

1 AN ACT concerning business.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business
5 Practices Act is amended by changing Section 2000 as follows:

6 (815 ILCS 505/2000)

7 Sec. 2000. Criminal record information.

8 (a) It is an unlawful practice for any person engaged in 9 publishing or otherwise disseminating criminal record
10 information through a print or electronic medium to solicit or 11 accept the payment of a fee or other consideration to remove,
12 correct, or modify said criminal record information.

13 (b) For the purposes of this Section, "criminal record 14 information" includes any and all of the following:

15 (1) descriptions or notations of any arrests, any 16 formal criminal charges, and the disposition of those 17 criminal charges, including, but not limited to, any 18 information made available under Section 4a of the State
19 Records Act or Section 3b of the Local Records Act;

20 (2) photographs of the person taken pursuant to an 21 arrest or other involvement in the criminal justice system;
22 or

23 (3) personal identifying information, including a

1 person's name, address, date of birth, photograph, and 2 social security number or other government-issued
3 identification number.

4 (c) A person or entity that publishes or otherwise
5 disseminates for profit a person's criminal record information
6 on a publicly available Internet website or in any other 7 publication or criminal history report that charges a fee for 8 removal or correction of the information must correct any 9 errors in the individual's criminal history information within 10 5 business days after notification of an error. Failure to 11 correct an error in the individual's criminal record
12 information constitutes an unlawful practice within the 13 meaning of this Act.

14 (d) A person whose criminal record information is published
15 for profit on a publicly available Internet website or in any 16 other publication that charges a fee for removal or correction
17 of the information may demand the publisher to correct the 18 information if the subject of the information, or his or her 19 representative, sends a letter, via certified mail, to the 20 publishing entity demanding the information be corrected and 21 providing documentation of the correct information.

22 (e) Failure by a for-profit publishing entity that 23 publishes on a publicly available Internet website or in any 24 other publication or criminal history report that charges a fee 25 for removal or correction of the information to correct the 26 person's published criminal record information within 5

1 business days after receipt of the notice, demand for 2 correction, and the provision of correct information,
3 constitutes an unlawful and deceptive practice within the 4 meaning of this Act. In addition to any other remedy available
5 under this Act, a person who has been injured by a violation of 6 this Section is entitled to the damages of $100 per day, plus 7 attorney's fees, for the publisher's failure to correct the 8 criminal record information.

9 (f) This Section does not apply to a play, book, magazine,
10 newspaper, musical, composition, visual work, work of art,
11 audiovisual work, radio, motion picture, or television
12 program, or a dramatic, literary, or musical work.

13 (g) This Section does not apply to a news medium or 14 reporter as defined in Section 8-902 of the Code of Civil 15 Procedure.

16 (h) This Section does not apply to the Illinois State
17 Police.

18 (i) This Section does not apply to a consumer reporting
19 agency as defined under 15 U.S.C. 1681a(f).

20 (j) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to impose
21 liability on an interactive computer service, as defined in 47
22 U.S.C. 230(f)(2), for content provided by another person.
