4 Section 5. The Property Tax Code is amended by changing
5 Section 15-170 as follows:

6 (35 ILCS 200/15-170)

7 Sec. 15-170. Senior Citizens Homestead Exemption. An 8 annual homestead exemption limited, except as described here
9 with relation to cooperatives or life care facilities, to a 10 maximum reduction set forth below from the property's value, as 11 equalized or assessed by the Department, is granted for 12 property that is occupied as a residence by a person 65 years 13 of age or older who is liable for paying real estate taxes on 14 the property and is an owner of record of the property or has a 15 legal or equitable interest therein as evidenced by a written 16 instrument, except for a leasehold interest, other than a 17 leasehold interest of land on which a single family residence
18 is located, which is occupied as a residence by a person 65
19 years or older who has an ownership interest therein, legal, 20 equitable or as a lessee, and on which he or she is liable for 21 the payment of property taxes. Before taxable year 2004, the 22 maximum reduction shall be $2,500 in counties with 3,000,000 or 23 more inhabitants and $2,000 in all other counties. For taxable

1 years 2004 through 2005, the maximum reduction shall be $3,000
2 in all counties. For taxable years 2006 and 2007, the maximum
3 reduction shall be $3,500 in all counties. ~~For and, for~~ taxable
4 years 2008 through 2010 ~~and thereafter~~, the maximum reduction
5 is $4,000 in all counties. For taxable year 2011, the maximum 6 reduction is $7,000 in all counties. For taxable years 2012 and 7 thereafter, the maximum reduction is the maximum reduction for 8 the prior taxable year increased by the annual rate of 9 increase, for the previous calendar year, of the Consumer Price 10 Index for All Urban Consumers for all items, published by the 11 United States Bureau of Labor Statistics.

12 For land improved with an apartment building owned and 13 operated as a cooperative, the maximum reduction from the value
14 of the property, as equalized by the Department, shall be 15 multiplied by the number of apartments or units occupied by a 16 person 65 years of age or older who is liable, by contract with 17 the owner or owners of record, for paying property taxes on the 18 property and is an owner of record of a legal or equitable 19 interest in the cooperative apartment building, other than a 20 leasehold interest. For land improved with a life care
21 facility, the maximum reduction from the value of the property, 22 as equalized by the Department, shall be multiplied by the 23 number of apartments or units occupied by persons 65 years of 24 age or older, irrespective of any legal, equitable, or 25 leasehold interest in the facility, who are liable, under a 26 contract with the owner or owners of record of the facility,

1 for paying property taxes on the property. In a cooperative or 2 a life care facility where a homestead exemption has been 3 granted, the cooperative association or the management firm of 4 the cooperative or facility shall credit the savings resulting 5 from that exemption only to the apportioned tax liability of 6 the owner or resident who qualified for the exemption. Any 7 person who willfully refuses to so credit the savings shall be 8 guilty of a Class B misdemeanor. Under this Section and 9 Sections 15-175, 15-176, and 15-177, "life care facility" means
10 a facility, as defined in Section 2 of the Life Care Facilities
11 Act, with which the applicant for the homestead exemption has a 12 life care contract as defined in that Act.

13 When a homestead exemption has been granted under this 14 Section and the person qualifying subsequently becomes a 15 resident of a facility licensed under the Assisted Living and 16 Shared Housing Act, the Nursing Home Care Act, or the MR/DD
17 Community Care Act, the exemption shall continue so long as the 18 residence continues to be occupied by the qualifying person's 19 spouse if the spouse is 65 years of age or older, or if the 20 residence remains unoccupied but is still owned by the person
21 qualified for the homestead exemption.

22 A person who will be 65 years of age during the current 23 assessment year shall be eligible to apply for the homestead 24 exemption during that assessment year. Application shall be 25 made during the application period in effect for the county of 26 his residence.

1 Beginning with assessment year 2003, for taxes payable in 2 2004, property that is first occupied as a residence after 3 January 1 of any assessment year by a person who is eligible
4 for the senior citizens homestead exemption under this Section
5 must be granted a pro-rata exemption for the assessment year.
6 The amount of the pro-rata exemption is the exemption allowed
7 in the county under this Section divided by 365 and multiplied
8 by the number of days during the assessment year the property 9 is occupied as a residence by a person eligible for the 10 exemption under this Section. The chief county assessment
11 officer must adopt reasonable procedures to establish 12 eligibility for this pro-rata exemption.

13 The assessor or chief county assessment officer may 14 determine the eligibility of a life care facility to receive 15 the benefits provided by this Section, by affidavit,
16 application, visual inspection, questionnaire or other
17 reasonable methods in order to insure that the tax savings
18 resulting from the exemption are credited by the management
19 firm to the apportioned tax liability of each qualifying 20 resident. The assessor may request reasonable proof that the 21 management firm has so credited the exemption.

22 The chief county assessment officer of each county with 23 less than 3,000,000 inhabitants shall provide to each person 24 allowed a homestead exemption under this Section a form to 25 designate any other person to receive a duplicate of any notice
26 of delinquency in the payment of taxes assessed and levied

1 under this Code on the property of the person receiving the 2 exemption. The duplicate notice shall be in addition to the 3 notice required to be provided to the person receiving the 4 exemption, and shall be given in the manner required by this 5 Code. The person filing the request for the duplicate notice 6 shall pay a fee of $5 to cover administrative costs to the 7 supervisor of assessments, who shall then file the executed
8 designation with the county collector. Notwithstanding any 9 other provision of this Code to the contrary, the filing of 10 such an executed designation requires the county collector to 11 provide duplicate notices as indicated by the designation. A 12 designation may be rescinded by the person who executed such 13 designation at any time, in the manner and form required by the 14 chief county assessment officer.

15 The assessor or chief county assessment officer may 16 determine the eligibility of residential property to receive 17 the homestead exemption provided by this Section by 18 application, visual inspection, questionnaire or other 19 reasonable methods. The determination shall be made in 20 accordance with guidelines established by the Department.

21 In counties with 3,000,000 or more inhabitants, beginning 22 in taxable year 2010, each taxpayer who has been granted an 23 exemption under this Section must reapply on an annual basis.
24 The chief county assessment officer shall mail the application
25 to the taxpayer. In counties with less than 3,000,000 26 inhabitants, the county board may by resolution provide that if

1 a person has been granted a homestead exemption under this 2 Section, the person qualifying need not reapply for the 3 exemption.

4 In counties with less than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if the 5 assessor or chief county assessment officer requires annual 6 application for verification of eligibility for an exemption
7 once granted under this Section, the application shall be 8 mailed to the taxpayer.

9 The assessor or chief county assessment officer shall 10 notify each person who qualifies for an exemption under this 11 Section that the person may also qualify for deferral of real 12 estate taxes under the Senior Citizens Real Estate Tax Deferral 13 Act. The notice shall set forth the qualifications needed for 14 deferral of real estate taxes, the address and telephone number 15 of county collector, and a statement that applications for 16 deferral of real estate taxes may be obtained from the county
17 collector.

18 Notwithstanding Sections 6 and 8 of the State Mandates Act, 19 no reimbursement by the State is required for the 20 implementation of any mandate created by this Section.
