3 March 31, 1927 on a farm near Yuma, Arizona; in the late 1930s,

5 California; he quit school after the 8th grade in order to help 6 support his family by working in the fields full time; and

7 WHEREAS, From a young age, César Chávez encountered
8 wretched migrant camps, corrupt labor contractors, meager
9 wages for backbreaking work, and bitter racism; he later
10 helped improve those conditions for millions of workers across 11 the U.S.; and

12 WHEREAS, César Chávez was introduced to labor organizing 13 in 1952 when community organizer Fred Ross recruited him to

8 clean drinking water, hand washing stations, and protective 9 clothing to prevent pesticide exposure; the contracts were 10 signed in 1966 but were followed by more years of conflict; in 11 1968, César Chávez began a fast that lasted 25 days to protest
12 the increasing advocacy of violence within the union; on July 13 29, 1970, 26 Delano-area growers formally signed contracts
14 recognizing the UFW, bringing peace to the vineyard; and

15 WHEREAS, After a hard-fought battle with the California
16 state government and various growers, the United Farm Workers
17 of America and César Chávez managed to pass the landmark
18 Agricultural Labor Relations Act of 1975, which guaranteed
19 California farm workers the right to organize and bargain with 20 their employers; and

21 WHEREAS, César Chávez passed away in his sleep on April 22 23, 1933 after devoting his life to making a change for the 23 working class by fighting for equal pay and better working

1 conditions; and

2 WHEREAS, On August 8 1994, César Chávez posthumously
3 received a Presidential Medal of Freedom from President Bill
4 Clinton in recognition of the formidable and often violent 5 oppositions he faced with dignity and nonviolence; and

7 continues its vigilant protection of its many union members;
8 the UFW remains strong, a fact that would certainly make César
