7 Sec. 356c. Insurability of newborns.

8 (1) No policy of accident and health insurance providing 9 coverage of hospital expenses or medical expenses or both on an 10 expense incurred basis which in addition to covering the 11 insured, also covers members of the insured's immediate family, 12 shall contain any disclaimer, waiver or other limitation of 13 coverage relative to the hospital or medical coverage or 14 insurability of newborn infants from and after the moment of 15 birth.

16 (2) Each such policy of accident and health insurance shall 17 contain a provision stating that the accident and health
18 insurance benefits applicable for children shall be granted
19 immediately with respect to a newly born child from the moment
20 of birth. The coverage for newly born children shall include
21 coverage of illness, injury, congenital defects, birth

23 (3) If payment of a specific premium is required to provide 24 coverage for a child, the policy may require that notification
25 of birth of a newly born child must be furnished to the insurer 26 within 31 days after the date of birth in order to have the 27 coverage continue beyond such 31 day period and may require 28 payment of the appropriate premium.

29 (4) In the event that no other members of the insured's
30 immediate family are covered, immediate coverage for the first

13 with, at the option of the insurer, payment of a premium
14 appropriate thereto.
