compensation, or other tangible benefit from providing opinion evidence as an expert against the interests of the State or a unit of local government in any judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding before any administrative agency or court. Provides that a legislator shall officially recuse himself or herself, including a written explanation of the recusal, from any legislative matter in which the legislator or his or her spouse or immediately family member has a financial interest. Makes conforming and other changes.

1 AN ACT concerning government.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Illinois Governmental Ethics Act is amended
5 by changing Sections 1-113, 2-104, and 3A-35 and by adding 6 Sections 3-108 and 3-109 as follows:

7 (5 ILCS 420/1-113) (from Ch. 127, par. 601-113)

8 Sec. 1-113. "Representation case" means the professional 9 representation of any person, client or principal, with or 10 without compensation, in any matter before any State agency or 11 unit of local government where the action or non-action of the 12 State agency or unit of local government involves the exercise
13 of ~~substantial~~ discretion. However, the term shall not include
14 inquiries for information or other services rendered in a
15 legislative capacity on behalf of a constituent or other member
16 of the public.

18 (5 ILCS 420/2-104) (from Ch. 127, par. 602-104)

19 Sec. 2-104. No legislator may accept or participate in any 20 way in any representation case, as that term is defined in 21 Section 1-113, if the State or unit of local government is an 22 adverse party or if the result is an adverse effect on State or

1 local revenue, State or local finances, or the health, safety,
2 welfare, or relative tax burden of any State resident before
3 ~~(1) the Court of Claims of this State or (2) before the~~ 4 ~~Illinois Workers' Compensation Commission, when the State of~~ 5 ~~Illinois is the respondent.~~

6 This Section prohibits ~~does not prohibit~~ participation in 7 such a representation case by a person with whom the legislator
8 maintains a close economic association, ~~unless the fact of that~~ 9 ~~association is used to influence or attempt to influence the~~ 10 ~~State agency in the rendering of its decision.~~

11 A violation of this Section is a Class A misdemeanor.

13 (5 ILCS 420/3-108 new)

14 Sec. 3-108. Testimony against government interests. No
15 legislator may derive any income, compensation, or other
16 tangible benefit from providing opinion evidence as an expert
17 against the interests of the State or a unit of local
18 government in any judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding before
19 any administrative agency or court.

20 (5 ILCS 420/3-109 new)

21 Sec. 3-109. Legislator recusal. Notwithstanding any 22 provision of law to the contrary, a legislator shall officially 23 recuse himself or herself, including a written explanation of 24 the recusal, from any legislative matter in which the

1 legislator or his or her spouse or immediately family member
2 has a financial interest.

3 (5 ILCS 420/3A-35)

4 Sec. 3A-35. Conflicts of interests.

5 (a) In addition to the provisions of subsection (a) of 6 Section 50-13 of the Illinois Procurement Code, it is unlawful 7 for an appointed member of a board, commission, authority, or 8 task force authorized or created by State law or by executive 9 order of the Governor, the spouse of the appointee, or an 10 immediate family member of the appointee living in the 11 appointee's residence to have or acquire a contract or have or 12 acquire a direct pecuniary interest in a contract with the 13 State that relates to the board, commission, authority, or task
14 force of which he or she is an appointee during and for one
15 year after the conclusion of the person's term of office.

16 (b) If (i) a person subject to subsection (a) is entitled
17 to receive more than 7 1/2% of the total distributable income
18 of a partnership, association, corporation, or other business
19 entity or (ii) a person subject to subsection (a) together with 20 his or her spouse and immediate family members living in that 21 person's residence are entitled to receive more than 15%, in 22 the aggregate, of the total distributable income of a
23 partnership, association, corporation, or other business
24 entity then it is unlawful for that partnership, association,
25 corporation, or other business entity to have or acquire a

1 contract or a direct pecuniary interest in a contract
2 prohibited by subsection (a) during and for one year after the 3 conclusion of the person's term of office.

4 (c) No employee of a governmental entity subject to the 5 provisions of this Act may represent, or derive any income, 6 compensation, or other tangible benefit from the 7 representation of, any person in any judicial, quasi-judicial,
8 or other proceeding before any administrative agency or court
9 in which the State or unit of local government is an adverse 10 party, or in any such proceeding that may result in an adverse 11 effect on State or local revenue, State or local finances, or 12 the health, safety, welfare, or relative tax burden of any 13 State resident.

14 (d) No employee of a governmental entity subject to the 15 provisions of this Act may derive any income, compensation, or 16 other tangible benefit from providing opinion evidence as an 17 expert against the interests of the State or a unit of local
18 government in any judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding before
19 any administrative agency or court.
