8 following:

9 "(65 ILCS 5/3.1-10-6)

10 Sec. 3.1-10-6. Qualifications; appointive office.

11 (a) No person shall be eligible for any appointive 12 municipal office unless that person is a qualified elector of 13 the municipality or otherwise provided by law.

14 (b) The residency requirements do not apply, however, to 15 municipal engineers, health officers, attorneys, or other 16 officers who require technical training or knowledge, to 17 appointed village treasurers, to appointed village clerks, or 18 to appointed city or village collectors (unless the city or 19 village has designated by ordinance that the city or village
20 clerk shall also hold the office of collector).

21 (c) Except for incorporated towns that have superseded a 22 civil township, municipalities having a population of not

1 more than 500,000 may adopt ordinances that allow firemen and 2 policemen to reside outside of the corporate limits of the 3 municipality by which they are employed both at the time of 4 appointment and while serving as a fireman or policeman.
