

SR0277

LRB095 12609 GRL 37883 r

1

SENATE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois Senate are saddened to learn of the death of Joseph T. McCann of Gurnee, who passed away on June 14, 2007; and

3

4

5

WHEREAS, Joseph T. McCann was born on February 3, 1919 in Kenosha, Wisconsin; his parents were Hugh and Elizabeth McCann; he married Eleanor Meier on January 3, 1941; and

6

7

8

WHEREAS, Joseph T. McCann was a carpenter for many years on the North shore and retired from S.C. Johnson Wax in 1982; after his retirement, he spent the winter seasons in Brooksville, Florida for 16 years; he was a member of Gurnee Community Church, Gurnee American Legion, and the Computer Club; when he moved to Gurnee in January 1933, he lived in the renowned Mother Rudd House; and

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

WHEREAS, During World War II, Joseph T. McCann served in the United States Navy aboard the USS Uranus in the Pacific theatre as an electrician; and 16

17

18

WHEREAS, Joseph T. McCann was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Earl McCann; and his sister and brother-in-law, Ed and Sophia Jochims; and

19

20

1 WHEREAS, Joseph T. McCann is survived by his wife, Eleanor;
2 his children, Cathy Burleson, Tom (Betty) McCann, and Mary
3 (Jim) Quinn; his grandchildren, Debbie Treadway, Dawn Clemons,
4 Scott and Eric McCann, and Jim and Kyle Quinn; his
5 great-grandchildren, Jessica Ledford and Derrick and Nicky
6 Clemons; his sister, Mabel Passini; and his brother, Bud
7 (Elaine) McCann; therefore, be it

8 RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL
9 ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn, along with 10 his family and friends, the passing of Joseph T. McCann; and be 11 it further

12 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 13 presented to the family of Joseph T. McCann as an expression of 14 our sympathy.