

1 AN ACT concerning criminal law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Criminal Code of 2012 is amended by 5 changing Section 19-2 as follows:

6 (720 ILCS 5/19-2) (from Ch. 38, par. 19-2)

7 Sec. 19-2. Possession of burglary tools.

8 (a) A person commits possession of burglary tools when he 9 or she possesses any key, tool, instrument, device, or any 10 explosive, suitable for use in breaking into a building,
11 housetrailer, watercraft, aircraft, motor vehicle, railroad 12 car, or any depository designed for the safekeeping of 13 property, or any part thereof, with intent to enter that place
14 and with intent to commit therein a felony or theft. The trier 15 of fact may infer from the possession of a key designed for 16 lock bumping an intent to commit a felony or theft; however,
17 this inference does not apply to any peace officer or other 18 employee of a law enforcement agency, or to any person or 19 agency licensed under the Private Detective, Private Alarm, 20 Private Security, Fingerprint Vendor, and Locksmith Act of 21 2004. For the purposes of this Section, "lock bumping" means a 22 lock picking technique for opening a pin tumbler lock using a 23 specially-crafted bumpkey.

1       (a-5) A person also commits possession of burglary tools
2 when he or she, knowingly and with the intent to enter the 3 motor vehicle and with the intent to commit therein a felony or 4 theft, possesses a device designed to:

5           (1) unlock or start a motor vehicle without the use or 6 possession of the key to the motor vehicle; or

7           (2) capture or duplicate a signal from the key fob of a 8 motor vehicle to unlock or start the motor vehicle without 9 the use or possession of the key to the motor vehicle.

10       (b) Sentence. Possession of burglary tools is a Class 4
11 felony.
