8 Sec. 2-801. Prerequisites for the maintenance of a class
9 action.

10 (a) An action may be maintained as a class action only in

21 questions affecting only individual members, and a class
22 action is superior to other available methods for the fair
23 and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters

1 pertinent to the findings include:

2 (A) the interest of members of the class in
3 individually controlling the prosecution or defense of 4 separate actions;

5 (B) the extent and nature of any litigation
6 concerning the controversy already commenced by or
7 against members of the class;

8 (C) the desirability or undesirability of 9 concentrating the litigation of the claims in the 10 particular forum; and

11 (D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in 12 the management of a class action.

13 (3) The representative parties will fairly and

16 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

12 to be maintained as a class action pursuant to subsections (b)
13 and (c).

14 (b) Determination of Class. As soon as practicable after 15 the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the 16 court shall determine by order whether it may be so maintained
17 and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the 18 class. This order may be conditional and may be amended before
19 a decision on the merits.

20 (c) ~~(b)~~ Class Action on Limited Issues and Sub-classes.
21 When appropriate, an action may be brought or maintained as a

20 makes a written finding that the nonmonetary benefits to the 21 class member outweigh the monetary loss.

22 (735 ILCS 5/2-810 new)

7 the class represented by the petitioners for fees and costs.
