1

AN ACT concerning the regulation of professions.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The Private Detective, Private Alarm, Private
Security, and Locksmith Act of 1993 is amended by changing
Section 10 as follows:

7 (225 ILCS 446/10)

(Section scheduled to be repealed on December 31, 2003) 8 Sec. 10. Legislative intent. The intent of the General 9 Assembly in enacting this statute is to regulate persons and 10 businesses licensed under this Act for the protection of the 11 public. These practices are found deelared to be practices 12 affecting the public health, safety, and welfare and subject 13 to State regulation. This Act shall be construed to best 14 15 carry out these purposes.

16 (Source: P.A. 88-363.)