

1

SENATE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the State of Illinois learned with regret of the death of Dr. James Walker, the first African-American person to serve as president of the two-campus, 35,000-student Southern Illinois University system (SIU), on Sunday, February 5, 2006; and

7

WHEREAS, An Alabama native, Dr. Walker was a graduate of Pennsylvania State University's doctoral program in education and was the co-author of a book, "Behavior Management: A Practical Approach for Education", which is in its eighth edition; he authored several journal articles related to special education and educational psychology; and

13

WHEREAS, He earned his bachelor's degree in biology from Alabama State University and a Masters in Special Education from Atlanta University; he was a post-doctoral fellow at the University of Alabama in Higher Education Administration and was also a graduate of the Harvard University Institute for Educational Management; and

19

WHEREAS, Dr. Walker came to SIU from the president's job at Middle Tennessee State University in 2000; he was recognized as one of the most accomplished and dedicated higher education professionals in this country; he is remembered by his successor at SIU as a caring and decent man who accomplished a great deal for Southern Illinois University through his positive outlook on life and his wonderful sense of humor and is credited with providing stable and experienced leadership to the SIU system at a critical point in its history; and

28

WHEREAS, Upon arriving at SIU in 2000, President Walker formed a committee known as the "2020 Vision Committee" composed of an external group of nationally recognized educators and community leaders; chaired by the late Senator

31

1 Paul Simon, the committee developed a set of recommendations
2 designed to chart the way for SIU as it moved into the 21st
3 century; in September of 2002 the "2020 Vision Committee"
4 issued its report, which included 42 specific recommendations
5 to move the University forward during the next two decades; the 6 report guided much of the President's administrative planning
7 and decision-making processes during his tenure at SIU; and

8 WHEREAS, President Walker's many visits to Springfield and 9 Washington, D.C., gained him respect and stature among State
10 and federal elected officials; key members of the Illinois
11 Congressional delegation, working together with Dr. Walker, 12 secured millions in federal research grants in the areas of 13 coal, agriculture, bio-fuels, health care, and education
14 during his tenure; and

15 WHEREAS, His discussions and relationships with key State
16 officials assisted the University in securing more than $110
17 million in State appropriations for capital funding during his 18 tenure; key projects included the $12 million renovation of 19 Altgeld Hall and Old Baptist Foundation, the $35 million
20 renovation of Morris Library, the new construction of the $30
21 million School of Medicine Combined Laboratory Facility in 22 Springfield, the $21 million Cancer Institute that will break
23 ground this year, and the $20 million Corn to Ethanol National 24 Research Plant at SIUE; during his tenure at SIU, private 25 contributions to the university's foundation rose by 30%; and

26 WHEREAS, President Walker was also instrumental in raising
27 student scholarship funds; his Presidential Scholarship Fund
28 annually rewarded academic excellence and resulted in some of 29 the best young minds in the State enrolling at SIU's campuses;
30 and

31 WHEREAS, He also initiated efforts to foster greater
32 cooperation between the Carbondale and Edwardsville campuses;

1 his Task Force for the Identification and Development of 2 Collaborative Opportunities resulted in significant
3 improvements in maximizing resources and strengths of SIU as 4 one university; his work in this area resulted in successful
5 joint coordination of federal research funding efforts in rural 6 health care programs including medicine, nursing, dental
7 medicine, and allied health work; in the area of budget,
8 administrative, and legal services, President Walker's
9 streamlining initiatives resulted in a 28% reduction in 10 University administrative costs over the last two years of his 11 service; and

12 WHEREAS, President Walker was also aggressive in working
13 with the Chancellors of the Carbondale and Edwardsville
14 campuses in pursuing new programs and capital projects funded
15 with university resources, including the new SIUE Pharmacy
16 School and the recently approved expansion of the SIU
17 governmental internship program; and

18 WHEREAS, President Walker was a member of numerous higher
19 education professional organizations and served on the boards
20 of several of these associations, including the American
21 Association of State Colleges and Universities and the American
22 Council on Education; he also served as chair of the NCAA
23 Division I Athletics Certification Committee; he was involved
24 in Rotary International, the United Way, Boy Scouts of America, 25 and the American Heart Association; and

26 WHEREAS, He spent more than three decades in higher
27 education; he took the position at SIU after serving at Middle 28 Tennessee State University, where he was president for ten 29 years; prior to becoming president at MTSU, he was Provost and 30 Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of 31 Northern Colorado; he moved through the ranks from assistant
32 professor, department chair, dean, provost, and vice president
33 for academic affairs to president; and

1 WHEREAS, The passing of Dr. James Walker has been deeply
2 felt by many lives that he touched, especially his wife, Gwenn,
3 and his two daughters; therefore, be it

4 RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL
5 ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn the passing of 6 Dr. James Walker, and we extend our sincere condolences to his 7 family, friends, and all who knew and loved him; and be it
8 further

9 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 10 presented to his family as an expression of our deepest 11 sympathy.