1 SENATE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois Senate are saddened to 3 learn of the death of Helen Burns Jackson, who passed away on 4 September 7, 2015; and

5 WHEREAS, Helen Jackson was born on November 9, 1923 in 6 Greenville County, South Carolina; and

7 WHEREAS, Helen Jackson received her early education in the 8 public schools of Greenville and, because of her extraordinary
9 singing voice, earned a music scholarship to attend Talladega
10 College in Alabama; and

11 WHEREAS, Helen Jackson earned her license in cosmetology
12 and owned and operated the Helen B. Jackson Beauty Salon for 13 many years; and

14 WHEREAS, Helen Jackson was baptized at an early age at 15 Springfield Baptist Church in Greenville, South Carolina; she 16 later joined the Long Branch Baptist Church, and then the 17 Piedmont Manor Baptist Church, where she sang in the choir, 18 delighting parishioners with her soprano voice, served on the 19 Missionary Society, and participated in a host of other church 20 ministries; and

1 WHEREAS, Helen Jackson was a feminist who challenged molds
2 long before the feminist movement became popular; she took an 3 interest in many hobbies, including interior decorating, 4 cosmetology, spending time with her family, and especially 5 serving her community through numerous organizations,
6 including the Boards of Directors of the Phyllis Wheatley
7 Center, the Y.W.C.A., Greenville Technical College, the Trip
8 Advisory Committee, and the Greenville Family Advocate; she was 9 also a member of the Democratic Women's Organization, a 10 founding member of the first Greenville Cosmetology Club, and a
11 member of the 9th District of the South Carolina State 12 Cosmetology Association; and

13 WHEREAS, Helen Jackson was preceded in death by her loving 14 husband of 40 years, Charles Henry Jackson, Sr.; and

15 WHEREAS, Helen Jackson is survived by her sons, Rev. Jesse
16 L. Jackson, Sr. and his wife, Jacqueline, and Charles Henry
17 Jackson, Jr., and his wife, Cheryl; her grandchildren, Santita,
