

1 AN ACT in relation to criminal law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Criminal Code of 1961 is amended by 5 changing Section 20-1.1 as follows:

6 (720 ILCS 5/20-1.1) (from Ch. 38, par. 20-1.1)

7 Sec. 20-1.1. Aggravated Arson.

8 (a) A person commits aggravated arson when in the course 9 of committing arson he or she knowingly damages, partially or 10 totally, any building or structure, including any adjacent 11 building or structure, including all or any part of a school
12 building, house trailer, watercraft, motor vehicle, or 13 railroad car, and (1) he knows or reasonably should know 14 that one or more persons are present therein or (2) any 15 person suffers great bodily harm, or permanent disability or 16 disfigurement as a result of the fire or explosion or (3) a 17 fireman or policeman who is present at the scene acting in 18 the line of duty, is injured as a result of the fire or 19 explosion. For purposes of this Section, property "of 20 another" means a building or other property, whether real or 21 personal, in which a person other than the offender has an 22 interest that the offender has no authority to defeat or 23 impair, even though the offender may also have an interest in 24 the building or property; and "school building" means any 25 public or private preschool, elementary or secondary school,
26 community college, college, or university.

27 (b) Sentence. Aggravated arson is a Class X felony.
