If an adult withdraws his or her consent for an assessment of the reported incident or withdraws his or her consent for services and refuses to accept such services, the services shall not be provided.
- (b) If it reasonably appears to the Department or other agency designated under this Act that a person is an eligible adult and lacks the capacity to consent to an assessment, or eligibility screen, of a reported incident of suspected abuse, abandonment, neglect, financial exploitation, or self-neglect or to necessary services, the Department or other agency shall take appropriate action necessary to ameliorate risk to the eligible adult if there is a threat of ongoing harm or another emergency exists. Once the emergent risk has been mitigated, the The Department or the provider other agency shall be authorized to seek the appointment of a temporary quardian as provided in Article XIa of the Probate Act of 1975 or surrogate decision-maker for the purpose of consenting to an assessment or eligibility screen of the reported incident and such services, together with an order for an evaluation of the physical, psychological, eligible adult's and condition and decisional capacity.

(d) If an emergency exists and the Department or other agency designated under this Act reasonably believes that a person is an eligible adult and lacks the capacity to consent to necessary services, the Department or other agency may request an ex parte order from the circuit court of the county in which the petitioner or respondent resides or in which the alleged abuse, abandonment, neglect, financial exploitation, or self-neglect occurred, authorizing an assessment of a report of alleged or suspected abuse, abandonment, neglect, financial exploitation, or self-neglect or the provision of necessary services, or both, including relief available under the Illinois Domestic Violence Act of 1986 in accord with established law and Department protocols, procedures, and policies. Petitions filed under this subsection shall be treated as expedited proceedings. - "lacks the capacity to consent" if qualified staff of an agency designated under this Act reasonably determine, in accordance with administrative rules promulgated by the Department, that he or she appears either (i) unable to receive and evaluate information related to the assessment or services or (ii) unable to communicate in any manner decisions related to the assessment of the reported incident or services.

- (e) Within 15 days after the entry of the ex parte emergency order, the order shall expire, or, if the need for assessment of the reported incident or services continues, the provider agency shall petition for the appointment of a guardian as provided in Article XIa of the Probate Act of 1975 for the purpose of consenting to such assessment or services or to protect the eligible adult from further harm.
 - (f) If the court enters an ex parte order under subsection

- (d) for an assessment of a reported incident of alleged or 1 suspected abuse, abandonment, neglect, financial exploitation, 2 3 or self-neglect, or for the provision of necessary services in connection with alleged or suspected self-neglect, or for 5 both, the court, as soon as is practicable thereafter, shall appoint a quardian ad litem for the eligible adult who is the 6 7 subject of the order, for the purpose of reviewing the reasonableness of the order. The guardian ad litem shall 8 9 review the order and, if the quardian ad litem reasonably 10 believes that the order is unreasonable, the quardian ad litem 11 shall file a petition with the court stating the guardian ad 12 litem's belief and requesting that the order be vacated.
