7 (20 ILCS 2310/2310-342)

8 Sec. 2310-342. Umbilical cord blood donations.

9 (a) Subject to appropriations for that purpose, the 10 Department of Public Health shall, by January 1, 2008 ~~2007~~,
11 prepare and distribute to health and maternal care providers
12 written publications containing standardized, objective
13 information about umbilical cord blood banking that is 14 sufficient to allow a pregnant woman to make an informed
15 decision about whether to participate in a public or private 16 umbilical cord blood banking program, including ~~that include~~
17 the following information:

18 (1) An explanation of the difference between public and 19 private umbilical cord blood banking.

20 (2) The options available to a mother, after the 21 delivery of her newborn, relating to stem cells contained
22 in the umbilical cord blood, including:

23 (A) donating to a public bank;

1 (B) storing in a family umbilical cord blood bank
2 for use by immediate and extended family members;

3 (C) storing, for family use, through a family or
4 sibling donor banking program that provides free
5 collection, processing, and storage when there is a
6 medical need; and

7 (D) discarding the umbilical cord blood.

8 (3) ~~(1)~~ The medical processes involved in the 9 collection of umbilical cord blood.

10 (4) ~~(2)~~ The medical risks to a mother and her newborn
11 child of umbilical cord blood collection.

12 (5) ~~(3)~~ The current and potential future medical uses
13 and benefits of umbilical cord blood collection to a
14 mother, her newborn child, and her biological family.

15 (6) ~~(4)~~ The current and potential future medical uses
16 and benefits of umbilical cord blood collection to persons
17 who are not biologically related to a mother or her newborn
18 child.

19 (7) Medical or family history criteria that can impact
20 a family's consideration of umbilical cord blood banking.

21 (8) Costs associated with public and private umbilical
22 cord blood banking, including the family banking and 23 sibling donor programs when there is a medical need.

24 ~~(5) Any costs that may be incurred by a pregnant woman~~
25 ~~who chooses to make an umbilical cord blood donation.~~

26 (9) ~~(6)~~ Options for ownership and future use of the

1 donated material.

2 (10) ~~(7)~~ The availability in Illinois of umbilical cord
3 blood donations.

4 (b) The Department shall encourage health and maternal care
5 providers providing healthcare services to a pregnant woman,
6 when those healthcare services are directly related to her
7 pregnancy, to provide the pregnant woman with the publication
8 described under subsection (a) of this Section before her third
9 trimester.

10 (c) ~~(b)~~ In developing the publications required under 11 subsection (a), the Department of Public Health shall consult
12 with an organization of physicians licensed to practice
13 medicine in all its branches and consumer groups. The 14 Department shall update the publications every 2 years.
