

HR0650

LRB096 12282 GRL 26346 r

1

HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, Accommodations and food services accounted for 450,400 jobs in Illinois in 2007, according to the Illinois Department of Employment Security, Current Employment Statistics; food service workers range from chefs in fine restaurants to short-order cooks, waiters, and cafeteria workers; and

8

WHEREAS, Food service workers are younger than the average employee, with 37 percent below the age of 24; one-third of these workers are employed part time; and

10

11

WHEREAS, Food service workers often work in small, cramped kitchens with hot stoves and ovens; the workers are under pressure to produce and serve food quickly while maintaining quality standards; work conditions for these workers are tough, requiring employees to stand for hours at a time, with slips, falls, cuts, and burns as common job hazards; and

16

17

WHEREAS, In 2006, about 29 percent of cooks and 44 percent of food preparation workers had part-time schedules, compared to 15 percent of workers throughout the economy; work hours in restaurants may include early mornings, late evenings, holidays, and weekends, while the work schedules of chefs, cooks, and other kitchen workers in factory and school

22

1 cafeterias may be more regular; and

2 WHEREAS, Food service worker positions teach valuable
3 skills, including communication skills; the workers also learn
4 to work quickly, efficiently, and how to deal with pressure
5 situations; in addition, workers learn proper customer service
6 techniques, including how to deal with upset customers; all of
7 these skills prove invaluable to workers that move on to future
8 careers in the public or private sectors; and

9 WHEREAS, Food service workers provide a vital service to 10 the State of Illinois, both through their positions in the 11 restaurants and cafeterias of this State and their role in the 12 overall economic welfare of Illinois; therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 14 NINETY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we
15 designate the second Tuesday in October of each year as Food
16 Service Workers Day in the State of Illinois in honor of these 17 workers and their immense contributions to this State.