1 AN ACT concerning criminal law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 1. Short title. This Act may be cited as the Faith
5 Behind Bars Act.

6 Section 5. Findings and declaration of policy.

7 (a) The General Assembly hereby finds, determines, and 8 declares the following that:

9 (1) Chaplains play a key role in helping persons
10 committed to correctional institutions and facilities
11 transform their understanding of responsibility, choices,
12 and possibilities and that behavior only changes when 13 hearts change.

14 (2) Without a spiritual-based transformation there is 15 little hope for sincere, lasting change in any of us.
16 Without a faith-based after-care living situation an 17 ex-offender has little chance of succeeding on the street.

18 (3) That the chaplain's personal contact is crucial. A 19 chaplain ministers through relationship. Being accepting,
20 nonjudgmental, and working toward self-esteem issues is 21 important.

22 (4) According to a Pew Research Center 2012 Study,
23 Religion in Prisons, 50 state survey of Prison Chaplains,

1 about 71% of chaplains identify as Protestants, 13% as 2 Catholics, 7% as Muslims, and the remainder identify with 3 other religions, including Judaism and Native American
4 spirituality. A plurality of the chaplains 44% consider
5 their faith to be part of the evangelical Protestant
6 tradition while 15% come from a mainline Protestant
7 tradition and 7% are from a historically black Protestant
8 tradition.

9 (5) A Pew Forum survey ranked the top 3 activities of 10 chaplains that are most important, personally leading 11 worship services, religious instruction sessions, or 12 spiritual counseling sessions. About 75% of the chaplains
13 surveyed consider this to be among their most important
14 functions, including 57% who ranked it as their number one 15 priority.

16 (6) The Pew Forum survey found that most prison
17 chaplains say there are too few religious volunteers to 18 meet the needs of all inmates. About 69% of prison
19 chaplains surveyed say there are some religious groups for 20 which there are too few volunteers in the prisons where 21 they work.

22 (7) A 2020 Audit of federal prisons found that the 23 Federal Bureau of Prisons chaplaincy services departments
24 are not staffed according to the Federal Bureau of Prisons
25 guidelines at many institutions. The Federal Bureau of 26 Prisons current policy states that, at a minimum, each

1 chaplaincy services department should be staffed with at 2 least one chaplain and one religious services assistant.
3 This standard translates to a minimum need for 122
4 chaplains and 122 religious services assistants throughout
5 the Federal Bureau of Prisons. However, as of March 2020,
6 nearly half of the Federal Bureau of Prisons institutions
7 had no religious services assistant, 3 institutions had no
8 chaplain at all, 21 institutions employed a single 9 chaplain, and 2 institutions had only recently filled
10 their only chaplain position after long vacancies. In 11 addition to the minimum staffing level, Federal Bureau of 12 Prisons guidelines also suggest that institutions
13 supplement the minimum requirement with additional 14 chaplains based on inmate population (one chaplain per 500 15 inmates) and specific characteristics of the institution,
16 such as being a major medical center, having 2 or more
17 satellite facilities, or the inclusion of a special unit,
18 each of which should have one additional chaplain.
19 Therefore, the Federal Bureau of Prisons' chaplaincy
20 services staffing and supplemental guidelines suggest that 21 a fully staffed chaplaincy would include 357 chaplains and 22 122 religious services assistants. As of March 2020, the 23 Federal Bureau of Prisons' chaplaincy staff included only 24 236 chaplains and 64 religious services assistants, which 25 is approximately 30% below what the Federal Bureau of 26 Prisons' guidelines consider to be a fully staffed

1 chaplaincy for the inmate population. The 2020 audit of 2 federal prisons reports that some Federal Bureau of 3 Prisons institutions were without any chaplaincy staff.
4 During the audit, there was a peak of at least 3
5 institutions that were without a chaplain. The audit found
6 that critical tasks may not be accomplished, including 7 purchasing and reviewing library materials and conducting 8 certain faith-based programming.

9 (b) It is the intent of the General Assembly to rectify in 10 this State the deficiencies that occur in prison ministries of 11 other states and the federal prison system by enacting the 12 Faith Behind Bars Act.

2 (j) In determining whether an action would result in an 3 undue burden under this Section, factors to be considered by 4 the warden or chief administrative officer of the correctional 5 institution or facility include:

6 (1) the nature and cost of the action needed under 7 this Section;
