Disclosure to the Senate

On June 2, 2019, the Illinois Senate voted on a Motion to Concur on House Amendments to Senate Bill 690. This legislation includes a number of legislative changes to fund a capital bill. There are a few legislative changes that affect the video gaming industry, such as a tax increase, an additional 6th machine and other changes aimed at increasing revenues for the State. I am a partner in a large, national law firm, which represents a video gaming client. I have not done work on any legal matters for the client.

The Motion to Concur on House Amendments to Senate Bill 690 is a vital piece of legislation for economic development and safety of the people of Illinois. In spite of the firm's representation of the client and after consultation with the Senate Democrats Ethics Officer, I voted in favor of the Motion to Concur to Senate Bill 690 because I believe the legislation is in the best interest of the State of Illinois. Attached, please find the statutory guidelines relied upon in making my determination.

Sincerely,
s/John J. Cullerton
Senator John J. Cullerton
President of the Illinois Senate

Information maintained by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Updating the database of the Illinois Compiled Statutes (ILCS) is an ongoing process. Recent laws may not yet be included in the ILCS database, but they are found on this site as Public Acts soon after they become law. For information concerning the relationship between statutes and Public Acts, refer to the Guide.

Because the statute database is maintained primarily for legislative drafting purposes, statutory changes are sometimes included in the statute database before they take effect. If the source note at the end of a Section of the statutes includes a Public Act that has not yet taken effect, the version of the law that is currently in effect may have already been removed from the database and you should refer to that Public Act to see the changes made to the current law.

GENERAL PROVISIONS
(5 ILCS 420/) Illinois Governmental Ethics Act.

(5 ILCS 420/Art. 3 Pt. 2 heading)

PART 2. ETHICAL PRINCIPLES FOR LEGISLATORS

(5 ILCS 420/3-201) (from Ch. 127, par. 603-201)

Sec. 3-201. Where feasible, and taking into account the fact that legislative service is part-time, a legislator should avoid accepting or retaining an economic opportunity which presents a substantial threat to his independence of judgment.

(Source: Laws 1967, p. 3401.)

(5 ILCS 420/3-202) (from Ch. 127, par. 603-202)

Sec. 3-202. When a legislator must take official action on a legislative matter as to which he has a conflict situation created by a personal, family, or client legislative interest, he should consider the possibility of eliminating the interest creating the conflict situation. If that is not feasible, he should consider the possibility of abstaining from such official action. In making his decision as to abstention, the following factors should be considered:

a. whether a substantial threat to his independence of judgment has been created by the conflict situation;

b. the effect of his participation on public confidence in the integrity of the legislature;

c. whether his participation is likely to have any significant effect on the disposition of the matter;

d. the need for his particular contribution, such as special knowledge of the subject matter, to the effective functioning of the legislature.

He need not abstain if he decides to participate in a manner contrary to the economic interest which creates the conflict situation.

If he does abstain, he should disclose that fact to his respective legislative body.

(5 ILCS 420/3-203) (from Ch. 127, par. 603-203)

Sec. 3-203. When, despite the existence of a conflict situation, a legislator chooses to take official action on a matter, he should serve the public interest, and not the interest of any person.

(Source: Laws 1967, p. 3401.)

(5 ILCS 420/3-204) (from Ch. 127, par. 603-204)

Sec. 3-204. No legislator should accept a representation case unless he believes there is merit to the position he is asked to represent.

(Source: Laws 1967, p. 3401.)

(5 ILCS 420/3-205) (from Ch. 127, par. 603-205)

Sec. 3-205. A legislator participating in a representation case shall, wherever feasible, arrange for other persons to make appearances before the State agency.

COMMUNICATION

ILLINOIS STATE SENATE
SENATOR DON HARMON
ASSISTANT MAJORITY LEADER

DISCLOSURE TO THE SENATE

Date: June 2, 2019

Legislative Measure: Senate Bill 690

Venue: Full Senate

On June 2, 2019, the Illinois Senate voted on a Motion to Concur on House Amendments to Senate Bill 690. This legislation includes a number of legislative changes to fund a capital bill. There are legislative changes that create a regulatory scheme for sports wagering and that affect the video gaming industry, such as a tax increase, an additional 6th position and other changes aimed at increasing revenues for the State. I have discovered that the law firm which I work for has a video gaming client and a client that may have a future interest in sports wagering. I have not done work on any gaming or legislative matters for either client.

[June 13, 2019]

The Motion to Concur on House Amendments to Senate Bill 690 is a vital piece of legislation for economic development and safety of the people of Illinois. Notwithstanding a potential conflict of interest (or the appearance of a conflict of interest) and after consultation with the Senate Democrats Ethics Officer, I voted in favor of the Motion to Concur to Senate Bill 690 because I believe doing so is in the best interest of the State of Illinois.

s/Don Harmon
