

SR0739

LRB095 21600 GRL 51613 r

1

SENATE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois Senate were saddened to learn of the death of Georgia Ann Pillow Rountree of Springfield, who passed away on May 26, 2008; and

3

4

5

WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree was born on March 14, 1920 in Nashville, Tennessee; she was the daughter of Robert Armstead and Flora (Collier) Pillow II; she married Alvin Lester Rountree on November 17, 1945 in Corinth, Mississippi; and

6

7

8

9

WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree received her bachelor's degree from Tennessee State University and her master's degrees from Western Illinois University and Sangamon State University; and

10

11

12

WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree began her career as a vocational home economics teacher at Cranes High School in Brownsville, Tennessee; she moved on to serve as a Home Demonstration Agent in Pulaski, Tennessee for the University of Tennessee; and

13

14

15

16

WHEREAS, In 1946, Georgia Rountree and her husband moved to Springfield, where she was employed as a nursery school teacher; in 1955, she worked as an Assistant Dietitian, teaching Diabetic and Special Diets to patients at St. John's and Memorial Hospitals in Springfield; and

17

18

19

20

1           WHEREAS, As a secretary of the YMCA, Georgia Rountree was 2 responsible for organizing the first black Y-Teen for young
3 girls, which participated in the desegregation of the YMCA's 4 swimming pool; and

5           WHEREAS, After 10 years of attempts, Georgia Rountree
6 eventually became a teacher for Springfield School District
7 186, one of the first in a group of black teachers to be hired
8 by the district; she went on to serve for 37 years at Edison
9 and Lanphier Schools as a language arts, social studies,
10 civics, consumer education, and American history teacher; she 11 also taught African-American History in summer school classes
12 and taught for several semesters at Blackburn College; and

13           WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree was a member of Grace United 14 Methodist Church for over 62 years; as a member of the church,
15 she served as President of the United Methodist Women for two 16 terms; she was a member of the choir and was a lay speaker; she 17 served as a Church School teacher; she also served as 18 Chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relation Committee, among many 19 others; and

20           WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree held many positions within the 21 United Methodist Conference; she served as Chairperson of the 22 Race Relations Committee on Ethnic Local Concerns; she served
23 as Secretary of the United Methodist Women's Commission on

1 Archives and History; she served on numerous commissions,
2 including the Commission on Status Role of Women and the 3 Commission on Nominations, among many others; she taught in the 4 Conference Schools of Christian Mission; she was appointed by 5 Bishop White as a trustee to Wiley College in Marshall, Texas;
6 she also served in numerous positions in the Springfield
7 District level, including Lay Delegate at Large for the Annual 8 Conferences and Certified Lay Speaker; and

9 WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree was an active member of her 10 community; she served as President of Urban League Guild; she 11 was a member of the Human Relation Commission and the 12 International Visitors' Sister Cities; she was an elected
13 Regional Director for the National Urban League Guilds' Central 14 Region; she served as President of the Grace Urban Ministries
15 Board of Directors and as Director for the Jessie Rogers Child
16 Development Center; she was also a member of the Alpha Kappa 17 Alpha Sorority; and

18 WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree was the recipient of many awards
19 in recognition of her service to her community, including the 20 Teacher of the Year award, a Humanitarian award for Outstanding
21 accomplishments in Education and Community Service, a Wiley
22 College Award for Christian Education and Public Service, a
23 Social Workers and Human Relations of the State of Illinois
24 Humanitarian Award, and a Golden Life Membership award and a

1 scholarship in her name from the Nu Omicron Omega Chapter in 2 Springfield, which she founded and served as president; and

3 WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree was preceded in death by her
4 parents; her sisters, Ida Sumerall and Flora "Febbie" Majors;
5 and her brother, Robert Armstead Pillow III; and

6 WHEREAS, Georgia Rountree is survived by her sister,
7 Bernice Higgins; her son, Dana Alvin Rountree (wife, Carrolyn
8 Delk); her daughter, Janice Lenora Thompson (husband,
9 Anthony); her grandchildren, Devin T. Rountree, Ashley M.
10 Thompson, and Amanda J. Thompson; and her many nieces, nephews,
11 and friends; therefore, be it

12 RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL
13 ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn, along with 14 her family and friends, the passing of Georgia Rountree; and be 15 it further

16 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 17 presented to the family of Georgia Rountree as an expression of 18 our sympathy.