4 (35 ILCS 200/4-20 rep.)

5 Section 5. The Property Tax Code is amended by repealing
6 Section 4-20.

7 Section 10. The Property Tax Code is amended by changing
8 Section 2-55 as follows:

9 (35 ILCS 200/2-55)

10 Sec. 2-55. Role as ex-officio deputy assessors. In all
11 townships in counties of 3,000,000 or more, in which township
12 assessors are elected, the township assessors shall be 13 ex-officio deputy assessors to make the assessments in the 14 townships wherein they are elected but those ex-officio deputy 15 assessors shall be under the direction and control of the 16 county assessor in the same manner as other deputy assessors,
17 subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by the county
18 assessor and the board of appeals. The compensation and 19 expenses of the township assessors shall be determined and 20 paid as provided in Sections 2-70, 2-75, 2-80, 4-10, and 4-15
21 ~~and 4-20~~. If in any township the ex-officio deputy assessor is 22 not able, within the time allowed by law or set by rules and

1 regulations prescribed by the county assessor and the board of 2 appeals, to make the assessment in the township, any 3 additional deputy assessor or deputy assessors required to 4 make the assessment shall be residents and legal voters of the 5 township and may be appointed by the county assessor. For 6 failure to complete the assessment and return the assessment
7 books within the time prescribed by law or set by the rules and 8 regulations of the county assessor and board of appeals, any 9 township assessor may be removed from office by the order of 10 the county assessor. All clerks and deputies shall take and 11 subscribe an oath of office to honestly and faithfully perform
12 all the duties of their respective offices under the direction 13 of the county assessor. The county assessor, the clerks and 14 deputy assessors, may administer oaths authorized by law to be 15 administered by assessors. The number and compensation of the 16 clerks and the deputies (other than the ex-officio deputies)
17 shall be determined annually by the county board and shall be 18 paid from the county treasury.
