AN ACT concerning conservation.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, 3 represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The River Conservancy Districts Act is amended by changing Section 4a as follows:

6 (70 ILCS 2105/4a) (from Ch. 42, par. 386a)

Sec. 4a. Every conservancy district so established shall be governed by a board of trustees. In the statement finding the results of the election to be favorable to the establishment of the district, the circuit court shall determine and name each municipality within the district having 5,000 or more population according to the last preceding federal census.

(1) In case there is one or more municipalities having a population of 5,000 or more within the district, the trustees shall be appointed as follows:

(a) In districts organized prior to July 1, 1961, where 16 17 there is only one such municipality, 3 trustees shall be appointed from such municipality, and one trustee shall be 18 19 appointed from the area within the district outside of such 20 municipality, and one trustee shall be appointed at large. In districts organized on and after July 1, 1961, where 21 there is only one such municipality one trustee shall be 22 23 appointed from such municipality, and one trustee shall be appointed from each county in the district, except that 24 25 where the district is wholly contained within a single 26 county, one trustee shall be appointed from that county and additional trustee shall be appointed from the 27 one municipality, and, in any case, 2 trustees shall be 28 29 appointed at large. A trustee appointed from a county in 30 the district shall be appointed from the area outside any such municipality. If the district is located wholly within 31 the corporate limits of such municipality, 3 of the 32

1 trustees of the district shall be appointed from such municipality, and 2 trustees shall be appointed at large. 2 3 In a district wholly contained within a single county of between 60,500 and 70,000 population and having no more 4 5 than one municipality of 5,000 or more population, regardless of the date of organization, 3 trustees shall be 6 appointed from that municipality, 2 trustees shall be 7 appointed from the district outside that municipality, and 8 2 trustees shall be appointed at large. No more than 2 9 10 appointments by each appointing authority may be from the 11 same political party.

12 (b) Where there are 2 or more such municipalities, one trustee shall be appointed from each such municipality, one 13 trustee shall be appointed from each county in the district 14 for each 50,000 population or part thereof within the 15 16 district in such county according to the last preceding 17 federal census, and 2 trustees shall be appointed at large. A trustee appointed from a county in the district shall be 18 appointed from the area outside any such municipality. If 19 20 the district is located wholly within the corporate limits of such municipalities, 2 trustees shall be appointed from 21 one of such municipalities having the largest 22 the 23 population, and one trustee shall be appointed from each of the other such municipalities, and 2 trustees shall be 24 25 appointed at large.

(c) Trustees representing the area within the district 26 27 located outside of any municipality having 5,000 or more 28 population and trustees appointed at large when the district is wholly contained within a single county shall 29 30 be appointed by the presiding officer of the county board 31 with the advice and consent of the county board and any 32 trustee representing the area within any such municipality shall be appointed by its presiding officer. If however the 33 district is located in more than one county, any trustee 34 representing the area within a district located outside of 35 any municipality having 5,000 or more population and any 36 trustee at large shall be appointed by a majority vote of the presiding officers of the county boards of the counties which encompass any part of the district, except that no such appointment shall affect the term of any trustee in office on the effective date of this amendatory Act of 1977. Any trustee representing the area within any such municipality shall be appointed by its presiding officer.

(d) A trustee representing the area within any such 8 municipality shall reside within its corporate limits. A 9 trustee representing the area within the district and 10 11 located outside of any such municipality shall reside 12 within such area. A trustee appointed at large may reside either within or without any such municipality but must 13 reside within the territory of the district. Should any 14 trustee cease to reside within that part of the territory 15 16 he represents, then his office shall be deemed vacated, and shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the 17 term as hereinafter provided. 18

19 (2) In case there are no municipalities having a population 20 of 5,000 or more within such district located wholly within a single county, the statement required by Section 1 shall 21 include such finding, and in such case the Board shall consist 22 23 of 5 trustees who shall be appointed at large by the presiding officer of the county board with the advice and consent of the 24 county board. If however the district is located in more than 25 26 one county, the trustees at large shall be appointed by a 27 majority vote of the presiding officers of the county boards of 28 the counties which encompass any portion of the district, but 29 any trustee in office on the effective date of this amendatory 30 Act of 1977 shall be permitted to serve out the remainder of his term. Each such trustee shall reside within the district 31 32 and shall continue to reside therein.

(3) All initial appointments of trustees shall be made within 60 days after the determination of the result of the election. Each appointment shall be in writing and shall be filed and made a matter of record in the office of the county

1 clerk wherein the organization proceedings were filed. A 2 trustee shall qualify within 10 days after appointment by acceptance and the taking of the constitutional oath of office, 3 4 both to be in writing and similarly filed for record in the 5 office of such county clerk. Members initially appointed to the board of trustees of such district shall serve from date of 6 appointment for 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years and shall draw lots to 7 8 determine the periods for which they each shall serve. In case 9 there are more than 5 trustees, lots shall be drawn so that 5 trustees shall serve initial terms of 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years 10 11 and the other trustees shall serve terms of 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 12 years as the number of trustees shall require and the drawing 13 of lots shall determine. The successors of all such initial members of the board of trustees of a river conservancy 14 15 district shall serve for terms of 5 years, all such 16 appointments and appointments to fill vacancies shall be made 17 in like manner as in the case of the initial trustees. A trustee having been duly appointed shall continue to serve 18 19 after the expiration of his term until his successor has been 20 appointed. Each trustee initially appointed in accordance with this amendatory Act of 1995 shall serve a term of 3 or 5 years 21 as determined by lot. 22

23 (4) Should a municipality which is wholly within a district attain, or should such a municipality be established, having a 24 25 population of 5,000 or more after the entry of the statement by 26 the circuit court, the presiding officer of such municipality 27 may petition the circuit court of the county in which such municipality lies for an order finding and determining the 28 29 population of such municipality and, if it is found and 30 determined upon the hearing of such petition that the population of such municipality is 5,000 or more, the board of 31 32 trustees of such district as previously established shall be increased by one trustee who shall reside within the corporate 33 limits of such municipality and shall be appointed by its 34 35 presiding officer. The initial trustee so appointed shall serve for a term of 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 years, as may be determined by 36

lot, and his successors shall be similarly appointed and shall serve for terms of 5 years. All provisions of this Section applicable to trustees representing municipal areas shall apply to any such trustee, including paragraph 5.

5 Should the foregoing provisions respecting (5) the 6 appointment of trustees representing the area within any municipality of 5,000 or more population be invalid when 7 8 applied to any situation, then as to such situation any such provision shall be deemed to be excised from this Act, and the 9 trustee whose appointment is thus affected shall be appointed 10 11 at large by the presiding officer of the county board with the 12 advice and consent of the county board except if the district 13 embraces more than one county in which case the trustees shall be appointed at large by a majority vote of the presiding 14 15 officers of the county boards of the counties which encompass 16 any portion of the district.

17 (6) In the case of a board representing a district that 18 embraces Franklin and Jefferson counties, a trustee may be 19 removed for incompetence, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in 20 office by the appropriate appointing presiding officer or 21 officers, without the advice and consent of the corporate 22 authorities, by filing a written order of removal with the 23 appropriate county or municipal clerk or clerks.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the 24 contrary, in the case of a board representing a district that 25 embraces Franklin and Jefferson counties, the terms of all 26 27 trustees shall end on the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 94th General Assembly. Beginning on that date, the board 28 shall consist of 7 trustees. The 7 trustees initially appointed 29 pursuant to this amendatory Act of the 94th General Assembly 30 31 shall be appointed in the same manner as otherwise provided in this Section by the appropriate appointing authority and shall 32 serve the following terms, as determined by lot: (i) 2 trustees 33 shall serve until July 1, 2006; (ii) 2 trustees shall serve 34 35 until July 1, 2007; (iii) one trustee shall serve until July 1, 2008; (iv) one trustee shall serve until July 1, 2009; and (v) 36
